English 1301 Learning Goals and Outcomes

The official description of this class is as follows: “Emphasizing the writing process, the course offers abundant practice in producing effective prose essays as well as in analyzing and discussing selected readings.” More specifically, though, we’ll focus on learning to analyze a variety of writing scenarios and respond to them appropriately. Why? There is no such thing as universally “good writing.” What counts as “good writing” in one situation may be completely inappropriate and ineffective in others. So, if you want to succeed in college and beyond, you’ll need to become an agile writer who can adapt your writing to a wide variety of audiences, contexts, purposes, and media. This semester you’ll work on becoming a flexible writer who can transfer what you’ve learned in 1301 to new writing contexts.

The table below lists specific core objectives and student learning outcomes for this course.

Core Objective

Course Student Learning Outcome

Critical Thinking

Students will learn to employ problem-solving strategies (such as inquiring about an issue, comprehending consequences, and analyzing and synthesizing information) to generate positions and arguments and to examine basic principles of information to support a thesis.

Students will learn to comprehend, analyze, synthesize, and evaluate their own communication and that of others to raise questions, make assertions, and generate discussion about a topic or question.

Communication

Students will learn to take into consideration audience, context, purpose, conventions, and circumstances relevant to written communication; use relevant and appropriate content for the specific rhetorical situation in order to express their position(s) effectively in writing.

Teamwork

Student will learn to work individually and collectively toward a shared purpose or goal with the members of a team, creating and evaluating their peers’ drafts.

Personal Responsibility

Students will learn to identify their own core beliefs and the sources of those beliefs in order to connect their choices and actions to decision-making, as well as recognize and evaluate possible consequences of their decisions.

Prerequisites: Completion of English Texas Success Initiative (TSI) requirements.

Required Textbook

Digital Technology Requirements

Blackboard Access

I rely heavily on Blackboard tools to teach this class. To log in, you will need your Banner log-in credentials.

Resource Repository

I will post the syllabus, writing assignment prompts and rubrics, daily homework instructions, in-class materials and instructions, and additional resources (videos, handouts, etc.) in our course Blackboard page. Be sure you routinely check our Blackboard course page for detailed homework instruction, some learning materials that were used/discussed in class, and assignment deadlines.

Assignment Submissions

You will submit all homework and writing assignment responses through Blackboard.

Microsoft Word

All assignments must be submitted in Microsoft Word format. You cannot upload links to Google Docs within Blackboard.

As an ASU student, you have free access to Office 365, which includes MS Word. Visit the Office 365 website and log in with your ASU email and password. You can download the software onto your computer or compose and save writing within the site's cloud-based storage.

Adobe Acrobat Reader

You will need Adobe Acrobat Reader to download some reading assignments and other course materials.

Technical Support

If you are having technical issues with Blackboard, contact technical support one of the following ways:

Phone: 325-942-2911 or toll free at 1-866-942-2911

Web: www.angelo.edu/services/technology/

Any course content-related questions should be directed toward me.

Email Communication Protocol

If I need to contact you, I will email your Angelo State email address. Get in the habit of checking your email regularly.

If you need to contact me, email me at mtrees@angelo.edu. I will check email periodically between 9AM and 5PM Monday-Friday. I will not respond to email messages after 7PM or on weekends, so if you email me at 2AM on a Saturday, I will not get the message until Monday morning at 9AM.

When you send an email, remember to use professional email etiquette:

- send the email from your ASU student account,
- include an appropriate subject in the subject line,
- include a formal greeting (Dear Ms/Mr.),
- state your name and the class you are enrolled in,
- include a clear description of the question or problem, and
- avoid using “textspeak” (e.g., all lower-case letters, acronyms, lack of punctuation among sentences) within this professional exchange --doing so not only establishes an informal tone, inappropriate for this writing situation, but it also makes it difficult to read and therefore understand your message.

