ASU's Mission statement: Angelo State University, a member of the Texas Tech University System, delivers undergraduate and graduate programs in the liberal arts, sciences, and professional disciplines. In a learning-centered environment distinguished by its integration of teaching, research, creative endeavor, service, and co-curricular experiences, ASU prepares students to be responsible citizens and to have productive careers.

Departmental purpose: ...to help students develop the ability to read, write, speak, and understand world languages, and to appreciate and evaluate other literatures and cultures...to prepare students for certification to teach in the public schools...

My personal and professional goals: to heighten awareness of the role of language in society; to encourage exploration of various models in second language learning.

COURSE CONTENT: Welcome to Spanish 1302. This is a summer Spanish course designed to continue an introduction to the language and culture of the Spanish-speaking world. The students will practice the four language skills (listening/understanding, speaking, reading, and writing) both with the instructor and with classmates. The text provides abundant communicative activities along with many form-focused exercises and offers a good variety of authentic cultural materials. Practice will continue beyond the classroom with technology-based materials.

GOALS FOR ALL SPANISH 1302 COURSES: Students should be able to express personal meaning, hold simple conversations, ask and answer simple questions, and write short, simple narrations on topics covering basic personal information such as self and family, daily activities, personal preferences, and immediate needs. Orally and in writing, they should have some control over present tense and an emerging control over past and future time frames. Students should also be able to read and comprehend grammatically complex texts in more detail. (in all 3 modes—presentational, interpretive, and interpersonal—of ACTFL Novice high to Intermediate low to mid). Students should be able to communicate important features of the history and culture of the Spanish-speaking world—perspectives, practices, products.

WARNING: THESE LEARNING OBJECTIVES (using the same national standards as the TEKS in K-12) REMAIN THE SAME WHETHER THIS COURSE IS OFFERED IN A 5 WEEK SUMMER TERM OR A 15 WEEK REGULAR SEMESTER. That makes the summer course IDEAL for heritage Spanish speakers and for those with successful previous language learning experience—we move through the material quickly, emphasizing learning the rules and applying them in LOTS of practice. HOWEVER, because all research shows a minimum of 240 hours of instruction and practice is necessary for most adult English-speaking learners to reach Novice mid to high level in Spanish, the short summer term is challenging (but do-able) for true beginners, students who have never learned a foreign language and/or who require learning accommodations. (Those students will often perform better over a regular long semester, having more time to understand the rules and practice, practice, practice applying them as well as memorizing vocabulary in context.)

Idea Form Objectives:

Essential (E):

Gaining factual knowledge (Spanish vocabulary, grammatical structure, and culture)

Developing skill in expressing oneself orally or in writing (Basic spoken and written communication in Spanish)

Important (I):

Understand mechanisms of language and culture

Learning to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions)

Most of you already have your textbook—there is just a new procedure for entering my course bc of new software at Pearson. I'll be sending a student registration sheet with instructions.

Required TEXT: ARRIBA, Comunicación y cultura, 7th ed., by Zayaz-Bazán and Bacon. (used for all 4 semesters) very important to enter correct section code every semester.

SPECIFIC EXERCISES ASSIGNED AS MINIMUM FOR GRADE BUT OTHERS STRONGLY ENCOURAGED

DATE ASSIGNMENT Due the day it is listed, so Prepared in advance—flipped classroom

Read ALOUD the pages indicated in the book first where you find all explanations and examples, (at least look over the e-text activities), then submit the assigned SAM exercises at MySpanishLab which are also best done aloud, scoring at least 70 on each (those exercises, as well as the instructor-graded and those in the text, will often be done in virtual class, so the better prepared you are, the better you'll perform)

Assigned SAMs and Practice Tests are due in MySpanishLab before class--by 8 am Central time the day they are listed (most of you will likely be doing them the night BEFORE. Por ejemplo, whatever is listed for miércoles, you'll be reading and practicing and completing martes. And you'll be continuously reviewing whatever you didn't learn in Spanish I in Caps 1-4 as well as what you're having issues with in the new material). You are expected to have read the pages, understood them, and done the assignment so 'classtime' can be spent orally practicing and refining your understanding.

REQUIREMENTS:

My Role / Your Role: Because of the way languages are learned by adults, you really cannot be “taught” Spanish. Therefore, my role is to facilitate language learning by creating an environment in which the language learning process is enhanced, guiding you and assessing your progress. Every course requirement is designed with this in mind; there is no “busy” work assigned. All of the course work has a purpose. Your role is to fully immerse yourself in the work both in the classroom and through the outside assignments.

