Course Description

This is an introductory course on the writing process. Prerequisites required.

Core Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes

Objective	Outcome
Critical Thinking	Find, inquire into, analyze, and synthesize texts relevant to appropriate academic issues through a variety of media, including library and credible Internet resources. Develop the ability to frame a rhetorical problem; engage in academic research processes; learn to read academic texts, synthesize relevant resources; analyze interrelationships between a text's purposes, author, audience, content, structure and ideas; and organize their ideas in innovative patterns.
Communication	Take into consideration audience, context, purpose, conventions, and circumstances relevant to the academic context; use relevant and appropriate content for academic audiences, medium, and message.
Teamwork	Work collaboratively with the instructor and peers to plan, draft, revise, and edit written work.
Personal Responsibility	Identify their own core beliefs and the sources of those beliefs in order to connect their choices and actions to decision-making and to evaluate possible consequences of their decisions.

Materials Required

1. Book: The Norton Field Guide to Writing with Readings, 4th or 5th Edition, Richard Bullock, Maureen Daly Goggin, and Francine Weinberg. Purchase at Amazon or the ASU Bookstore. If your school does not provide this book, you will be responsible for purchasing.
2. Equipment: computer with high speed Internet, headphones or speakers, microphone, file storage like a flash drive or Google Drive, MS Office or conversion ability, Adobe Acrobat, Blackboard access, and ASU email access. For free software downloads click here. For equipment click ASU Computer Lab.

Online Class Behaviors and Attendance

Follow your school's rules for in-class policies (including masks and attendance). Be courteous when communicating online with me and your peers. Attendance or tardiness does not factor into your final grade. Submitting your completed work on time is your sole responsibility and objective. Always have your class materials and internet access available, so that you may work from home or school. Assignment requirements are posted in Blackboard in advance. As a result, no extensions will be given for assignments because of holy days or school sponsored events (see the Grading Policy below).

Email Policy

Email is the best way to contact me. I check email M-F from 8 am - 5 pm (not on holidays).

Discussing Your Grades

I will not discuss your grades through email because of FERPA requirements designed to protect your records. For questions, please refer to this syllabus first. If you still have questions, email me and we will chat using Google Hangouts or meet during my office hours.

Grading Policy

All assignments are generally graded within two weeks of submission. All assignments will be assessed a penalty of 10% per day late (this includes weekends and holidays). I will not give an Incomplete in this course. I may use your assignments as samples for future classes. Finally, students traveling to school-sponsored events or observing a holy day must submit their work before the due date. I assess grades in the following manner: A (90-100%) The document is superior; B (80-89%) The document is good; C (70-79%) The document is adequate; D (60-69%) The document is disappointing; F (0-59%) The document is unsatisfactory.

Academic Misconduct Policy

If you plagiarize, cheat, gain an unfair advantage, or participate in any activities described in the Student Code of Conduct, then you will receive an automatic "0" on the assignment and be required to visit with me during my office hours. If you are caught a second time, you will fail the course, and I will inform others for potential further disciplinary action.

Accommodations

If you have a disability and need accommodations, contact the Student Affairs Office ASAP at 325-942-2047 or studentservices@angelo.edu (University Center, Suite 112). Once you register with Student Affairs then you must notify me to gain accommodations. Student Affairs works with students confidentially and does not disclose any disability-related information.