Grade Determination

Your semester grade will be determined as follows:

Percentage Allocation

Assignment	Percentage
Final Portfolio	30%
Sequence 1	10%
Sequence 2	15%
Sequence 3	25%
Participation	10%
Reflections	5%
Peer Workshops	5%

Final Grade

Course Grade	Percentage
A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	59% and below

Specific assignment prompts and rubrics will be distributed as separate handouts.

Final Portfolio

The portfolio is the culmination of all you've learned over the course of the semester, and it is graded accordingly. Worth 30% of your grade, it consists of two previously submitted major writing assignments that have been extensively revised during the last few weeks of class. Be sure to retain copies of all graded Major Writing Assignments (MWAs) because you will need these drafts to complete the final portfolio submission. You will also compose a reflective piece in which you will articulate what you have learned throughout the semester and how you went about revising and editing portions of the portfolio. I will distribute a separate prompt for the portfolio later in the semester.

Participation

Participation will constitute 10 percent of your final grade. I factor in the following when determining your participation grade: graded homework assignments, any reading quizzes, and graded in-class work. You must be present to receive credit for graded in-class participation activities.

Peer Workshops

All students will participate in writing workshops for each of their major writing assignments. Your grade for these workshops will constitute 5% of your course grade.

Think about your favorite piece of writing; this may be a magazine article, a book, a poem, a comic, a song, anything. What seems like a perfect, polished piece was at one time a rough draft, and through a series of big and small changes the author molded it into the memorable text that you know. The author most likely asked a few trusted colleagues to read and give them feedback about what was working well and what could be improved.

Peer feedback can help you decide how you should spend your time and energy revising and editing your work. Your peers can often identify unclear or inaccurate information you may not be aware of and then offer strategies for better achieving your purpose and more clearly communicating this to a reader. Plus, your peers are writing the same assignment and thus may be able to offer tips for better conceptualizing and responding to the assignment prompt.

However, not all writers bring the same experiences with and knowledge of how to give and use peer feedback. Plus, you may have even had negative experiences with peer review throughout your educational career. In this class, you and your peers will receive instruction in how to give and incorporate useful feedback, and you'll get several opportunities to practice doing so. In fact, learning to give and use peer feedback fulfills one of this course's learning goals: teamwork. As with any routine, we will experiment and make changes to determine what most effectively serves the needs of the group and the individual.

Writing Assignment Submission

- Major writing assignments require you to submit multiple items along with the final draft all together in Blackboard. Before you submit the final draft, I will distribute a checklist detailing the items you must include in the submission. If any required materials are missing, you will receive a 10-point deduction for each class day the assignment is incomplete.
- Prompts for all major and minor writing assignments will specify the format you should use (font style/size, margins, page number placement, etc.).
- If you fail to submit any of the major writing assignments (MWAs), you will not pass the course.

Late Work

I do not accept late work. If you have an emergency of some sort that prevents you from submitting an assignment by a due date, contact me as soon as possible, and depending on the circumstances, I will take your emergency into consideration. But unless you have a really good excuse, I do not accept late work. Please do not e-mail me assignments after the due date unless you have my approval. However. . .

The "Late Pass"

I understand juggling various aspects of your life throughout the semester poses a challenge. Once a semester I will give you an additional 48 hours to submit a major writing assignment late without penalty. You will need to inform me through email that you are using your late pass before the initial due date. Upon applying your "late pass," I'll note it on the assignment and in my records. I will not accept any subsequent late assignments.

Attendance Policies

Unexcused Absences

Students who miss more than two weeks of class typically have difficulty keeping up with class work and miss opportunities to contribute to and learn from class discussion and in-class group activities, so do your best to attend every class period.

- You can miss six classes (two weeks) without penalty to your final grade.
- Being absent does not exempt you from assigned readings, homework responses, in-class workshops, peer workshops, or major writing assignment deadlines. It is still your responsibility to check Blackboard for and ask me about due dates and any missed course material.
- If you accumulate more than six unexcused absences, your final grade will be lowered by five points for each absence.
- If you accumulate more than nine unexcused absences, you cannot pass the course.

