Course Description

Intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Prerequisites

Completion of ENGL 1301 or its equivalent.

Course Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
4. Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
5. Apply the conventions

ASU Core Curriculum Objectives

The ASU Core Curriculum Committee has designated English 1301 as a core course in the area of Communication¹. According to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, courses in this foundational component area should “focus on developing ideas and expressing them clearly, considering the effect of the message, fostering understanding, and building the skills needed to communicate persuasively” and should “involve the command of oral, aural, written, and visual literacy skills that enable people to exchange messages appropriate to the subject, occasion, and audience.” In addition, every core course must help students develop four of the broad core objectives. The four designated for this class are

- Critical Thinking Skills – To include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information;
- Communication Skills – To include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication;
- Teamwork – To include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal; and
- Personal Responsibility – To include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

All student learning outcomes and course policies are designed to foster student growth in these four skill areas. Attached to this syllabus is the rubric used by the Department of English and Modern Languages to assess core outcomes in this class.

Personal Conduct and Responsibilities

In this and all college courses, you should conduct yourself with professionalism and collegiality, and you should take responsibility for your own learning and performance. Excellent students are motivated, dedicated, and self-reliant; they have a positive attitude and a good work ethic. You will improve your chances of succeeding in this class by following these rules:

- Stay focused. Attend class and be actively involved. Pay attention and participate in discussions. Ask questions when you have them and consult your professor when you have concerns.
- Be prepared every day. Critically read all assignments. Conscientiously complete homework and class activities. Keep up with your work.
- Follow instructions carefully, especially those on assignment prompts, and prepare assignments according to the guidelines provided.
- Encourage learning and collaborate with classmates and support the instructor in the goal of learning.
- Be courteous. To avoid distracting others, arrive on time and leave when class is dismissed.
- Avoid talking in class except when appropriate. While it is sometimes acceptable and even desirable to question opinions and even facts offered by others (including the teacher), you should do so respectfully and thoughtfully, with learning goals in mind.
- Silence and put away cell phones. Do not use any personal electronic devices unless invited to do so as part of the lesson. If you believe your smartphone or tablet would be helpful to you during class, ask permission to use it.

Student Disability Services

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.

The Office of Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting:
