GS 1181.F05: Business Aspects of the Superhero Movie Industry

Faculty/Instructor Information

Dr. Conklin, Powell Endowed Professor of Business Law
Office: Rassman 254
Phone: 325-942-6489
Email: mconklin@angelo.edu
Office Hours: Monday – Thursday 7:30 – 8:30 am and by appointment.

COURSE DESCRIPTION/OVERVIEW

This interdisciplinary course will utilize the superhero movie industry to discuss issues of international business, contract law, marketing, and representation of race/gender. Students will learn not only about behind-the-scenes considerations in the movie industry, but also business in general.

Course Technology

Students should be familiar with Microsoft Office Word and ASU Blackboard. The WebEx address is: angelostate.webex.com/meet/mconklin

Class Meeting Times

12:00 – 12:50, Mondays and Wednesdays
Location: Rassman 104
Students with last names starting with A-K will attend on Mondays and L-Z on Wednesdays.

Technical Support

The Technology Service Center (TSC) may be contacted by calling (325) 942-2911, 1-866-942-2911; or by email at helpdesk@angelo.edu

Course Objectives

Core Student Learning Outcomes

The objectives of this course are for you to develop applicable knowledge in regard to:

- Critical Thinking (CT1): Gather, analyze, and evaluate information relevant to business decisions.
- Communication Skills (CS1, CS2): Develop and express ideas related to business decisions through effective written and oral communication.
- Personal Responsibility (PR1): Demonstrate the ability to evaluate choices, actions and consequences as related to ethical decision-making.
- Social Responsibility (SR3): Demonstrate the ability to engage effectively in the campus community.
Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

- 8. Developing skill in expressing oneself orally or in writing
- 9. Learning how to find and use resources for answering questions or solving problems
- 11. Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas, arguments, and points of view

How will this class help you to get a job? Read the list of 10 skills employers want according to Forbes Magazine. In this course, you will work in small groups (work in a team structure), evaluate information (solve problems), do research (obtain information), summarize information (process information), use Blackboard (show proficiency with computer software), and communicate with classmates (communicate verbally with people inside the organization).

Method of Assessing Learning Outcomes
Core student learning outcomes will be assessed through course assignments.

Course Requirements
These assignments will be discussed in detail in class and a rubric will be provided:
Two article summaries
Information literacy assignment (embedded in Blackboard)
Attend campus event
Attendance

Required Materials
- Email/Internet/Computers: You have access to these as ASU students. Activate your email account and be sure to check your email frequently to receive notices/information from professors regarding your courses.
- Blackboard Account: This tool is a course management system used to track all courses. Professors will update grades, assignments, and post information to assist you in your classes. Be sure you know how to navigate Blackboard.

Grading Policies
The final grade will be determined as follows:

Two article summaries 60%
Information literacy assignment 10%
Attend campus event 10%
Attendance 20%

Course Policies

Academic Honesty and Integrity
Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code and the ASU Student Handbook.

It is the professor’s intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

Courtesy and Respect

Courtesy and Respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other's opinions and respect their point of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity & harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, life style, race (ethnicity), religion, etc.; violations of these rules will result in immediate dismissal from the course.

Accommodations for Disability

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.15 Providing Accommodations for Students with Disabilities), the Student Life Office is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting the Student Life Office at (325) 942-2191 or (325) 942-2126; (325) 942-2126 (TDD/FAX) or by e-mail at Student.Life@angelo.edu to begin the process. The Student Life Office will establish the particular documentation requirements necessary for the various types of disabilities.

Attendance

Showing up (and showing up on time) is a significant part of success in life and in college. You will earn one attendance point for every class that you show up to on time and attend until class is dismissed. After the last day of class, your attendance points will be divided by the total class days to determine your attendance score. For example, if you are late to two classes and skip two classes you will have earned eleven attendance points divided by fifteen total classes (no class Sept. 2). This equates to a generously mediocre 73% attendance grade.

Late Work

Learning to turn assignments in on time is very important in college. I want to facilitate the learning of this crucial lesson. Any assignments not turned in on time (which includes just one second late) can be hand-delivered to me during my office hours (and only during my office hours) for a 20% reduction.

Religious Holy Day Observance

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day), a student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Course Drop

To view information about how to drop this course or to calculate important dates relevant to dropping this course, you can visit http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrar_office/course_drop_provisions.php.
Incomplete as a Course Grade
As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade I is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. An I that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an F. A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of I before it automatically becomes an F. To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all I’s.

Grade Appeal Process
As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, equitable evaluation procedures, or appropriate grading, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance.

