Course Description

Core public speaking skills are message clarity, organization, language, delivery, and the use of multimedia/presentation technology. Emphasis will be placed on presenting a variety of speeches throughout the semester.

Blackboard
We will be using Blackboard to conduct this class. It is your responsibility to insure that you can access this site. Contact IT if you have any problems. Each week, I will post your assignments for you on Blackboard. You will then be required to complete these assignments through Blackboard. Exams will also be taken on Blackboard. In short, you need to insure that you have access to this site and that you know how to navigate around on this site.

General Course Requirements
Every student is required to complete four major graded public speaking assignments. All topics must be approved and cleared by your instructor for each speech. These speeches build on material and concepts presented in class and in the text. Speech types will include an informative (1), persuasive (2) and 1 special occasion speech. The introductory speech does not count as a major speech.

FAILING TO SUBMIT A MAJOR SPEECH ON THE ASSIGNED DATE BY THE ASSIGNED TIME WILL RESULT IN RECEIVING AN AUTOMATIC “F” IN THE COURSE REGARDLESS OF YOUR NUMERICAL AVERAGE. THIS IS A DEPARTMENT POLICY.

• Each student is required to take tests and quizzes over material covered in class and in the text. These may include multiple-choice, true-false, short answer, and essay questions.

Course Policies
1. Guidelines for Recording and Uploading Speeches on Capture
All speeches will need to be uploaded to YouTube and the link (working) to your speech must be posted to Discussion Board by the due date and time indicated in each week’s folder and assignments. Speeches uploaded to YouTube must be marked as PUBLIC or UNLISTED so that when a link is submitted, it may be accessed by the instructor and other students.

Due to COVID-19, an audience for your speech is not required. However, if you are able to include an audience while observing social distancing protocol, please do so.

The camera should be set up where I can see the presenter from head to knees. This step is necessary as I need to be able to see nonverbal actions of the speaker (eye contact, gestures, posture, facial expressions, etc.). The camera should not move during the speech. Also, once you start recording, you should not stop and restart the video at any spot. If you do so, you will need to start over from the panning of the audience. An edited speech will result in an automatic F in the course. Once you finish recording your speech, and after uploading your speech, you need to insure that I can see and hear it. A speech that is turned in yet cannot be heard or seen will result in an F in the course. Remember: You may NOT edit your speeches. If you do so, it will result in an F in the class regardless of your numerical average.

Allow for problems by doing things ahead of time. Also, you may use an outline or notecard during your speech but you may not use cue cards or read off anything that is located in the audience or in front of you. Doing this will result in an F in the course regardless of your numerical average. I will provide an example before your first formal speech so you can see a speech that is recorded appropriately.

So what can you record your speeches with? Thanks to technology, most smart phones provide the ability to record a video that can be seen without issue. You may also use a webcam, laptop video cam, or tablet. I’m not too concerned with what you record your speech, as long as you have the capability to upload the video to YouTube.
Remember, you may use notecards or a speaking outline (abbreviated outline of your full formal outline) when you speak. I will grade for eye contact and conversational style. So, it is important that you use your outline only for keeping your place and providing you with small details. More to come on this during the course. Also, you MAY use a lectern or a podium.

2. Late Speeches
If you do not submit a speech by the due date and time, and do not have a legitimate reason for doing so (your hospitalization, funeral of close family member), YOU WILL RECEIVE AN “F” IN THE COURSE REGARDLESS OF YOUR NUMERICAL AVERAGE. THIS IS A DEPARTMENT POLICY. Technical difficulties, can’t find enough audience members, uploading problems, and nonworking uploads and YouTube links, etc. are not legitimate reasons and will result in your receiving an F in the course. If you have a legitimate reason for not submitting, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO CONTACT THE INSTRUCTOR TO SUBMIT DOCUMENTATION TO VERIFY YOUR ABSENCE. ONCE THE DOCUMENTATION HAS BEEN VERIFIED, YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED OF YOUR NEW DUE DATE.

3. Late Work
I do NOT accept late work. Assignments are due at the time indicated on blackboard and in the syllabus. If you have extracurricular activities that you are a part of, you need to complete your work ahead of time if you anticipate being gone on the day that assignments are due.

4. Academic Misconduct
Plagiarism in your speech will result in a zero for the assignment, and the instructor may pursue additional measures. Speeches are to be the original composition of each student. Outside sources are required for each assignment with proper citing in a bibliography as required.

5. Class Etiquette
Please be a courteous student and peer.

6. Dress Requirement
Appropriate dress is required for each speech. Please wear casual clothing and shoes when you record your speeches. Wear what you would wear if you were coming to class.

7. Honor Code Policy
Violations of academic integrity are very serious matters and are clearly documented in the ASU Student Handbook. The work a student submits in a class is expected to be the student's own work and must be work completed for that particular class and assignment. Plagiarism means intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own. This may include your own previous work. Plagiarism includes quoting or paraphrasing from other sources without acknowledging/citing the source of your information or presenting quoted material as your own words. You must be very clear about attribution of sources and you must know how to cite sources in a paper. Please see full Honor Code Policy at http://www.angelo.edu/cstudent/documents/pdf/Student_Handbook.pdf

8. Disability Statement
The Student Life Office is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting
Mrs. Dallas Swafford, Director of Student Development 325-942-2047 office or 325-942-2211 Fax dallas.swafford@angelo.edu University Center, Suite 112B
9. Religious Holiday Observance
A. “Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code 11.20.
B. A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.
C. A student who is excused under section 2 may not be penalized for the absence, however; the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.
