<td>Critical Thinking</td>
<td>Employ problem-solving strategies (such as inquiring about an issue, comprehending consequences, and analyzing and synthesizing information) to generate positions and arguments and to examine basic principles of information to support a thesis. Comprehend, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate their own communication and that of others to raise questions, make assertions, and generate discussion about a topic or question.</td>
<td>Students complete writing that requires them to synthesize multiple viewpoints in the context of a sustained argument with a clear and defendable thesis. Students employ a variety of rhetorical strategies to write for multiple audiences. Students engage in various processes and activities to generate ideas and plan, write, revise, and edit their writing with an identified audience in mind. Students reflect (either in writing or via class discussion) on how their core beliefs and the sources of those beliefs connect to the rhetorical strategies they employ in their writing and evaluate how those strategies might influence or impact an audience.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Communication</td>
<td>Take into consideration audience, context, purpose, conventions, and circumstances relevant to written communication, use relevant and appropriate content for the specific rhetorical situation in order to express their position(s) effectively in writing. Work individually and collectively toward a shared purpose or goal with the members of a team, creating and evaluating their peers’ drafts.</td>

Objectives of English 1301
Methods and Requirements

All instructors of English 1301 are responsible for adopting texts and designing syllabi that best help students achieve course objectives. However, to make student learning experiences consistent across sections, instructors are advised to adhere to the following methods and requirements.

- Students should produce a minimum of three major capstone prose pieces, which should have various rhetorical purposes and audiences and employ a variety of rhetorical strategies (or modes). These assignments should be scaffolded with minor (low-stakes) writing assignments. The written assignments should increase in complexity as the semester progresses.
- The final exam must be summative/reflective and may consist of an additional writing assignment, a portfolio, or an exam that demonstrates how well students grasp and can apply material learned throughout the semester.
- Additionally, English 1301 curriculum should include the following:
  - At least one (major or minor) assignment that teaches students to synthesize multiple viewpoints in the context of a sustained argument with a clear and defensible thesis,
  - At least one assignment (major or minor) that teaches summary, and
  - At least one assignment (major or minor) that teaches textual analysis.

Evaluation

Grading Formula:
Minor Assignments: 35%
Major Assignments: 65% (3 Major Writing Assignments will be included per ASU policies.)
* Writing assignments will include, but are not limited to, summary, textual analysis, and argumentative synthesis essays per ASU policies.
* A Final Writing Assessment will be given for the Final Exam.

Grading Points Key
90-100+: A
80-89: B
70-79: C
60-69: D
0-59: F

Course Evaluation
The course will be evaluated by a series of assignments to include minor assignments and major assignments. All sources must be documented in MLA format/documentation style, using 12 Point-Times New Roman font only, with sources coming from the library databases or preapproved by the instructor (Internet sources, books, periodical articles, etc.). URL addresses to all online source material used and scanned copies of source material with information highlighted. All research/writing topics must be preapproved by the instructor.
Course Policies

Attendance
Academic success is directly tied to the effort students put into their studies, the degree to which they interact with faculty and peers, and the extent to which they integrate into the campus life. Attendance has a significant impact on performance, and attendance during face-to-face and online classes is integral to success. Regular and punctual attendance to all class meetings is expected whether on campus or remote learning. Absences will be reported to the FISD Administration. Students who are absent are responsible for finding out what they missed and submitting any daily work by the next class day. After this extension, an assignment will be given a late work deduction of 10 points and will only be accepted one day passed the absence extension. Excessive absences will be reported to the university and high school administration as to whether a student should continue with the course.

Late Work
Students are expected to meet assignment deadlines. If students are absent, then they need to check Blackboard to find out what assignments need to be made up. Assignments will be accepted one day late with a 10-point deduction. Assignments will not be accepted after this late extension, except for extenuating circumstances. *Students with absences due to school related activities are still expected to submit work on time to Blackboard, so please plan accordingly. For extenuating circumstances, please see the instructor.

Class Participation
Students are expected to participate in the face-to-face and online classroom environment through Google Meets. Students who do not participate in online and offline class activities, including discussions and group activities, will receive point deductions from their assignment grades.

Classroom Etiquette
Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner conducive to a college environment. Any communication between students and the instructor should maintain a professional tone and style. If a student uses language that is not appropriate for the classroom, they will be asked to refrain from such language. If a student continues to use the same type of language, they will be referred to the ASU and FISD Administration.

Electronic Devices
Students will need a computer and internet connection for this class. All of the work for the course will be completed online, so students must have access to a computer on a daily basis. All students will need access to a computer and the Internet, FISD and ASU email, Blackboard, Google Meets, and current Google resources and programs.

