CLASSICAL MYTHOLOGY
Description, Outcomes, Assignments, Grades

ENGL 3338 introduces majors and non-majors alike to the myths of the ancient Greeks and Romans. Our approach largely will be literary: we will be discovering and interpreting myths through the literature, especially the great epics, of Greece and Rome. However, for the first few weeks of the semester, we’ll look at various myths across multiple sources to comprehend a greater array of characters and creatures.

At the end of this course you should
• Understand the role of myth and literature as an expression of values and interpretation of human experience.
• Understand and apply methods of responding to myth and literature analytically.
• Understand the form, function, scope, and variety of myth, including specialized terminology.
• Understand the interactive relationship between history, culture, myth, and literature.
ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADE CALCULATION
Your final grade for this course will be calculated according to this scheme:

- Daily Participation: 10%
- Quizzes: 25%
- Paper 1: 10%
- Paper 2: 10%
- Paper 3: 25%
- Final Exam: 20%

GRADING POLICY
- Assignments are graded A through F with pluses and minuses as necessary.
- Work that is not done or not turned in is recorded as a zero.
- Letter grades will be converted to percentages as such:
  - A+=98, A=95, A-=92, B+=88, B=85, B-=82, C+=78, C=75, C-=72, D+=68, D=65, D-=62, F=50.
- Numeric grades will be converted to letter grades as such:
  - 100-98=A+; 97-93=A; 92-90=A-; 89-88=B+; 87-83=B; 82-80=B-; 79-78=C+; 77-73=C; 72-70=C-; 69-68=D+; 67-63=D; 62-60=D-; 59 and below=F.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
I encourage regular attendance while allowing for the exigencies of life.
- Attendance is required, but you are allowed two discretionary absences.
- If you miss more than 20% of class meetings – for any reason – you will receive a grade of F for excessive absences.
  - In a class scheduled for 2 days per week, 20% is 6 classes; in a class scheduled for 3 days per week, 20% is 9 classes.
- Missing more than this number of classes will result in an F.
- Although all absences add to the total, you are allowed two discretionary absences. That is, you may miss class two times without detriment to your grade. Use those discretionary absences wisely.
- For each absences after the second, your participation grade drops by a third of a letter grade (e.g., from B- to C+).
- You are considered absent any time you are not in class—no matter what the reason—and making up missed work (if allowed below) does not erase absences. Doctor’s notes do not erase absences, either.
- Excessive tardiness is similarly penalized. If you arrive to class late three times, I shall count that as one absence.
- To be counted present at all, you must attend at least 70% of a class period.
  - In a class scheduled for 2 days per week, 70% is 53 minutes; in a class scheduled for 3 days per week, 70% is 35 minutes.
- If you are required to travel for the university with a class or team, you should provide me a list of those dates as soon as possible.

DAILY PARTICIPATION
Your participation grade comprises much more than your attendance record. To receive a good score, you also must keep up with the reading, read actively, and talk about the day’s reading in class.
- Your score for participation accounts for:
  - Attending class on time
  - Bringing the appropriate text in a readable format (printed, or on a laptop or tablet)
  - Taking notes
  - Asking questions about a text
  - Responding to the instructor or other students
Avoiding distractive behaviors

- The following is the baseline measure for a participation grade: a student who attends every class in a semester, brings the appropriate text every day, always looks to be paying attention to the instructor and fellow students, creates no distractions, yet does not ever speak receives a participation grade of a C.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT

- When speaking, please show respect to your instructor, your classmates, and the process of learning as a whole: allow others time to talk, try not to interrupt, and refrain from rude, offensive, or belittling comments.
- When others are talking, pay attention and do not do anything distracting like speaking with neighbors.
- Do not use your cell phone, laptop, or other electronic device unless permitted by me. During the first few weeks and final few weeks of the semester, you have permission to use tablets and laptops to gain access during class to Theoi.com and other web sites.
- If you need to leave class early, please inform me before class begins and ask for permission.
- If you need to leave class temporarily (e.g., for the bathroom), please depart discreetly, and don’t make bathroom breaks a daily occurrence.

GENERAL POLICIES RELATED TO THIS COURSE

All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook
- Angelo State University Catalog

POLICIES RELATED TO COVID-19

This semester, we will have to maintain some practices not typical of this course:

- You will need to wear a face covering and maintain social distance (see below).
- Upon entering the classroom, you will need to display your daily wellness badge.
- You should sanitize your seating area at the start and end of each class.
- I will be maintaining a seating chart, which requires that you occupy the same seat every day.
- Except for note-taking, your own printouts, or occasional in-class writing, we will try to remain paperless.
- I will be recording every class and posting those videos to Blackboard.
- You need to have regular access to a computer with MS Word, Power Point, a PDF reader, updated web browsers, and reliable internet access.

