MGMT 3343 SECTION 030

Course Description/Overview
The course provides a foundation in the theory and practical application of information systems within an organization. Managing, analyzing, designing, and implementing an MIS will be the focus of the course. Strategic value, methodologies, quality, decision making, modeling, reengineering, software, hardware, and ethics will all be included.

Prerequisites Knowledge
Students should have junior or senior standing at the university level.

Technology
Access course materials and online assignments and tests using Blackboard and LearnSmart. You will need to purchase an access code either from the ASU bookstore or directly from McGraw Hill to access the online textbook and quizzes; information on the required code is found below on this syllabus.

Classroom Philosophy
To keep both the students and the professor focused on the material, food and chewing tobacco, and text messaging are not allowed in class. Mobile devices must be set to silence: texting, chat, Facebook, and other interactions with a mobile device or laptop are not allowed during class time.

Class Meeting Times
This class meets from 6-8:50 on Tuesdays Rassman Business 266.

Technical Support
The Technology Service Center (TSC) may be contacted by calling (325) 942-2911 or 1-866-942-2911 or by email at helpdesk@angelo.edu. If you have trouble accessing Blackboard of LearnSmart, please try the helpdesk by phone or on campus (located in the library and in the Math / Science computer lab.)

LearnSmart (Connect) resources and help are available from McGraw Hill online at: http://mpss.mhhe.com/contact.php.

Response Times

LearnSmart quizzes and Chapter are graded automatically, and you should see you score posted on Blackboard immediately on completion. Note: If your score on LearnSmart assignments does not post immediately or it is incorrect, notify the instructor by email.

You will be able to see your exam scores by the next scheduled class meeting date.

Response to emails or text messages will normally be within 24 hours Monday through Friday. I am here because I want you to learn, so please consider me a resource. You may talk to me by scheduling an appointment, or e-mail me with a call back number at any time between 8 AM and 10 PM and if I am available, I will call you back as soon as possible.

Assignment Deadlines and Missed/ Late Work

You are free to complete your work early; however, late work and missed work will not be accepted.

Exams

You will have four tests in the classroom, with one test for every three chapters in the book. Each exam is worth 125 points. The final exam is also worth 125 points and it is cumulative. Each exam is 50 multiple choice questions, and the questions will not be easy so please prepare well for each test—Your test questions will come from a test pool and will be ordered randomly. There will be no extra-credit essay questions on these exams. If more than two thirds of the class misses a test question, then I will discard that question, review the material after the test, and you will be re-tested on topics that were missed.

If you are found to be collaborating with other students on a test or cheating on your test, you will receive an F in the class and might be dismissed from ASU.

Attendance
Attendance and active participation is critical to success in this class, both for lectures and for group projects. Students are allowed 2 excused absences in the semester; the third absence will result in one letter grade reduction for the course. If you are late by more than 5 minutes, you are considered absent.

Syllabus Changes
The faculty member reserves the option to make changes as necessary to this syllabus and the course content. If changes become necessary during this course, the faculty will notify students of such changes by email, or course announcements. It is the student’s responsibility to look for such communications about the course on a daily basis.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Basic Needs

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect his or her performance in the course is urged to contact the Multicultural and Student Activities Programs Center. They are located in the University center, or you can reach out by email at multicultural@angelo.edu or by phone at 325-942-2729. The Multicultural and Student Activities Programs Center has a food pantry and other resources to help.

If you are comfortable doing so, please also reach out to me, and I may be able to put you in touch with other local community resources that can help.

Course and University Policies

Academic Honesty and Other Important Issues

Academic Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code and the ASU Student Handbook.

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook.

It is the professor’s intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

A special note on plagiarism
Your research paper and essays will be submitted using “Turn it In” to check for plagiarism and originality, so please cite your sources when quoting from others. The proper way to cite your source is to put quotation marks (“…”) when quoting directly, and in all cases to use APA format to credit the original source. Failure to do so is considered plagiarism and it will earn you a failing grade on the assignment and may result in a failing grade for the course. Please contact the ASU writing center if you need assistance with proper citations or formatting.

College of Business Code of Ethics

Students, faculty, administrators and professional staff of the College of Business should always:
• Be forthright and truthful in dealings with all stakeholders
• Take responsibility for one’s actions and decisions
• Serve as an example of ethical decision-making and behavior to others
• Admit errors when they occur, without trying to conceal them
• Respect the basic dignity of others by treating them as one would wish to be treated

Courtesy and Respect
Courtesy and Respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other’s opinions and respect their point of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity & harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one’s ethnicity, life style, race (ethnicity), religion, etc., violations of these rules will result in immediate dismissal from the course.

Accommodations for Disability
ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation. The Office of Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting: Dallas Swafford, Director of Student Disability Services, Office of Student Affairs, 325-942-2047, dallas.swafford@angelo.edu, University Center, Room 112.

Student absence for religious holidays
As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day), a student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Course Drop
To view information about how to drop this course or to calculate important dates relevant to dropping this course, you can visit http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrars_office/course_drop_provisions.php.

Incomplete as a Course grade
As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade I is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. An I that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an F. A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of I before it automatically becomes an F. To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all I’s.

Grade Appeal Process
As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-
