Textbook:
Give Me Liberty: An American History Vol. 2 by Eric Foner

Course Requirements:
1. Students must maintain an American History notebook.
2. Students must take complete and accurate notes and keep them organized in their notebook. Frequent lectures will be given as this is a college level class and in college, lectures and note-taking are the predominant form of teaching.
3. Students must read the textbook! There will be reading quizzes to make sure that students are keeping up with their reading. Quizzes count 30% of your grade.
4. Each 9 weeks there will be 6 - 7 Chapter tests and since tests count as 60% of your grade, you’d better study. Tests will cover lecture notes, assigned reading, and maps. If a student needs a make-up test, then he/she must do so immediately upon returning to class. Students absent on a test day must take the test the day they return to class. There will also be a major UNIT Exam after every 3 or 4 chapters.
5. The Unit Exams will count as two test grades. However, any student with an “A” average after the first 3 weeks has the option of ONLY counting the UNIT EXAMS towards their grade and NOT having to count the daily grades, quiz & enrichment grades, nor chapter test grades AT ALL. There are a total of 4 UNIT Exams for the entire Semester. Thus, any student who chooses this option understands that their entire Semester grade is based solely on 4 grades!!!

Grading Policy:
FHS Social Studies Department uses a weighted grading system. In this class every student will receive three types of grades in the Gradebook. These are Daily Grades (which count 10%); Quiz & Enrichment Grades (which count 30%); and Test Grades (which count 60%). It is imperative that you take notes, read your textbook, and study for tests!!! Taken together, these three averages will determine your 9 weeks average. (OPTION #2 = UNIT EXAMS count as 100%)

Your semester averages will be determined as follows:
9 weeks average = 50% or 2 UNIT Exams = 50%
9 weeks average = 50% 2 UNIT Exams = 50%
Semester Grade =100% Semester Grade = 100%
Class Rules:
1. Respect yourself and others enough to listen when spoken to and to do all assignments yourself!
2. Turn in all assignments on time! Late work is deducted -25 points per day!
3. Come to class prepared and on time! Tardies are counted in this class!
4. Respect the Teacher and each other at all times!
5. No food or drinks are allowed in class unless it is part of a class project. Water is allowed but it must come in a closed container! (i.e. no fountain drinks from Sonic, or other breakfast or lunch outing, etc.)