FACE COVERINGS

As a member of the Texas Tech University System, Angelo State University has adopted the mandatory Facial Covering Policy to ensure a safe and healthy classroom experience. Current research on the COVID-19 virus suggests there is a significant reduction in the potential for transmission of the virus from person to person by wearing a mask/facial covering that covers the nose and mouth areas. Therefore, in compliance with the university policy students in this class are required to wear a mask/facial covering before, during, and after class. Faculty members may also ask you to display your daily screening badge as a prerequisite to enter the classroom. You are also asked to maintain safe distancing practices to the best of your ability. For the safety of everyone, any student not appropriately wearing a mask/facial covering will be asked to leave the classroom immediately. The student will be responsible to make up any missed class content or work. Continued non-compliance with the Texas Tech University System Policy may result in disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.

DAILY VIDEOS

Because of the pandemic, I will record and post on Blackboard each day a video of the class. If we have to divide the class into cohorts meeting different days, then I will use Blackboard Collaborate to stream a live feed of the class and enable students to participate at a distance. If we do not have to divide into cohorts, I will use Kaltura and post a video recording after class ends.

READING ASSIGNMENTS

- You may use electronic texts in the classroom; however, you need a laptop or tablet to read them. Otherwise, please bring a printed copy.
- For each class session I expect you to read and study the full assignment before class, attending to plot, characterization, diction, imagery, important ideas, and other objects of literary analysis.
- The reading assignment also includes any related footnotes or end notes.

ASSIGNED EDITIONS

The translations I have ordered through the bookstore and that you see on the first page are contemporary and designed to make old texts from very different cultures read easily for modern English-speakers. Nonetheless, other translations are also acceptable. If you have questions about using one, ask me first. Below are a few notes about which alternatives I also like and approve. Whichever editions you use, make sure you purchase copies with line numbers.

- Hesiod’s Theogony and Works and Days: West (Oxford), Caldwell (Focus), Athanassakis (Johns Hopkins)
- Homer’s Iliad: Lattimore (U of Chicago), Fagles (Penguin), Cook (Norton Critical), Verity (Oxford), Powell (Oxford), Mitchell (Atria), Alexander (Ecco)
- Homer’s Odyssey: Lattimore (U of Chicago), Fagles (Penguin), Cook (Norton Critical), Mitchell (Atria), Powell (Oxford), Sachs (Paul Dry), Wilson (Norton)
- Ovid’s Metamorphoses: Melville (Oxford), Lombardo (Hackett), Mandelbaum (Harcourt)
- Virgil’s Aeneid: Mandelbaum (Bantam), Fagles (Penguin), Fantham (Oxford)
- Euripides’s Medea: Vellacott (Penguin), Marwood (Oxford), Esposito (Focus), Harrison (Cambridge), Taplin (Chicago)

TEXTBOOK ORDERS

- If acquiring books through ASU’s Bookstore, acquire all of them at the start of the semester. Toward the middle of the semester, the bookstore will start to return books and will take longer to receive new copies.
- If acquiring books through online stores such as Amazon, always double-check from whom you’re ordering and which edition you’re ordering.
  - A lot of cheap, used copies come from secondary sellers, not from the stores directly, and those sellers are not subject to the stores’ guarantees of delivery dates.
  - It’s safest to confirm an edition by cross-referencing ISBN, title, publisher, and editor.
- Wherever you acquire your books, a store’s availability and delays in shipping are not legitimate excuses for your lack of a book when you need it.
- Consider buying your books rather than renting them. Renting saves little money, and if you buy them, you can mark in them how you want, which can help you during exams. If you need to recoup some money, you can always sell your books.

RECOMMENDED BOOKS

For the short papers, you’ll be using Apollodorus’s Library, an ancient textbook about myths. Additionally, a modern glossary or compendium of myths could be helpful. Below are what I recommend.

- Apollodorus’s Library: Hard (Oxford), Simpson (U of Massachusetts), Smith and Trzaskoma (Hackett)
- Dictionary of Classical Mythology (Penguin)
- Michael Grant, Myths of the Greeks and Romans (Plume)
  William Hansen, Classical Mythology (Oxford)
- Barry Powell, Classical Myth (Oxford)
WEB SOURCES
During the semester, we’ll often resort to Theoi.com and Tuft’s Perseus Project for original Greek and Roman sources and Smith’s encyclopedia. There are links to both sites on Blackboard. You should become familiar both sites.

READING QUIZZES
Quizzes will occur most weeks. They’re listed on the calendar. The quizzes will be posted on Blackboard, and you’ll have to complete them online. The quizzes comprise mostly multiple-choice, true-false, and short-answer questions.

PAPERS
You will write three papers. Each must be submitted to TurnItIn on Blackboard before class time on the day designated. More details are forthcoming.

FINAL EXAM
The final exam is cumulative and will draw from readings, class discussions, and lectures. It will be online and due by the date and time listed at the end of the calendar.

