Course Description
Course Prefix/Number: English 1302. Course Title: Writing and Reading Across the Curriculum.
Brief Course Description: English Composition (3-0). A course in critical reading and writing across the curriculum, including the research process and the research paper. Prerequisite: English 1301 or equivalent credit.

Since this is a dual credit course, it is also a study of British literature and various modes of writing. Grammar is taught in conjunction with composition and a research paper is mandatory.

At the end of this course you should be able to
• Use the writing process as a form of learning, critical thinking, and communicating
• Communicate in writing effectively with audiences from a variety of disciplines
• Locate, evaluate, and integrate resources from the ASU library into your writing
• Conduct a methodical research process to complete an academic research essay
• Practice source attribution, synthesis, and citation style properly for academic research purposes.

Coursework Policy and Procedures

As this is a college level course, students are expected to keep up with all course work and stay on top of his or her schedule. No late work will be accepted.

Therefore, it is the student’s responsibility to turn in any and all work before he or she expects to be gone. Exceptions will be made in the case of documented emergencies. This means minor illnesses, football, basketball, baseball, softball games, band competitions, UIL activities, track meets, FFA events, and all other extracurricular activities do NOT excuse one from homework or due dates. Make note of assignment due dates on one’s personal calendar. If an emergency arises, students should contact me as soon as he or she is able, and we will make a plan to get him or her back on track.

Electronic malfunction will not be an excuse for late work. DO NOT wait until the last possible second to submit an assignment. If you have a problem with Blackboard, you should contact the IT Service Center (325-942-2911) at Angelo State immediately. You will be given a service number and a receipt if IT cannot solve your problem. At this point and this point only, please make sure to email your assignment to me.

Blackboard®

This course operates on the Blackboard website through Angelo State University where students will find access to the REVEL textbook link (purchase required), important announcements, the TurnItIn® Dropbox for submission of papers, assignment prompts and guidelines, and handouts. Students will find the Blackboard site at http://blackboard.angelo.edu. Students should check the site often to stay abreast of assignments, changes to the syllabus and announcements.
Academic Honesty and Plagiarism
San Saba ISD and Angelo State University expect students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. This includes avoiding plagiarism. Plagiarism is defined as using ideas and information from other sources without giving appropriate credit to the original sources. If anyone is caught plagiarizing, intentionally or not, he or she will receive a zero on the assignment, and could possibly receive a failing grade in the course. Additional discipline could involve letters being placed in one’s permanent file and action taken by Angelo State University resulting in possible suspension or expulsion.

Participation
Attend and remain alert in every class period. My class sessions will consist of class discussions, group activities, in-class exercises, and individual work time. I expect everyone to actively participate in each of these forms of learning. Missing in-class or out-of-class activities and exercises, arriving late to class or leaving early, falling asleep, or otherwise disengaging from the course business during class will negatively impact one’s participation grade at my discretion. *Regardless of absences, all assignments are expected to be turned in on time.
