Course Objective:

The objective of this course is to provide an introductory level survey of the second half of American history from 1865 to the present. The course will examine the emergence of the United States as a world power, as well as the various political, social, cultural and economic themes of a nation dealing with domestic and international issues of the twentieth century.

Student Learning Objectives and Outcomes:

- Students will develop general education skills and learn to think historically.
- Students will become acquainted with basic information about the historical period.
- Students will be able to analyze and discuss causes and effect in the history of the United States from 1865 to present.
- Students will be able to analyze and discuss the relationship among American economics, politics, demography, and social structure from 1865 to present.
- Students will be able to construct an essay, which synthesizes assigned readings and lectures into a coherent, fact-based narrative that demonstrates critical thinking skills.

The textbook for this course is a free digital online textbook called The American YAWP (<http://www.americanyawp.com>) published by Stanford University press.

Grading and Evaluation

Throughout the course there will be several opportunities for students to demonstrate their abilities and comprehension of the subject matter.

90 – 100% = A

80 – 89% = B

70 – 79% = C

60 – 69% = D

50 - 59% = F

Final 25% of final grade

Tests 25% of final grade

Discussion 50% of final grade

- Discussion: There will be an online discussion board once or twice a week. Students will be required to discuss the topic. (More information in the discussion section of this syllabus)
- Tests: There will be five tests over the semester

- Final: There will be a final project worth 25% of the final grade

Discussion Board:

Each week the student will be required to participate in an online discussion board over the readings assigned that week. There will be two discussion topics each week. The first one will be posted on Mondays, and the student's initial response must be Thursday by 11:59PM. The second one will be posted Thursday and the second post must be submitted by Sunday at 11:59PM. Each post must be at least 200 words.

- Examples of answers to the possible discussion question: On Dec 7, 1941, Pearl Harbor was attacked. Who attacked the harbor and why? Why is this significant in American history?
 - Not a good answer: The Japanese attacked and a lot of soldiers were killed.
 - Better answer: The Japanese attacked in order to draw America into a war with them.
 - Good answer: The Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor with the hopes of destroying the American fleet and drawing America into war. It brought the US into WW2.
 - Great answer: In the wake of oil embargos, the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor with the hopes of destroying the American fleet and neutralizing the Americans in the Pacific while Japan completed its Pacific conquests. The result however would be to draw America into war with Japan and then in turn Germany and the rest of the Axis powers, making WW2 a truly world war. The surprise attack convinced most Americans that isolationism would no longer work and the country quickly turned into a war machine both within the military and on the home front.

Online etiquette:

In discussions, students are expected to be respectful of the thoughts and opinions of all participants.

Late Work:

Regular school attendance is essential for a student to make the most of his or her education—to benefit from teacher-led and school activities, to build each day's learning on the previous day's, and to grow as an individual. Absences from class may result in serious disruption of a student's mastery of the instructional materials; therefore, the student and parent should make every effort to avoid unnecessary absences. For more information on attendance, please consult the Student Handbook.
