MGMT 3305 – Production and Operations Management

Course Description/Overview

“Make only as much as the customer will buy. Don’t make things the customer won’t buy” - Taiichi Ohno

Production and Operations Management (POM) is concerned with management of resources and activities that produce and deliver goods and services to the customers. Efficient and effective management of operations will provide an organization with major competitive advantage. The ability to respond to customer needs at lower cost, higher quality and faster delivery is critical to survive and succeed in a global competitive environment. By integrating operations successfully into their business models, companies such as Toyota (manufacturing) and Wal-Mart (retailing) have shown that efficient and effective operations are critical for the success of an organization.

This course will focus on basic concepts, issues, and techniques for efficient and effective management of operations. Both qualitative concepts and quantitative problems will be used to learn in this course. Topics include operations strategy, product and service design, capacity planning, location planning, demand forecasting, aggregate planning, master scheduling, material requirements planning, enterprise resource planning, inventory management, lean operations and supply chain management.

Angelo State University employs a letter grade system. Grades in this course are determined on a percentage scale:

- A = 90.0 – 100 %
- B = 80.0 – 89.9 %
- C = 70.0 – 79.9 %
- D = 60.0 – 69.9 %
- F = Below 60 %

Remember: Grades are not given by me, they are earned by you

Class General Guidelines

Your involvement in class is critical for the learning process. Students are expected to attend regularly, engage and participate in class discussions. Learning is also closely linked to your own contribution and interaction in class - in other words come prepared to participate in class discussions, work on problems, bring in materials or information to share, interact with your professor and your classmates, etc.

Your future careers as business leaders will require you to exhibit professional courtesy, and to possess strong work ethic. You need to be on time and should treat the class as a business meeting and be courteous and respectful of all fellow students, the professor and the educational experience (this will be helpful in your career). Students are expected to pay attention and listen attentively when the professor or other students are speaking.

During class, turn off and put away all the electronic devices (cell phones, laptops, etc.) in backpacks, purse, etc. Research has established that electronic devices (cell phones, laptops, etc.) are distracting and impact students learning experience. If you are expecting an important call during class time, set the phone to vibrate mode and please talk to me before class about the potential disruption. Also during the class, you are expected not to discuss or work on things that are unrelated to this course.

Classroom Etiquette: Please arrive on time, no food in the class, no side conversations, no photography or video recording. Cell phones, laptops, or any other electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class. Cell phones cannot be used as a calculator for exams in this class (Enjoy the class 😊 and hopefully these things will not be an issue in this class, as I am sure that all of you are responsible adults who want to be successful in your career)

Note: Turn off and put away all mobile and electronic devices

Participation/Absenteeism

Your attendance and participation in-class are essential for your learning and also helps you to build good work ethic. If you are not present, you would miss out on the learning available during the class. We will have in-class discussions and work on problems along with other course related things in-class that will help you do well in this course. Research has shown that students, who regularly attend classes, generally perform better.
Communication and Response Time

ASU Blackboard and ASU Email will be used for communication from me to the entire class. I will be posting course related documents and the course announcements on Blackboard. You are expected to check your email and course Blackboard on a regular basis. Please make sure to use ASU email account for this course, as I will not respond to other email accounts like Yahoo, Gmail, etc. (as some emails from these accounts may come from unreliable sources).

I recommend that you include “MGMT 3305 In-Class” in the subject line of all emails sent to me for this course. When you email me, use a proper salutation, a proper closing, proper grammar and spelling, as you would in a professional business letter (this will be helpful in your career). I will respond to your emails within one business day.

If you have questions about grading, your performance in the class, or any personal issues that you want to discuss, you must come in during my office hours (and by appointment) to talk to me. Email is not an effective way to discuss these issues. This is to encourage proper business conduct in the courses that will help you to be successful in your career.

All Quizzes

Quizzes will cover materials from the required textbook, PowerPoint slides, lectures and class discussions. Quizzes may consist of multiple-choice questions and/or true-false questions. More details for the quizzes will be provided in class before each quiz. There will be no makeup quizzes for any missed quizzes.

