Course Description
This course seeks to provide an integrated blend of content highlighting experimental psychology, with an emphasis in learning how experimental psychology findings and methods can address applied and fundamental topics and questions. The course will highlight ways to problem solve by learning about past and current literature in experimental psychology.

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:
1) Be knowledgeable of experimental psychology history. 2) Be able to think critically about research results from a experimental perspective. 3) Be able to identify linkages between experimental psychology and other subfields. 4) Be able to understand how experimental psychologists collect data and 5) apply the data/research to everyday life.

Course Delivery
This is an online course with learning resources and supplemental materials posted in Blackboard.

Required Texts and Materials
Students will be required to read articles posted on blackboard or sent via email. Students will also be required to utilize the ASU library and internet to include various sources for the weekly discussions.
Course Requirements

Attendance: In order to accomplish this course successfully, the student must participate in all activities. It is recommended that the study daily and spend a minimum of 6-9 hours per week working on a 3-credit course. Students need to check blackboard and their email many times per day.

Email: ASU email addresses are required. No other email addresses will be acceptable. The instructor will attempt to answer all emails no later than 24 hours after receiving, except on weekends. Emails received on weekends will be answered during the next regular school week.

Evaluation and Grading:

Exams: There will be 2 exams. The exams will be timed and will generally be composed of multiple choice, true/false, and short answer items. Late exams will not be accepted.

Quizzes: There will be 3 quizzes. Quizzes will be composed of true/false, short answer or fill-in-the-blank questions, and will be timed. Quizzes are given to encourage students to keep up with reading. Late quizzes will not be accepted.

Discussion board: Students are expected to participate in weekly discussions. See course materials in blackboard for instructions and the grading rubric. Late assignments will not be accepted.

Extra credit: Extra credit can be earned by writing a short career paper. See clear instructions under the tab, Course Material, then under the folder labeled Extra Credit.

Attendance/Make-Up Policy: Attendance is required for this course. There will be No makeup exams except in cases of serious illness or some other extreme event such as a death in the family. In these instances, you must obtain a note from your physician and present it to the instructor. The instructor will determine if a student will be allowed to make-up the assignment. You will have 3 days after the missed exam to make it up and failure to do so will result in a zero.

Communication
Students are encouraged to email the instructor if they have any questions or concerns. When emailing the instructor, please include your class name and time in the subject line. If you would like to meet with instructor, please approach it this way: send an email that gives three options, in terms of days and time slots that work for you.

General Policies Related to This Course
All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook
- Angelo State University Catalog

Academic Integrity
Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The College of Health and Human Services adheres to the university’s Statement of Academic Integrity.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.

Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu. For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website. The employee charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is:

Incomplete Grade Policy
It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures for more information.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days
A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information.
Copyright Policy
Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Syllabus Changes
The faculty member reserves the option to make changes as necessary to this syllabus and the course content. If changes become necessary during this course, the faculty will notify students of such changes by email, course announcements and/or via a discussion board announcement. It is the student’s responsibility to look for such communications about the course on a daily basis.
