Purpose
The purpose of Great Works in the Arts is to examine definitions of art and music, discuss the basic elements of music, and survey how they are used in selected major works of Western European Art Music.

Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of the course you will be able to:
• understand how meaning, level of profundity, and mastery of technique define a work of art, or not.
• define the basic elements of music.
• identify how the elements of music are manipulated in WEAM.

Materials
There is no required text.

Communication
I will contact you as needed via your ASU email account. The best way to contact me is by email (Kevin.Lambert@angelo.edu).

If you call my office and if I am not there leave a voice message, which is then sent to me via my email. My office phone number is (325) 486-6021.

Dallas Trip
The class will travel to Dallas to attend a performance of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra and visit art museums.
The date is to be determined. It will be set by the time class begins. We typically leave Friday afternoon and return
Sunday. This is a required trip. If you are in this class you must go on this trip. If you cannot go, drop the class.

<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-69</td>
<td>D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0-59</td>
<td>F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Attendance

Attendance is required. Excessive absences will lower your grade. You are given one free absence. After that each absence lowers your grade by five percent. If you have perfect attendance your final point total will be raised five percent. Sanctioned school trips do not count against you.

Please note:

If you miss taking a quiz or test you cannot make it up unless there is an extraordinary, verifiable circumstance. It is your responsibility to contact me about making up a quiz or test.

If you disagree with your final grade you have the right to appeal your grade. The ASU grade grievance policy can be found at http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/17600-grade-grievance-op.

Student Disability Services

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.
Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu.

For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website at www.angelo.edu/ADA.

The employee charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is:

Should you wish to speak to someone in confidence about an issue, you may contact the:
- University Counseling Center (325-942-2371), the
- 24-Hour Crisis Helpline (325-486-6345), or the
- University Health Clinic (325-942-2171).

For more information about resources related to sexual misconduct, Title IX, or Angelo State’s policy please visit: www.angelo.edu/title-ix.

Please Note: As a faculty member at Angelo State, I am a mandatory reporter and must report incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Student Conduct
Academic Integrity
Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.
Plagiarism
Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy
Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

In addition, all students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in the Angelo State University Student Handbook and the Angelo State University Catalog.

Religious Holy Day
A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information.

Incomplete Grades
It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information.

Guests/Children in class
Guests/children may visit class only with advanced permission of the instructor.