Become aware of your personal learning style because it has real implications for your progress. Do you process what you hear easily, or do you prefer to see everything written down? Do you prefer to work alone or in groups? Are you a big picture kind of person or are you detail oriented? Do you spell well in English? etc. The Vark website has pages of suggested strategies to use your preferred mode of learning to improve your dispreferred. <http://vark-learn.com/the-vark-questionnaire>

Before virtual class, each student should first review very carefully the pages indicated in the text for the vocabulary/grammar explanations given in English, then at least look through the exercises in the text using e-links, and finally complete on MySpanishLab the appropriate exercises accessible in the on-line Student Activities Manual-- no late assignments are accepted for credit. (To accommodate the occasional technical problems, these exercises are a completion grade for scoring 70 or better, but make sure you understand any remaining errors.) These exercises are the basis of activities we will do together in the classroom, along with exercises from the text--cooperative communicative activities will be done in the virtual class as well. Other exercises in the text and on MySpanishLab include audio and video files, tutorials, additional practice exercises, and practice tests on-line. Students are strongly encouraged to continuously practice the ‘Letras y Sonidos’ sections of all chapters (1-15),but especially capítulos 1, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9 particularly if your speaking and/or spelling skills are not strong.

Your daily participation grade is also important; you learn a foreign language by doing it.

The compositions and oral proficiency assessments are on topics we will have prepared and will be completed virtually. THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UPS.

The exámenes (exams) will contain both oral and written cues similar to exercises either in the text or in the myspanishlab exercises. THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP EXAMS.

Virtual class ‘attendance’ is crucial to your success in this course. I expect all students to ‘attend’ and actively participate in ALL assigned Collaborate virtual class sessions. You are allowed 2 ‘absences’ for any reason; for every absence after, there is a deduction of 4 points from your final grade. Each missed portion of a class (late arrival, leaving early, exiting and re-entering, etc) is counted as one-half (1/2) absence. Do notice that no late assignments are accepted.

According to the Angelo State University Undergraduate Catalog, valid reasons for an absence include illness, family emergency or participation in an authorized university activity. “Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code §11.20, detailed below.

If you have one of these valid reasons, it is your responsibility to petition, in advance if possible, and to provide documentation to excuse the ‘absence’ (petition will be emailed to you at the beginning of the semester). If this petition is approved, the negative consequences for the missed class will be waived. Petitions will only be approved if you have a valid and adequately documented reason for missing the class. Be sure to attach to this form all appropriate supporting documentation, such as a medical receipt, police report, letter from the athletic department, etc.

On the other hand, good attendance is rewarded. If you complete the summer session with no ‘absences’, your lowest assessment grade will be dropped (you must take all of them).

Students absent more than 2 times lose the possibility of receiving an ‘A’ in the course. Students absent for 6 times or more will automatically receive an ‘F’.

Class attendance is the first step toward a positive daily/participation grade, but there are also other factors. Active participation, taking initiative, and speaking Spanish in virtual class will favorably impact your daily grade. It will also help your daily grade if you join the virtual class prepared. This means you will have done your preparation in the textbook, online, and anything else I might assign. Everyone starts with an 80% participation grade. It is then up to you to raise that grade by your stellar participation or to lower it accordingly.

It is very important that you keep current on your assignments. In a foreign language class, we advance quickly and new concepts are often based on concepts learned earlier. If you miss a class, get caught up right away, even if you won’t receive a grade for it. It is your responsibility to find out the material we covered in the class period you missed (including homework) and learn/complete those materials. Also: remember that class time is one of the few chances you have to practice speaking and listening to the language. Learning a second language requires constant practice and exchange with others.

LANGUAGE STUDY IS CUMULATIVE—WE RECOMMEND YOU HAVE AN A OR B TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN THE NEXT LEVEL.

(8) Student Handbook Statement of Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one’s own class and/or course work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Academic integrity is a personal choice to abide by the standards of intellectual honesty and responsibility. Because education is a shared effort to achieve learning through the exchange of ideas, students, faculty, and staff have the collective responsibility to build mutual trust and respect. Ethical behavior and independent thought are essential for the highest level of academic achievement, which then must be measured. Academic achievement includes scholarship, teaching, and learning, all of which are shared endeavors. Grades are a device used to quantify the successful accumulation of knowledge through learning. Adhering to the standards of academic integrity ensures grades are earned honestly. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which students, faculty, and staff build their educational and professional careers.

Students must understand the principles of academic integrity and abide by them in all classes and/or course work at the University. Academic Misconduct violations are outlined in Part I, section B.1 of the Code of Student Conduct. If there are questions of interpretation of academic integrity policies or about what might constitute an academic integrity violation, students are responsible for seeking guidance from the faculty member teaching the course in question.

(9) Operating Policy 10.5 (student accommodation)

Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation. All students at Angelo State University must have the capacity and ambition to undertake, with reasonable accommodation from the faculty and administration, the academic challenges necessary to fulfill the academic requirements for the degree or certification programs which they are pursuing.

(10) Operating Policy 10.19 (Holy Day):

“Religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code §11.20. A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence. A student who is excused under section 2 may not be penalized for the absence; however, the instructor may respond appropriately if the student fails to complete the assignment satisfactorily.
