General Policies Related to This Course

All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook¹
- Angelo State University Catalog²

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU. The College of Science and Engineering adheres to the university's Statement of Academic Integrity³

Classroom Decorum

Students are asked to place cell phones on silent mode. Text messaging during class is not permitted. If texting occurs, student will be warned once and then asked to leave classroom. Please refrain from any tobacco use while in lecture. Please refrain from talking to other students during lecture unless instructed by professor to do so as part of class activity. Professional behavior toward instructor(s) and fellow students is expected and required. Students are permitted to use laptop computers, tablets, and voice recorders to take notes only AFTER obtaining permission of the professor. Feel free to ask questions of the instructor or relate pertinent information at any time during class. Questions and comments are encouraged and appreciated.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.

Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu. For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website.⁴ The employee charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is:

Dr. Dallas Swafford
Director of Student Disability Services
Office of Student Affairs
325-942-2047
dallas.swafford@angelo.edu
Houston Harte University Center, Room 112

Incomplete Grade Policy

It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures⁵ for more information.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU's Academic Integrity policy⁶ in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft. In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center⁷.

General Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class daily; attendance is important and required. Attendance will be taken on a random basis. Absences will be excused for illness if a physician's note is provided, proof of a family member's death, or absences due to travel related to a University function (A memo from sponsoring faculty member is required- it is the students responsibility to confirm the professor has received the memo notification). No Make-up Exams or Quizzes will be given. If you know you will be absent on the day of an exam, notification is required at least one full week in advance in order to take an exam early. Absences due to an unforeseen emergency which occur on an exam day will be dealt with as they occur.

Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day⁸ for more information.

Emergency Procedures

In event that one of the following emergencies should occur DURING this class, we will follow the procedures listed below.

Tornado WARNING: As a group, using the west stairwell we will move to the designated storm shelter location (1st floor hallways between Rooms 139-146 and between 158-162) and remain there until the danger is passed.

Fire: As a group, using the west stairwell we will immediately evacuate the Vincent building leaving through the west entrance doors and gather at a safe distance in the north parking lot.