Conference Times
Please see above.
Emails/RamMail
Students can communicate with the instructor using their FISD or ASU email account. Please see the instructor’s email addresses above. RamMail can be accessed through the ASU RamPort at ramport@angelo.edu. Students who have issues logging into RamPort, RamMail, or Blackboard should contact the ASU IT Help Desk at (325) 942-2911.

Blackboard (http://blackboard.angelo.edu/)
Blackboard is the primary online resource the instructor will use for this course. This online platform will be used for class communication, syllabus, course schedule/calendar, assignment submission, and any other applications the instructor deems necessary. Students are responsible for checking this platform on a daily basis for announcements and assignments. All assignments will be submitted directly to Blackboard for evaluation. Blackboard can also be accessed through RamPort.

Google Resources
Every student has access to various Google resources through their ASU RamMail, including Docs, Sheets, and Slides. Students will be utilizing the Google programs for all assignments for this course.

Google Meets
Google Meets will be utilized for all Remote Learning class sessions. Students should log in by clicking on the link posted in Blackboard to participate. Remote Learners are expected to attend all scheduled Google Meets class sessions. The expectation for this course is for students to show up and participate during remote class meetings. Students who begin to miss regularly scheduled class meetings through Google Meets will need to speak with the instructor and high school about extenuating circumstances.

Blog/Messages
In the event Google Meets is not operating, we will utilize asynchronous instruction. Students will log onto Blackboard for announcements, and complete any assignments given by the deadlines indicated. Students can also utilize the Blog on Blackboard to reach the instructor or other students about questions or use the Messages tool in Blackboard.

Groups
The Groups tool in Blackboard allows students, whether on campus or remote, to work together on assignments through the use of Google Docs without the need to exchange email addresses. This tool will be utilized during class time to make group work more convenient for class assignments. Google Docs can also be utilized outside of class time for students to collaborate on class assignments and projects.

ASU Library
Students will have access to the ASU Library Databases and librarians. Student can utilize the library link through RamPort.

Student Disability Services
ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.

Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu. For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website at www.angelo.edu/ADA. The employee charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is:

Title IX
Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. In accordance with Title VII, Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE), and other federal and state laws, the University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence or dating violence), sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex.

You are encouraged to report any incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Michelle Boone, J.D.

You may submit reports in the following manner:

- Online: www.angelo.edu/incident-form
- Face to Face: Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
- Phone: 325-942-2022
- Email: michelle.boone@angelo.edu

Note, as a faculty member at Angelo State, I am a mandatory reporter and must report incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. Should you wish to speak to someone in confidence about an issue, you may contact the University Counseling Center (325-942-2371), the 24-Hour Crisis Helpline (325-486-6345), or the University Health Clinic (325-942-2171).

For more information about resources related to sexual misconduct, Title IX, or Angelo State’s policy please visit: www.angelo.edu/title-ix.
Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days
A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information.

Incomplete Grade Policy
It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information.

Student Conduct Policies

Academic Integrity
Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU. The College of Science and Engineering adheres to the Statement of Academic Integrity.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft. In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy
Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

General Policies Related to This Course
All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:
- Angelo State University Student Handbook
- Angelo State University Catalog

Student Code of Conduct
Refer to the ASU Student Handbook at https://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/.

Students are responsible for reading the ASU Student Handbook and for abiding by all the rules and regulations set forth by the university.
Students are also responsible for reading the FISD Student Handbook and for abiding by all the rules and regulations set forth by the school district.

SECTION A: MISSION AND POLICIES FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT AND THE OFFICE OF TITLE IX COMPLIANCE (www.angelo.edu)

The Code of Student Conduct outlines behavioral standards developed by the University Community for students and student organizations and the related procedures for addressing misconduct. Students should be aware that the student conduct process is not a criminal or civil court proceeding. Students and student organizations are responsible for actions that constitute misconduct and violate the Code of Student Conduct. Any student or student organization found responsible for misconduct may be subject to conduct sanctions.

The University provides a prompt, fair, and equitable process, utilizing a thorough, neutral, and impartial investigation, from which is generated a resolution. The Code of Student Conduct and related processes educate students about their rights and responsibilities while promoting holistic development, self-worth, and mutual respect for all members of the University community. Freedom of discussion, inquiry, and expression is also fostered by an environment in which the privileges of citizenship are protected and the obligations of citizenship are understood.

