Course Objectives

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to...

1. To expose students to the application of business practices within the ethical, political, and legal environment of the United States.
2. To introduce students to how professionals effectively navigate complex business issues that lack a clear right answer and to articulate and defend their rationale for doing so.

3. To understand the history and intent of American political, ethical, and legal structures and by so doing to ascertain why proposed solutions to contemporary ethical and social business questions may or may not work.
4. To encourage students to understand and articulate the importance of legal, ethical, and political boundaries upon business behavior and the bearing of these boundaries upon individual values and normative systems.

Assessment Methods

Various assessment methods such as quizzes, essays, and discussion posts will be utilized.

Course Textbook and Required Readings

Business Law and the Regulation of Business 12th edition by Richard Mann and Barry Roberts ISBN 978-1-305-50955-9. You do not have to pay for any extra online content. The textbook, whether in print or digital, is all you need for this class.

Grading Policies

This course employs the following to measure student learning.

Grade Calculations	Percent of Grade	Due
Discussion Posts, Quizzes, Misc. Assignments	100%	First discussion post due Thursday nights, two response posts due Saturday nights. Everything else due Saturday nights.

Angelo State University employs a letter grade system. Grades in this course are determined on a percentage scale:

A = 90 – 100 %

B = 80 – 89.9 %

C = 70 – 79.9 %

D = 60 – 69.9 %

F = 59.9 % and below.

Response Time

Students are expected to check their email every weekday. The instructor will do the same.

Weekly Videos

I will post weekly videos on the Blackboard Announcements page. These will usually be posted on Mondays. Watching these videos is a required part of the course. Each weekly video must be watched within four days of it being posted. I will occasionally give a class instruction in a video that is found nowhere else to determine who is watching the videos and who is not. Not watching these videos will result in a significant reduction in your grade.

Late Work

Every due date for this class has a built in 24-hour grace period where you can still receive full credit. After that, absolutely no late work is accepted. Dealing with deadlines is a large part of being successful in the business world. If I do not have possession of your assignment by the final cutoff, then it is late. Note that this includes accidentally submitting the wrong assignment and not realizing your error until after the due date. Also, “.pages” files (which is the default word processor for Mac computers) are not acceptable as I cannot open them. The business world runs on PC. Note that all deadlines are 11:59:01 PM.

Extra Credit

There is one extra credit offering in this class. The details are listed in Blackboard. This assignment can be submitted any time before the deadline of July 3rd at 11:59:01 PM. After the 24 hour grace period, absolutely, positively, no extra credit of any kind for any reason whatsoever will be offered (Don't ask!).

Course Policies

Academic Honesty and Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code, which is in both print and web versions of the ASU Student Handbook.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

It is the professor's intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Code of Ethics

Students, faculty, administrators and professional staff of the College of Business should always:

- Be forthright and truthful in dealings with all stakeholders

- Take responsibility for one's actions and decisions
- Serve as an example of ethical decision-making and behavior to others
- Admit errors when they occur, without trying to conceal them
- Respect the basic dignity of others by treating them as one would wish to be treated

Courtesy and Respect

Courtesy and respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other's opinions and respect others points of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity and harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, life style, religion, etc., violations of these rules will result in appropriate disciplinary actions.

Accommodations for Disability

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.

Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by emailing studentservices@angelo.edu, or by contacting:

Mrs. Dallas Swafford
 Director of Student Development
 Office of Student Affairs
 University Center, Suite 112
 325-942-2047 Office
 325-942-2211 FAX
Dallas.Swafford@angelo.edu

Student absence for religious holidays

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day), a student who intends to miss class to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Course Drop

To view information about how to drop this course or to calculate important dates relevant to dropping this course, you can visit http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrar_office/course_drop_provisions.php.

Incomplete as a Course grade

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade "I" is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. For undergraduates, an "I" that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an "F". A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of "I" before it automatically becomes an "F". To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all "I's".

Grade Appeal Process

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, has experienced inequitable evaluation procedures, or inappropriate grading practices, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the grade appeal process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: <http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance>.

Title IX at Angelo State University:

The University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination including: sexual assault, sex-based discrimination, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence and/or dating violence), and stalking. As a faculty member, I am a Responsible Employee meaning that I am obligated by law and ASU policy to report any allegations I am notified of to the Office of Title IX Compliance.

Students are encouraged to report any incidents of sexual misconduct directly to ASU's Office of Title IX Compliance and the Title IX Coordinator at:

Michelle Miller, J.D.
Title IX Coordinator
Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
325-942-2022
michelle.miller@angelo.edu

You may also file a report online 24/7 at www.angelo.edu/incident-form. If you are wishing to speak to someone about an incident in confidence you may contact the University Health Clinic at 325-942-2171, Counseling Services at 325-942-2371 or the ASU Crisis Helpline at 325-486-6345.