Excused Absences

- Student Athlete: If you are a student athlete and need to miss class for a competition, you must provide documentation from your coach or Academic Affairs noting the date(s) you will be absent. Before you leave town for a competition, be sure to chat with me about what you need to do or submit to keep up with course work.
- Illness: If you test positive for COVID-19, you need to contact the Office of Student Affairs immediately so your professors may be informed. If you come into contact with someone who has tested positive for COVID-19 or are experiencing symptoms and therefore need to quarantine, register this through the wellness screening ASU app.

To be excused from attending class for COVID-related illness, one of the following types of documentation must be provided:

- Doctor's note stating not to attend class on the day(s) missed,
- Official University document stating not to attend class on the day(s) missed, or
- Screenshot of a failed submitted daily wellness check for the day(s) missed.

Exceptions to the illness policy will be made on a case-by-case basis.

For prolonged absences due to serious illness, emergency, or other crisis, please contact me as soon as you are able so we can discuss protocol for attending class remotely, gaining access to class lecture materials, and making up missed work.

Tardiness

Class begins promptly. Arriving on time prevents you from missing important class information and from disrupting class discussion and activities. You are considered tardy after I have taken roll or collected the attendance sign-in sheet. Three tardies will constitute one class absence. If you have a chronic issue that makes you late for class, please discuss it with me.

Leaving Early

If you leave class early, you will be counted absent, unless you have extenuating circumstances and have discussed them with me beforehand.

Writing Conferences

Two to four times this semester, I will require you to conference with me about major writing assignments. This meeting gives us the opportunity to have focused, one-on-one discussions about your work. I will announce the conference schedule at least a week prior to the conferencing period, and you will sign up for a day/time you are available to meet. Conferences will take place in my office or over Blackboard Collaborate. If you prefer to meet with me in person, you will have to wear a mask while in my office. If you prefer not to mask, we can meet via Blackboard Collaborate. Set a reminder for your conference appointment and show up on time because missing a conference counts as two class absences. If you cannot make the date/time you scheduled, notify me at least 24 hours prior to your appointment so we can reschedule.

Other Class Policies

Transition to Asynchronous Online Learning

Throughout the semester, there may be times where I am unable to provide class instruction face-to-face due to ongoing health events. In those cases, I will give you as much advance notice as possible and will replace face-to-face instruction with an online learning activity. These activities may consist of a short writing prompt, an educational video, a discussion board prompt, or any activity I feel will keep us on track with our learning objectives. You will be expected to complete this asynchronous coursework in place of your attendance. Failure to complete asynchronous activities before midnight on the class day in question constitutes an absence and a loss of any participation points that may be available through them. Even though I may not be feeling my best, I am not taking the day off, and neither should you!

Classroom Decorum

ASU students and instructors are bound by the terms of the Code of Student Conduct, which is published in the Student Handbook.

- Show Respect: You will be expected to be courteous and behave appropriately at all times in the class including treating your fellow classmates and the instructor with respect.
- Food and Drink: Per English and Modern Languages Departmental policy, students are not allowed to bring food and drink into classrooms. At least three good reasons for this department policy are the following: Respect for the focus and attention necessary for classroom learning, respect for the cleanliness of classrooms and classroom equipment, and respect for our housekeeping staff and their work in cleaning and maintaining our common workspaces.

- Sleeping in Class: You are also not allowed to sleep in class. This does not frequently happen because much of the instruction includes discussion and hands-on learning methods such as group activities or in-class writing of some sort. However, the first time I catch you sleeping, I will wake you up. If it happens subsequently, I will ask you to leave class and count you absent for the day. If you have a personal situation that causes you to fall asleep in class, please discuss this with me.

