Required Text:

Class Meeting Format:
In order to maintain social distancing, students will be divided into two groups that will meet once a week for 50-minute sessions. Classes will include class and group discussions on historical topics covering the week’s key terms as well as the assigned primary source readings, textbook, and/or secondary source readings that were posted to Blackboard the week before. Students should bring their notes and readings to every class, be on time and attentive, and show a willingness to participate in discussion, all of which will count toward their final grades. Students should arrive for class with their assignments already completed.

For students who are unable to attend class, the instructor will record and post the lecture to Blackboard by the end of the day that the class met. Students who were unable to attend class will have an Alternative Assignment to complete that will count toward their in-class participation.

Schedule of course topics included at the end of the syllabus.

Grade Breakdown:

In-Class Participation/Alternative Assignment: 15%

Practice Quizzes: 5%

Exam 1: 15%—Due to Blackboard February 26 by 7pm.

Exam 2: 25%—Due to Blackboard March 26 by 7pm.

Exam 3: 25%—Due to Blackboard April 23 by 7pm.

Final Exam (Cumulative): 15% See: https://www.angelo.edu/services/registrars_office/final.php - Schedule included at the end of the syllabus.

In-Class Participation/Alternative Assignment:

Participation refers to active engagement in the class discussion of the readings as well as in group work. Just being in class will not suffice. Please be sure to look over the handout on participation that is included at the end of the syllabus.

Students who are unable to attend class on their assigned day will have an Alternative Assignment (posted to Blackboard each week) to complete that will count towards their in-class participation. Students do not need to call or send an email to the instructor regarding absences from class, they are permitted to do the Alternative Assignment without prior permission.

When attending class, keep in mind that students who arrive late for class (after roll call), will receive one-third of an absence. Students who are late for class, MUST make sure that the instructor recorded their attendance. Failure to do this may result in a tardy being counted as an absence.

Students who need to leave before the end of class should inform the instructor before class begins. Depending on how early a student needs to leave, it is up to the discretion of the instructor to decide if the student will need to complete the Alternative Assignment to get credit for Participation. The instructor reserves the right to call roll at the end of class, and students who have left before the class ended without explanation will be marked as absent and required to complete the Alternative Assignment.
Students must be present for at least 50% of a class period to receive credit for attendance. Otherwise, they will need to do the Alternative Assignment.

Students may miss one (1) class/Alternative Assignment before the midpoint of the semester (March 10) without penalty. They may miss another one (1) class/Alternative Assignment after the midpoint of the semester (March 10) without penalty.

Practice Quizzes:
Practice quizzes (multiple choice) will be posted to Blackboard each week. These quizzes will be based on the assigned textbook readings. These are intended to help students to prepare for exams.

Students may take the quizzes as many times as they wish. They only need to complete the quiz one time before the due date to get full credit for the quiz. Students can miss two quizzes over the course of the semester without losing points toward their total Practice Quiz scores.

Exams:
Exams will be taken online through Blackboard. Exams 1-3 will be given in two parts: multiple choice and written response questions. Exams will be based on textbook readings, class discussions, and key terms.

Students will receive a study guide at least a week prior to the exam. The rubric for the written portion of the exams is included at the end of the course syllabus.

The Final Exam will be cumulative and completely multiple choice.

Communication:
Students who need help for any reason should feel free to contact the instructor with any questions or difficulties. The instructor is available via email or in-person office hours. When emailing the instructor, students should include their course and section numbers (Ex: HIST 1302-090). They do not need to include their CIDs.

Office hours are times when the instructor is available to speak with students and/or answer emails. Unless otherwise indicated, the instructor will be in her office during the times listed under office hours. Students do not need to make an appointment to come by during listed office hours. Nevertheless, anyone planning to speak with the instructor during these times should arrive in enough time to address questions or concerns fully. Students who are unable to communicate during the listed times may set up an appointment.

Classroom Etiquette:
Students should take notes and remain engaged during class. They are not permitted to use electronic devices to create video or audio recordings of class.
A respectful attitude is expected during class. Be considerate of one another’s opinions and feelings when asking questions or making comments. Students have the right to disagree with others, but this should be done in a mature manner and without personal attacks.

Students must turn off cell phones and put them away in their bags, pockets, or under their chairs during class unless they are using them for the purposes of class work. Students need to remove all headphones prior to roll call. The only electronics that students are allowed to use during class are laptops or tablets for the purposes of notetaking and reviewing assigned readings. The only applications or windows that students may use during class are document viewers for the assigned readings and word processors for purposes of notetaking. Students found to be using other applications or doing work for classes other than HIST 1302 during class may be asked to leave and/or lose the privilege of using electronics in class.