Angelo State University is committed to an educational and developmental process that balances the interests of individual students with the interests of the University community. No student will be found in violation of University policy without sufficient information and evidence showing that it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred and any sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation and to the cumulative conduct history of the student.

The student conduct process at the University exists to protect the interests of the community and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with our policies. Sanctions are intended to challenge students’ moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with our community expectations and values. When a student is unable to conform their behavior to community expectations, the student conduct process may determine that the student should no longer share in the privilege of participating in this community.

SECTION B: PROCEDURES FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

Upon notice of an alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator to review allegations of misconduct. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will inquire, gather, and review information about the reported student misconduct and will evaluate the accuracy, credibility, and sufficiency of the information.
Incident reports will be forwarded for investigation when there is reasonable cause to believe a policy has been violated. Reasonable cause is defined as some credible information to support each element of the offense, even if that information is merely a credible witness or Complaining Party’s statement. If it is determined that the information reported does not warrant an allegation, a Policy Clarification may be issued to the involved parties to clarify the policy that was in question.

When an initial report of misconduct by a third party does not identify the Complaining Party or the Complaining Party is not available, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will investigate the reported incident to the fullest extent of the information available. When a Complaining Party is identified but is reluctant to participate in the investigative process and/or the student conduct process entirely, the University will make every attempt to follow the wishes of the Complaining Party while weighing the interests of the campus community and the possibility of a continuing threat. If the Complaining Party does not want to participate in the investigative process but has no aversion to the University pursuing conduct action with respect to the named Responding Party, the University will proceed with the student conduct process to the extent of the information available. If the Complaining Party does not want the University to pursue the report in any respect, the University will investigate further only if there is reason to believe that a significant continuing threat to the campus community exists.

NOTE: The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee may proceed with the conduct process (even if the Complaining Party(ies) choose not to participate) on a case by case basis if the alleged behavior involves pattern, predation, threat, or violence (PPTV) that may significantly impact the campus community and others.

Misconduct addressed by the Office of Student Conduct
1. Academic Misconduct
   Academic misconduct includes cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, violations of published professional ethics/standards, and any act or attempted act designed to give unfair academic advantage to oneself or another student.
   Additional information about academic misconduct is available in the Angelo State University Part II: Community Policies section.
   a. Cheating
   1. Copying from another student’s academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment.
   2. Receiving assistance from and/or seeking aid from another student or individual to complete academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment without authority.
   3. The use or possession of materials or devices during academic work, test, quiz or other assignments which are not authorized by the person administering the academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment.
   4. Possessing, using, buying, stealing, transporting, selling, or soliciting in whole or in part items including, but not limited to, the contents of an un-administered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program/software.
   5. Possession, at any time, of current or previous course materials without the instructor’s permission.

6. Obtaining by any means, or coercing another person to obtain items including, but not limited to, an un-administered test, test key, homework solution or computer program/software, or information about an un-administered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program.

7. Transmitting or receiving information about the content of academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment with another individual who has completed or will complete the academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment without authority.

8. Substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself in order to take a course, take a test, quiz, or other assignment or sign in/register attendance.

9. Taking, keeping, misplacing, damaging, or altering the property of the University or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct.

10. Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit.

11. Failing to comply with instructions given by the person administering the academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment.

b. Plagiarism

1. The representation of words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, other expression, or media of another as one’s own and/or failing to properly cite direct, paraphrased, or summarized materials.

2. Self-plagiarism which involves the submission of the same academic work more than once without the prior permission of the instructor and/or failure to correctly cite previous work written by the same student.

c. Collusion

The unauthorized collaboration with another individual to complete academic work, test, quiz, or other assignment, providing unauthorized assistance to another student, allowing another student access to completed academic work, and/or conspiring with another person to commit a violation of academic dishonesty.

d. Falsifying Academic Records

1. Altering or assisting in the altering of any official record of the University and/or submitting false information.

2. Omitting requested information that is required for, or related to, any official record of the University.

e. Misrepresenting Facts

1. Providing false grades, falsifying information on a resume, or falsifying other academic information.

2. Providing false or misleading information in an effort to injure another student academically or financially.

3. Providing false or misleading information or official documentation in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on academic work, test, quiz, other assignment, credit for attendance, and/or obtain an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual.

NOTE: Examples include, but are not limited to, fabricated, altered, misleading, or falsified documentation for medical excuses, family and personal emergencies, and signing into class and failing to remain the entire time.

f. Violation of Professional Standards
Any act or attempted act that violates specific Professional Standards or a published Code of Ethics.

