HISTORY 1302 – U.S. HISTORY – 1865 TO THE PRESENT
Angelo State University
2021 Summer Semester I
Section 010, CRN# 30127

Class Meetings: MTWTRF - 9:00 - 10:45 A.M., Academic Bldg. Room 227
Instructor: Mark Lesosky, Adjunct Professor of History
Semester Dates: June 7 – July 9, 2021

Credit Hours: 3
Textbook: None
Email Address: mark.lesosky@angelo.edu
Office: A210A – Hours by appointment

Exams: Exams will consist of objective, short answer and/or short essay type questions. Study material for exams will come strictly from class notes and discussions. The final exam will NOT be comprehensive. Exams will be each week on Friday.

Grading Policy: Exams will be worth 60% of your grade. The final exam will be worth 40% of your grade. No grades will be dropped.

Note Taking: It is imperative you take thorough notes on all class lectures and discussions.

Attendance: Being in class is conducive to maintaining good grades. Habitual absenteeism is not. Points will be added to or subtracted from your final grade as follows: Perfect attendance - add 5 pts. 1-3 unexcused absences - add 3 pts. As regular attendance is necessary to achieve student learning outcomes, it is the policy of the History Dept. that missing more than 20% of the course (6 absences) will result in a reduction of one full letter grade when calculating the final course grade. Excused absences include school sanctioned events, serious illnesses or emergencies. If possible, please let me know in advance if you plan to be absent. Excused absences do NOT apply towards perfect attendance except under extenuating circumstances.

Make-ups: Should you miss an exam or quiz due to an absence, you will have one opportunity to take a make-up. That will be on Fri., July 2 during regular class time. Please make every effort, not only to be in class, but also to be present during an exam. Should you miss a lecture, due to an absence, it will be your responsibility to obtain the information that was covered on that day. That means get the notes from someone in class.

Other Responsibilities: Do not disturb the class while in session. Talking is distracting to others. There will be plenty of opportunities to talk and discuss things. TURN CELL PHONES OFF! If you must leave class for some reason, let me know ahead of time, if possible. DO NOT SLEEP IN CLASS! Should you do so, or even if I think you’re sleeping, you will be counted absent for that day. Contribute to the class as much as possible.

Tardiness: Excessive tardiness is unacceptable. Roll will be taken at the beginning of class. If you are not in class by 9:05, you will be counted absent.

Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day: Policy/Procedure

1. "Religious Holy Day" means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code 11.20.
2. A student who tends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.
3. A student who is excused under Section 2 may not be penalized for the absence, however, the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook. Persons with disabilities which may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Rm. 112, University Center, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made.