COVID-19 Statement
As a member of the Texas Tech University System, Angelo State University has adopted the mandatory Facial Covering Policy to ensure a safe and healthy classroom experience. Current research on the COVID-19 virus suggests there is a significant reduction in the potential for transmission of the virus from person to person by wearing a mask/facial covering that covers the nose and mouth areas. Therefore, in compliance with the university policy students in this class are required to wear a mask/facial covering before, during, and after class. Faculty members may also ask you to display your daily screening badge as a prerequisite to enter the classroom. You are also asked to maintain safe distancing practices to the best of your ability. For the safety of everyone, any student not appropriately wearing a mask/facial covering will be asked to leave the classroom immediately. The student will be responsible to make up any missed class content or work. Continued non-compliance with the Texas Tech University System Policy may result in disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.
GUIDELINES FOR WRITING AN EFFECTIVE SUMMARY

1. Read or watch the selection carefully to identify the author’s purpose. Distinguish between important ideas and less important ideas. You must understand the reading perfectly in order to do this. Look up unfamiliar words.
2. Re-read the selection.
   - Divide it into sections. (paragraphs or other obvious divisions the author may have used)
   - Identify important information in each section by making a note of it on notebook paper. This would include the thesis, main ideas of body paragraphs, and major details.
   - Write the definitions of unfamiliar words in the margins as well.
   - When you write your notes, do not use the same words the author used in the essay.
   - Avoid including minor ideas or details.
3. Write a sentence for the thesis, each main idea, and for the major details in the entire selection.
4. Write a “discovery draft” (rough draft) of your summary.
   - Write the author’s purpose or main subject (thesis), the title of the reading, and the author’s name in an opening sentence for the summary.
   - Add sentences for each of the main ideas and major details in the reading’s sections. Avoid trying to summarize every single paragraph in the selection. The ideas in short paragraphs can be combined with longer paragraphs.
   - Follow the same order in your summary as is in the original selection.
5. Revise your draft for content, including accuracy and completeness.
   - Maintain the same order as in the reading.
   - Eliminate repetition and less important information.
   - Disregard minor details.
   - End the summary with the same idea the reading ends with, but use different words. (That is, add an ending sentence that restates the author’s ending, but do not use the exact same words the author used.)
   - Consider the length of the summary. (1/4 to 1/3 the length of the original reading)
6. Revise your draft to eliminate errors in grammar, mechanics, etc.
   - Insert transitional words and phrases where needed.
   - Check for style. Your summary should reflect the style of the reading’s author.
   - Combine sentences for a smooth, logical flow of ideas. Avoid a series of short, choppy sentences. Eliminate repetition. (transitions: in addition, also, then, next, later, therefore)
   - Revise for grammatical correctness, punctuation and spelling.
7. Create a final draft of your summary. Use Times New Roman, size 12, font. Double-space the entire paper.
Summary of “The America I Love” by Elie Wiesel

Elie Wiesel explains his deep feelings for America in his essay, “The America I Love.” The day he became a citizen of the United States of America was the day he changed from an unwanted Jew to a proud and thankful man. Since then, he has been honored to be a part of a country where most people still want to help others and have a happy life. People still try to help the less fortunate. He learned his lesson in 1945 when he first met American soldiers as they freed the people in Buchenwald concentration camp. The soldiers were overcome with the unspeakable conditions they witnessed, and they cried because of the injustice of it all while the former prisoners felt that, finally, some part of humanity actually cared about them.

TESTS IN HIGH SCHOOL

| Guiding principle: Mastery is usually seen as the ability to reproduce what you were taught in the form in which it was presented to you, or to solve the kinds of problems you were shown how to solve. |
| Testing is frequent and covers small amounts of material. |
| Makeup tests are often available. |
| Teachers frequently rearrange test dates to avoid conflict with school events. |
| Teachers frequently conduct review sessions, pointing out the most important concepts. |

TESTS IN COLLEGE

| Guiding principle: Mastery is often seen as the ability to apply what you've learned to new situations or to solve new kinds of problems. |
| Testing is usually infrequent and may be cumulative, covering large amounts of material. You, not the professor, need to organize the material to prepare for the test. A particular course may have only 2 or 3 tests in a semester. |
| Makeup tests are seldom an option; if they are, you need to request them. |
| Professors in different courses usually schedule tests without regard to the demands of other courses or outside activities. |
| Professors rarely offer review sessions, and when they do, they expect you to be an active participant, one who comes prepared with questions. |

GRADES IN HIGH SCHOOL

| Guiding principle: Effort counts. Courses are usually structured to reward a "good-faith effort." |
| Grades are given for most assigned work. |
| Consistently good homework grades may raise your overall grade when test grades are low. |

GRADES IN COLLEGE

| Guiding principle: Results count. Though "good-faith effort" is important in regard to the professor's willingness to help you achieve good results, it will not substitute for results in the grading process. |
| Grades may not be provided for all assigned work. |
| Grades on tests and major papers usually provide most of the course grade. |
Extra credit projects are often available to help you raise your grade. Extra credit projects cannot, generally speaking, be used to raise a grade in a college course.

Initial test grades, especially when they are low, may not have an adverse effect on your final grade. Watch out for your first tests. These are usually "wake-up calls" to let you know what is expected--but they also may account for a substantial part of your course grade. You may be shocked when you get your grades.

You may graduate as long as you have passed all required courses with a grade of D or higher. You may graduate only if your average in classes meets the departmental standard--typically a 2.0 or C.

HOW TO MAKE THE TRANSITION TO COLLEGE

- Take control of your own education: think of yourself as a scholar.
- Get to know your professors; they are your single greatest resource.
- Be assertive. Create your own support systems, and seek help when you realize you may need it.
- Take advantage of Supplemental Instruction, the Math Lab, Writing Center, and Tutor Center.
- Take control of your time. Plan ahead to satisfy academic obligations and make room for everything else.
- Stretch yourself: enroll in at least one course that really challenges you.
- Make thoughtful decisions: don't take a course just to satisfy a requirement and don't drop any course too quickly.
- Think beyond the moment: set goals for the semester, the year, your college career