NOTE: Students are held accountable under this policy based on their college or school of enrollment, declared major, degree program, and/or pre-professional program.

g. Unfair Academic Advantage
Any other action or attempted action that may result in creating an unfair academic advantage for oneself or may result in creating an unfair academic advantage or disadvantage for another student that is not enumerated in items a-f above.

PART II: COMMUNITY POLICIES (https://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/community-policies/)

SECTION B: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

1. Angelo State University Statement of Academic Integrity
Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one’s own class and/or course work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Academic integrity is a personal choice to abide by the standards of intellectual honesty and responsibility. Because education is a shared effort to achieve learning through the exchange of ideas, students, faculty, and staff have the collective responsibility to build mutual trust and respect. Ethical behavior and independent thought are essential for the highest level of academic achievement, which then must be measured. Academic achievement includes scholarship, teaching, and learning, all of which are shared endeavors. Grades are a device used to quantify the successful accumulation of knowledge through learning. Adhering to the standards of academic integrity ensures grades are earned honestly. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which students, faculty, and staff build their educational and professional careers.

2. Academic Dishonesty Definitions
Students must understand the principles of academic integrity, and abide by them in all classes and/or course work at the University. Academic Misconduct violations are outlined in Part I, Section B.1. of the Code of Student Conduct. If there are questions of interpretation of academic integrity policies or about what might constitute an academic integrity violation, students are responsible for seeking guidance from the faculty member teaching the course in question.

3. Instructor Responsibilities
Any person aware of alleged violations of academic integrity should report the allegation to the instructor of record in the course. The instructor in a course is responsible for initiating action in each case of dishonesty or plagiarism that occurs in that class. The instructor should contact the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee to discuss the nature of the violation and the student’s record of academic integrity violations. Instructions for reporting allegations of academic dishonesty are available in the Code of Student Conduct. The instructor will notify the student of the alleged misconduct and attempt to discuss the matter with the student and receive a response from the student about the allegations. Then, the instructor may notify the student of possible academic sanctions including, but not limited to, assigning a paper or research project related to the academic integrity; assigning a make-up assignment that is different than the original assignment; issuing no credit for the original assignment; reducing the grade for the assignment and/or course; issuing a failing grade on the assignment; and/or issuing a failing grade for the course. The academic penalty will not be implemented or assigned until all disciplinary procedures are complete. All academic integrity violations should be referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee as a central clearinghouse of violations. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will review the case and may impose additional sanctions if warranted as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.

4. Withdrawal and Assignment of Grades
   a. Once a student has been notified of an academic integrity allegation, the student may not drop the course until the academic integrity processes are complete. If a student drops or withdraws, the student will be reinstated to the course in question. A student should continue attending class and participating in course work until the disciplinary process is complete. If it is determined that the student was not responsible for academic integrity violations and/or the referring faculty member allows the student to withdrawal from the course, the student may file a request with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for approval to drop the course or withdraw from the University retroactively.
   b. If a referring faculty member must submit a final course grade before an Academic Integrity Violation allegation is resolved, the faculty member should notify the Department Chair and the Academic Dean of the intention to assign a grade of F and/or leave the final grade blank. The involved student may be given a temporary grade of X by the Registrar’s Office, which does not affect the student’s GPA, until the academic integrity adjudication process is complete. When the academic integrity adjudication process is complete, the final grade will be assigned through the appropriate academic channels and the completion of a grade change form. All appeals related to academic integrity violations should follow the process outlined in Part I, Section C.5. (Disciplinary Appeals Procedures).

5. Academic and Disciplinary Penalties
   The academic and disciplinary penalties will not be implemented until the disciplinary procedure and appeal process has been exhausted. In cases in which a student is found not responsible for academic dishonesty, the student will be entitled to the grade he/she would have received in the absence of an academic integrity violation. In addition, the student will be allowed to continue in the particular course without prejudice.

6. Referrals to the Executive Director of Student Affairs
   In addition to the assignment of academic sanctions by the instructor of record, a referral of the academic integrity violation should also be made to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for the assignment of disciplinary sanctions. Instructions for reporting academic dishonesty violations are available in the Code of Student Conduct. A student referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for alleged violations of academic misconduct is entitled to all substantive and procedural guarantees provided in the Code of Student Conduct. Instructors of record of the course where the alleged violation occurred and the Academic Dean of the college where the student is enrolled or of the college housing the course where the alleged violation occurred may participate in the adjudication of the violation and assignment of additional sanctions with the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.

NOTE: Additional Academic Integrity information is available from the Office of Student Affairs.