MISSED WORK
For missed notes, you should watch class videos (when available) and seek help from classmates. If you miss a quiz or other online assignment, you should email me. A paper submitted after the deadlines is penalized: your grade drops one-third of a letter grade for each day (not just class day) that your paper is late, and after five days, it receives a grade of zero. More than likely, papers that are turned in late will be returned late and receive fewer comments than those turned in on time. I will offer a brief extension, without penalty, only in the cases of emergencies. Any paper not turned after the last day of class automatically receives a score of “0.” Generally, because of timing, the final exam cannot be made up except under extraordinary circumstances.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY
It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one’s own class and/or course work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Academic integrity is a personal choice to abide by the standards of intellectual honesty and responsibility. Because education is a shared effort to achieve learning through the exchange of ideas, students, faculty, and staff have the collective responsibility to build mutual trust and respect. Ethical behavior and independent thought are essential for the highest level of academic achievement, which then must be measured. Academic achievement includes scholarship, teaching, and learning, all of which are shared endeavors. Grades are a device used to quantify the successful accumulation of knowledge through learning. Adhering to the standards of academic integrity ensures grades are earned honestly. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which students, faculty, and staff build their educational and professional careers.

Students must understand the principles of academic integrity and abide by them in all classes and/or course work at the University. Academic Misconduct violations are outlined in Part I, section B.1 of the Code of Student Conduct. If there are questions of interpretation of academic integrity policies or about what might constitute an academic integrity violation, students are responsible for seeking guidance from the faculty member teaching the course in question.

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for reading and understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both the print and web versions of the Student Handbook: https://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/. By participating in ENG 2331, you agree to abide by the Academic Honor Code.

If you do not understand the rules regarding plagiarism, cheating, or other lapses in academic integrity as outlined in the Academic Honor Code, it is incumbent upon you to seek clarification from me prior to the first assignment. Students who violate the Academic Honor Code will receive a failing grade for the course and be referred to the Department head and the Academic Integrity Committee.

TURNITIN

TurnItIn is plagiarism-checking software. By enrolling in this course, you grant the instructor the right to submit all course materials to TurnItIn, which detects textual similarities. Furthermore, assignments submitted to TurnItIn will be included in TurnItIn’s database. Instructions for using TurnItIn are available on our Blackboard page.

COPYRIGHT POLICY

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

OFFICE HOURS

These are listed on the first page. During office hours I will be available to talk if you want to speak with me about any aspect of the class or your performance in it. I plan to be in my office during the hours listed, but we can meet virtually instead—via email or phone, or through Blackboard Collaborate or Zoom, if need be. It’s always best to schedule an appointment. If my regular times do not work for you, please email me to arrange a different time.

WRITING CENTER

The ASU Writing Center is a wonderful resource for students of all levels. Tutors can help you with many aspects of your writing and can work remotely, through email or synchronous online chats. When you seek their help, please provide the assignment prompt and all work you’ve completed toward the assignment. The office is on the third floor of the Porter Henderson Library, Room C305. To set up an appointment, go to http: www.angelo.edu/dept/writingcenter.

OBSERVANCES OF RELIGIOUS HOLY DAYS

“Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code §11.20. A student who is excused under section 2 may not be penalized for the absence; however, the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within what the instructor deems a reasonable time after the absence.
COUNSELING SERVICES
Students struggling with events in their lives or with mental health issues should seek out allies and resources available on campus. The following are institutional sources of support, but you may seek out faculty, staff and others on campus for help, including myself.

- Campus Clinic and Counseling Services 325-942-2171
- Campus Police 325-942-2071
- San Angelo Police 911
- Michelle Boone, Title IX Coordinator 325-486-6357

TITLE IX AT ANGELO STATE UNIVERSITY
The University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination including: sexual assault, sex-based discrimination, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence and/or dating violence), and stalking. As a faculty member, I am a Responsible Employee meaning that I am obligated by law and ASU policy to report any allegations I am notified of to the Office of Title IX Compliance.

Students are encouraged to report any incidents of sexual misconduct directly to ASU’s Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator at:

- Michelle Boone, J.D.
  Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
  325-942-2022
  michelle.boone@angelo.edu

You may also file a report online 24/7 at www.angelo.edu/incident-form.

If you are wishing to speak to someone about an incident in confidence you may contact the University Health Clinic and Counseling Center at 325-942-2173 or the ASU Crisis Helpline at 325-486-6345.

For more information about Title IX in general you may visit www.angelo.edu/title-ix.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation. All students at Angelo State University must have the capacity and ambition to undertake, with reasonable accommodation from the faculty and administration, the academic challenges necessary to fulfill the academic requirements for the degree or certification programs which they are pursuing.

Persons with disabilities that may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112 University Center, in order to request such accommodations prior to any being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.