Distracting behavior during class will result in the loss of In-Class Participation points and may mean being asked to leave class. Students who arrive late for class, should come into class quickly and quietly. If arriving late, students should be mindful not to walk in front of anyone who is speaking. If a student needs to leave the room during class, they should do so quietly.

Students are not permitted to eat during class. They may bring water if they wish.

Required Use of Masks/Facial Coverings by Students in Class At Angelo State University

As a member of the Texas Tech University System, Angelo State University has adopted the mandatory Facial Covering Policy to ensure a safe and healthy classroom experience. Current research on the COVID-19 virus suggests there is a significant reduction in the potential for transmission of the virus from person to person by wearing a mask/facial covering that covers the nose and mouth areas. Therefore, in compliance with the university policy students in this class are required to wear a mask/facial covering before, during, and after class. Faculty members may also ask you to display your daily screening badge as a prerequisite to enter the classroom. You are also asked to maintain safe distancing practices to the best of your ability. For the safety of everyone, any student not appropriately wearing a mask/facial covering will be asked to leave the classroom immediately. The student will be responsible to make up any missed class content or work. Continued non-compliance with the Texas Tech University System Policy may result in disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.

Makeup Work:

Make-up exams will be handled on a case-by-case basis. Students who miss an exam must contact the instructor via email. It is not the responsibility of the instructor to inform students of missed exams. Every day after the exam date that a student fails to contact the instructor about the missed exam will result in the loss of ten (10) percentage points on the exam. (Ex: A student who misses an exam on July 3rd and does not contact the instructor until July 6th can receive no higher than a 70% on the make-up exam.) Students have seven (7) calendar days after the scheduled exam date to take the make-up exam. After seven (7) days, any student who did not sit for the exam will receive a 0% for the exam. While make-up exams will cover the same material, they may not have the same format as they would have had on the scheduled test date. With few exceptions, the final exam must be taken as scheduled.

For assignments submitted via Blackboard, students who turn in submissions after the deadline may lose up to 30% off the assignment grade. Students should not submit any assignments to the instructor’s email. They will not be graded if submitted to the instructor’s email. If a drop box has already closed, students should contact the instructor about reopening the box. For practice quizzes, the instructor will not reopen an assignment after the deadline has passed.

If students need to miss class for any reason, they do not need to call or send an email to the instructor regarding absences. They can view the lecture and complete the Alternative Assignment in Blackboard for the days missed. Students may make an appointment for office hours if they wish to do so to discuss missed material.

Students are responsible for turning in assignments on time regardless of if they missed class for an excused reason such as university-sponsored activities, religious observances, or a DSS accommodations for Covid-19. Even if students need to schedule a make-up exam for an excused reason, they are still required to do so within seven days.

If they fall behind on Blackboard assignments for any reason, students should schedule a virtual or in-person meeting with the instructor as soon as possible.

Incomplete Grade Policy:

It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. Student Conduct Policies:

Academic Integrity:
Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject to disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The College of Science and Engineering adheres to the Statement of Academic Integrity

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy
Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

History Department Statement on Plagiarism & Academic Honesty
Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is utilizing someone else’s writings, ideas, or works without providing due credit or proper citation. Plagiarism is literary theft. Quotation marks and, if instructed by me or in the assignment criteria, footnote/endnote citations should be utilized in order to note the source of a work or idea. If you are unsure about a citation, contact me with your question or visit this helpful website to avoid common plagiarism pitfalls. There is no excuse for plagiarism. It is your responsibility to plan your semester and time effectively to avoid putting yourself in a situation where you might turn to plagiarism. A digital plagiarism detection program (e.g. SafeAssign or Turn-it-in) will be used to check your work. Be intentional about submitting original work, complete with proper citations.

Academic misconduct is not limited to plagiarism. Academic dishonesty might also include copying somebody else's work, submitting somebody else's work as your own, failing to cite sources, or signing another student into class. Although discussing your work with classmates may be helpful, you must also be aware of “unauthorized collaboration” as a form of academic misconduct.

The History Department’s policy is that violations of the academic honor code will result in a 0 on an assignment for the first offense and a 0 in the entire class for subsequent offenses. In-class forms of plagiarism, such as signing in for another student, will be considered on a case-by-case basis, and I reserve the right to fail violators from this course on their first violation in egregious cases of misconduct. All academic integrity violations will be referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs, who may impose additional sanctions if warranted as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct. Once a student has been notified of an academic integrity allegation, the student may not drop the course until the academic integrity processes are complete. If a student drops or withdraws, the student will be reinstated to the course.