All Exams

Exams will cover materials from the required textbook, PowerPoint slides, lectures and class discussions. Exams may consist of true-false questions, multiple-choice questions, and quantitative problems. Formulas and equations needed to solve problems will be provided for exams. More details for the exams will be provided in class before each exam. There will be no makeup exams for any missed exams. Any makeup exams may only be allowed with valid documented excuse (but still are at the discretion of the professor).

Extra Credit Work

There is no extra credit work for any individuals. Extra credit work for individuals discriminate against students who submit their work in good order and on time. Therefore, I do not allow extra credit assignments, unless I do so for the entire class. If you keep up with your regular work each week, there will be no need for any extra credits.
Course Policies

Required Use of Masks/Facial Coverings by Students in Class

As a member of the Texas Tech University System, Angelo State University has adopted the mandatory Facial Covering Policy to ensure a safe and healthy classroom experience. Current research on the COVID-19 virus suggests there is a significant reduction in the potential for transmission of the virus from person to person by wearing a mask/facial covering that covers the nose and mouth areas. Therefore, in compliance with the university policy students in this class are required to wear a mask/facial covering before, during, and after class. Faculty members may also ask you to display your daily screening badge as a prerequisite to enter the classroom. You are also asked to maintain safe distancing practices to the best of your ability. For the safety of everyone, any student not appropriately wearing a mask/facial covering will be asked to leave the classroom immediately. The student will be responsible to make up any missed class content or work. Continued non-compliance with the Texas Tech University System Policy may result in disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.

Courtesy and Respect

Courtesy and Respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other's opinions and respect their point of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity & harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, life style, race (ethnicity), religion, etc. violations of these rules will result in immediate dismissal from the course.

Academic Honesty and Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code, which is in both print and web versions of the ASU Student Handbook.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

It is the professor’s intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.
Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU’s Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else’s work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one’s own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list. Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Code of Ethics

Students, faculty, administrators and professional staff of the Norris-Vincent College of Business should always:

- Be forthright and truthful in dealings with all stakeholders
- Take responsibility for one’s actions and decisions
- Serve as an example of ethical decision-making and behavior to others
- Admit errors when they occur, without trying to conceal them
- Respect basic dignity of others by treating them as one would wish to be treated

Student Absence for Religious Holidays

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day), a student who intends to miss class to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Accommodations for Disability

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.
Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by emailing the studentservices@angelo.edu, or by contacting:

Title IX at Angelo State University

Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. The University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination including: sexual assault, sex-based discrimination, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence and/or dating violence), and stalking. As a faculty member, I am a Responsible Employee meaning that I am obligated by law and ASU policy to report any allegations I am notified of to the Office of Title IX Compliance. This is done in order to connect students with resources and options in addressing the allegations reported. As a student, are encouraged to report any incidents of sexual misconduct directly to ASU’s Office of Title IX Compliance and the Title IX Coordinator. You may do so by contacting:

Michelle Miller, J.D.
Title IX Coordinator
Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
325-942-2022
michelle.miller@angelo.edu

You may also file a report online 24/7 at www.angelo.edu/incident-form

If you are wishing to speak to someone about an incident in confidence you may contact the University Health Clinic at 325-942-2171, Counseling Services at 325-942-2371 or the ASU Crisis Helpline at 325-486-6345.

The Office of Title IX Compliance also provides accommodations related to pregnancy (such as communicating with your professors regarding medically necessary absences, modifications required because of pregnancy, etc.). If you are pregnant and need assistance or accommodations, please contact the Office of Title IX Compliance utilizing the information above.

For more information about Title IX in general you may visit www.angelo.edu/title-ix
Grade Appeal Process

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, has experienced inequitable evaluation procedures, or inappropriate grading practices, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the grade appeal process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: https://www.angelo.edu/live/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance

Course Drop

To view the information about how to drop this course or to calculate the important dates relevant to dropping this course, you can visit http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrar_office/course_drop_provisions.php.

Incomplete as a Course grade

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade “I” is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. For undergraduates, an “I” that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an "F". A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of “I” before it automatically becomes an “F”. To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all “I's”.
