Class Meeting:  8:50-9:41 M-F.  Infonet room.

Office Hours:  By appointment.

Nature of Course: Government 2305 is designed to introduce the student to the American federal and state governmental system. The course will focus on inputs into the political system with topics including but not limited to: Declaration of Independence, Constitution, interest groups, political parties and ideologies, voting and the media, the federal bureaucracy, and the three branches of government.

Course materials: Course content will be delivered via two primary methods:
Lecture series: Lectures will be delivered during the daily Zoom sessions.  Students will be required to take notes from these sessions.  For students unable to attend these daily meetings, recordings of the session will be posted to Blackboard in the “Content” section.  Here is a link to the Zoom session:
Zoom log-in info:
*Go to:  www.zoom.us
*At the top in blue click on “Join A Meeting”
*In the meeting ID or personal link name bar, type in the following code:  686 263 3225
*Password 1302
*That should take you to the meeting waiting room.
*I’ll then admit you to the session.
*You should be able to access the meeting with your computer or phone.
*If you have any trouble, you can text me at (325) 456-6020.
*I’m going to post to Blackboard on a daily basis in the content section the recording of each day’s class.  So, if you miss the live broadcast, you can watch the recordings.
*So as not to take up to much bandwidth on Blackboard, I’m going to going to delete from Blackboard the previous week’s recordings at 7:00 pm every Tuesday.
Students need to be sure they can access the course in Blackboard.

Grades in course: Including the final, four examinations (based on class lectures and assigned readings) will be administered during the course of the semester. The final exam will not be comprehensive. The four exams will count 75% of the grade for the course. The exam schedule is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Exam #1</th>
<th>September 13-14 (M-TU)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Exam #2</td>
<td>October 11-12 (M-TU)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exam #3</td>
<td>November 8-9 (M-TU)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final</td>
<td>December 9 (TH)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Any variations to this schedule will be announced well in advance. A study guide will be provided prior to the exam, and time permitting, will be reviewed in class. All four exams must be completed in order to receive a grade for the course.

In addition to the aforementioned grades there will be periodic writing assignments (writing prompts) over the assigned class readings and lecture notes. These writing prompts will be announced at least a week in advance and constitute 25% of the final grade.

75% Exams (4 exams)
25% Writing prompts

Makeup work: Students can take exams/writing prompts early if they are not going to be in class the day of the exam/writing prompt. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the instructor if this is going to happen. Make-up exams will not be permitted unless specifically authorized prior to the date (at least 24 hours in advance) of the scheduled exam or in the case of a dire emergency. Make-up exams will be all essay. It is the student’s responsibility to schedule the make-up exam at the convenience of the instructor. In similar fashion, students must notify the instructor 24 hours in advance, if they are going to miss a quiz/writing assignment. Failure to do so will result in the student receiving a zero for that grade.

Modifications: Any student that needs extended time completing exams/assignments needs to contact ASU’s dual credit office and they will instruct the student on how to apply for these modifications and if approved, notify the instructor.

Attendance: Exams are based primarily on lectures so attendance is required. Roll will be taken at the beginning of each class. More than twelve absences (no excused absences) will result in the deduction of one letter grade. You are expected to be in class on time. If you enter after roll has been taken, you will be counted absent. Students who miss class can access the classes either live or view the Zoom recordings that are posted on Blackboard.

Discipline: This is a dual-credit course meaning the student will receive both high school and college credit for passing. Because it is a college credit course students are expected to conduct themselves accordingly. Primarily that means no talking while the instructor is talking. Students unable to properly conduct themselves will be removed from class. Because students are also receiving high school credit for the course, they will be expected to follow the rules as outlined in their student handbook. Any violations will subject the student to being referred to their administrative personnel.

No cell phones once class has started. Any student seen using a cell phone during class will be asked to leave.

Scholastic Honesty: The ASU Student Handbook contains important information about campus services, programs, policies, and procedures, including such areas as the campus disciplinary rules and the Academic Honor Code. All students are expected to be familiar with this publication and to comply with the policies contained therein, among them maintaining complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits according to the Academic Honor Code. The ASU Student Handbook is available via the ASU website at www.angelo.edu (“Current Students:/University Publications.”) This is the link that specifically refers to academic misconduct: http://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/code-of-student-Large print versions are available in the Student Life Office, Room 112 in the University Center.

The following are considered examples of scholastic dishonesty:

Plagiarism
The taking of passages from the writing of others without giving proper credit to the sources.

Collusion
Using another’s work as one’s own, or working together with another person in the preparation of work, unless such joint preparation is specifically approved in advance by the instructor.

Cheating
Giving or receiving information on examinations.

Students guilty of scholastic dishonesty will be administratively dropped from the course with a grade of “F” and subject to disciplinary action, which may include suspension and expulsion.

In addition to these standards, any student caught cheating will be turned over to their respective high school administrator for disciplinary action.
