Course Overview

Since the processes of film making are in many cases hidden to the audience, extra effort needs to be applied by viewers of film. However, with a little practice one can develop adequate skill to recognize the essence of film language. By failing to identify such fundamentals as editing and framing the viewer is vulnerable to only understanding film as narrative. We will avoid the brainless zombie condition by focusing our analytical skills on the visual data that hints at how films are made. Opportunities to demonstrate critical analysis will be in the form of; 1) Class practice 2) written assignments 3) oral presentation 4) objective test. The study involved with other academic disciplines or career paths can be enhanced by using the critical skills cultivated in this class.

Students should be familiar with the use of Microsoft Office Word and Power Point (or other acceptable presentation software) and have access to Angelo State University Blackboard. For technical support the Technology Service Center (TSC) may be contacted by calling (325) 942-2911, and the E-Learning Center 486- 6263 or by e-mail at helpdesk @angelo.edu

Student Honor Code and Academic Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is contained in both print and web versions of the Student Handbook. Plagiarism will not be treated lightly in this course. This class is focused on generating and developing your own ORIGINAL DESIGNS. This does not mean that references cannot be used but copying, tracing, or using the actual work of others without documenting or showing significant changes (75% modification from copied artwork) in creating your artwork and can lead to a reduced full letter grade or failing the assignment. Make sure to post references of your sources and keep working in developing your own original designs.

Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is a required student's obligation and will be taken daily by a roll call. You will be marked tardy if you are more than (15) minutes late; or marked absent if you arrive late or leave class (30) minutes early without instructor permission. Failure to attend class or arriving (15) minutes late may impact your ability to achieve course objectives, which could affect your final grade. If the faculty is late in arriving to class, you must wait (15) minutes after the start of class before you may leave without being counted absent, or you must follow any written instructions I may give you about my anticipated tardiness.

An absence, excused or unexcused, does not relieve a student of any course requirement. Excessive absences will be reported to the VPA Art Office and will affect your final grade. If the student accumulates more than (3) unexcused absences the student grade will be reduced to a full letter grade and continue to be reduced for each additional unexcused absence. The accumulation of more than (6) unexcused absences will result in FAILURE from class unless warranted by other unavoidable and excused circumstances. In this regard, it is the student's responsibility to withdraw from class if they do not want to receive a failing grade. An excused absence will be granted with a documented excused only i.e. police report, funeral notice, employment letter, official university activity, observance of government and religious holidays, personal or family emergencies, or a note from the student's doctor or family stating the student's inability to attend class or miss a test.

Religious Holidays

A student who intends to observe a religious holiday should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that time within a reasonable time after the absence.

Classroom Expectations

The overall theme of this class is RESPECT and helping everybody succeed. I will treat you with respect and I expect the same treatment from you. However, no one is perfect in this world and that is why I ask you to be more understanding, considerate, and supportive of all your classmates and faculty in class. Try your best to practice common courtesy at all times. Avoid coming habitually late to class. Please wear the appropriate attire suited to working in an academic situation. The environment for the class must be conducive to learning. Offensive behavior and disrespectful language will not be tolerated. Students who continue to display rude and disrespectful behavior will be given a warning. If the behavior continues, the student will be asked to leave the class and meet with the Art Program Coordinator to discuss the situation before being allowed back to the classroom..

Students with Disabilities

Persons with disabilities who may warrant academic accommodation must contact the Office of Student Services, Room 112, Houston Harte Center, or (325) 942-2047, ada@angelo.edu, in order to request such accommodation prior to any accommodation being implemented. Students are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangement can be made. SIGNATURE COURSES ARE STRUCTURED AROUND

1. Written communication
2. Oral communication
3. Familiarizing students with campus resources and activities

WRITING REQUIREMENT

Because practicing writing skills is a key component of Signature Courses, students are required to write summaries of at least two of these types of assignments: reviews of books, articles, design, lectures and films.

RESOURCES

One of the goals of Signature Courses is to make new students aware of the resources available to them on campus. Students can learn about these opportunities for academic assistance:

Students may visit the Writing Center for help with their writing assignments. Students using the library to research class assignments and get help finding resources. Porter Henderson Library: Librarians can meet with students to discuss information literacy as it pertains to their course and class projects. ASU Tutor Center Academic Tutoring and Graduate School Opportunities: Math Lab/ Supplemental Instruction (www.angelo.edu/dept/si) Upswing 24/7 online tutoring (<https://angelo.upswing.io/>)

CAMPUS INTERACTION

Signature Courses will help students see the campus as a viable area for engagement. University lectures, plays, musical performances and other events show students that the campus is an engaging and intellectually stimulating place. Faculty will choose events that they can connect to their course

INFORMATION LITERACY

1. Signature Courses will incorporate ways for students to learn and critically examine valid sources of information. Most first-year students know how to get answers from the internet, but for many, the ability to find other types of resources and to think critically about all of the information they find may be a skill that has yet to be honed. Signature Courses provide a distinct opportunity to ensure that all first-year students receive instruction in basic research and information evaluation skills, otherwise known as information literacy skills, which will serve them throughout their time at the university. LibGuides offer library tutorials for students on how to request their services. Feel free to contact the library for more information.