Electronic Device Policy

In my class, you are only allowed to use certain electronic devices under specific circumstances. The policy for various devices is outlined below:

Headphones 1  Please remove your headphones or earbuds and put them away before class begins.	Cell Phones 2  During class, you are unavailable to answer calls or send/receive text messages. However, if you are expecting an important call that you must take, inform me before class, and I will allow you to step out into the hallway and take the call.	Laptops/Tablets  3 4 You may use a tablet or laptop to access an electronic version of the textbook or course-related files downloaded from Blackboard or to take class notes only.
--	---	---

Penalties for Violating the Electronic Device Policy: If I notice you are using your cell phone, tablet, or laptop in class for purposes other than those outlined above (e.g., for texting, checking social media, surfing the Internet for irrelevant content) or listening to music in class, the first time it occurs, I will call you out in class and ask you to put your device away. The second time it occurs, I will ask you to leave class and count you absence.

I often bring student writing into the classroom for discussion or workshops because you can learn things from your peers' writing that are hard to learn from any other source. However, I will only use your writing as a model if I get permission from you beforehand.

University Policies

COVID-19 Safety Standards

Students are expected to be familiar with ASU's COVID-19 safety standards and protocol, which can be located here: <https://www.angelo.edu/covid-19/>. Each class period, I will verify you have completed your daily Wellness screening. Please have that information visible as you enter the classroom.

Title IX

The University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination including: sexual assault, sex-based discrimination, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence and/or dating violence), and stalking. As a faculty member, I am a Responsible Employee, meaning I am obligated by law and ASU policy to report any allegations I am notified of to the Office of Title IX Compliance.

Students are encouraged to report any incidents of sexual misconduct directly to ASU's Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator:

Michelle Miller, J.D.
Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator
Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
325-486-6357
michelle.miller@angelo.edu

You may also file a report online 24/7 at www.angelo.edu/incident-form.

If you wish to speak to someone about an incident in confidence, you may contact the University Health Clinic and Counseling Center at 325-942-2173 or the ASU Crisis Helpline at 325-486-6345.

For more information about Title IX in general, you may visit <https://www.angelo.edu/current-students/title-ix/>.

Accommodation Statement

If you have a documented disability (or think you may have a disability) and, as a result, need a reasonable accommodation to participate in this class or complete course requirements, contact the Student Affairs Office as soon as possible at 325-942-2047 or studentservices@angelo.edu. It is located in the Houston Harte University Center, Suite 112. To receive any academic accommodation, you must be appropriately registered with Student Affairs. Student Affairs works with students confidentially and does not disclose any disability-related information without their permission.

Plagiarism Policy

Plagiarism is a type of academic dishonesty. It occurs when writers deliberately use another person's language, ideas, or materials and present them as their own without properly acknowledging the source.

Types of Plagiarism

Plagiarism can include any of the following:

- Failing to quote material taken from another source,
- Failing to cite material taken from another source,
- Submitting writing that was written by another person or for another class (even if it was for a 1301 course you took and dropped), and
- Submitting writing that was substantially edited by another person.

Procedures for Handling Plagiarism Cases

If an instructor thinks a student may have plagiarized, they will follow these steps:

- Meet privately with the student to discuss the assignment in question and the evidence of plagiarism,
- Identify the appropriate consequence, and
- File a report with the Office of Student Services.

Possible Consequences

The instructor and the English Department Chair decide the academic consequence to be imposed, depending on the seriousness of the violation. Sanctions include the following:

- Adequately redo or revise the assignment in question,
- Fail the assignment in question,
- Fail the class, or
- Be subject to more severe sanctions imposed by the Dean of Students.

All students suspected of plagiarism will be reported to the Office of Student Services, who maintains a file of past plagiarism cases. The ASU Student Handbook further elaborates ASU's Academic Integrity policy.

Observances of Religious Holidays

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within what the instructor deems a reasonable time after the absence.

Writing Center Information

The Writing Center is an academic support service available to all ASU students. Peer tutors help experienced and inexperienced writers with all steps of the writing process: locating an angle, writing a thesis, organizing ideas, developing paragraphs, locating grammar and punctuation errors, documenting sources, etc.; however, tutors do not edit or proofread papers. To learn more about their services, visit the Writing Center's website.

Course Calendar

Note: This schedule provides the topics, readings, due dates, and holidays throughout the semester. I reserve the right to alter content and due dates based on class needs. These changes will be announced in class and through the Blackboard course site.
