Course Description and Learning Outcomes: A course in critical reading and writing across the curriculum, including the research process and the research paper

State Core Curriculum Objectives for English 1302:

1. Critical Thinking Skills
2. Communication Skills
3. Teamwork
4. Personal Responsibility

Prerequisites: All dual credit students must have applied to and been accepted into the dual credit program through Angelo State University.

Required Texts: The Norton Field Guide to Writing with Readings
O'Brien, Tim The Things They Carried
student-selected novel or play for research project

Supplies: 1 inch binder (or an English division in a multi-subject binder), dividers, notebook paper, blue and black pens, computer and internet access. All drafts of all essays must be word processed, and we will use Schoology and Google Docs extensively. Students will turn in all essays to turnitin.com. Those who do not have access to a computer at home must go to an ASU computer lab or the public library outside of school hours.

Course Requirements

1. consistent attendance and punctuality
2. independent reading with reading quizzes
3. one timed analysis essay test
4. study of terms and grammar with quizzes
5. independent research
6. multiple AP style timed essays
7. annotated summary/research prospectus
8. annotated bibliography
9. critical essay involving all steps of research and the writing process
10. peer editing and polishing

Attendance and Makeup Policy:

Attendance and punctuality are imperative in a college course. All assignments are due on the due date regardless of whether a student is absent from class or present. Due dates for assignments are given well in advance. Students who are absent for a school trip or any other reason the day an assignment is due must turn in the assignment early or turn it in by their class period by email attachment/sharing to erin.mckillip@saisd.org. Late assignments will result in a grade penalty according to the district grading policy. If a quiz is given the day a student returns to class, the student is expected to take the quiz. Students should contact the instructor, a trustworthy classmate, or the updated syllabus in Schoology if absent to see what reading or grammar/vocabulary will be quizzed on the next class day. Students who are absent the day a quiz is given have two class days to sign up for and make up a quiz. A student who does not sign up for a makeup time within two days or who does not show up for the scheduled makeup time will receive a zero on the quiz. Students should try to avoid scheduling doctor appointments, college visits, counseling center appointments, etc. during this class time.

Class Assessment/Grading:

Minor Grades:	vocabulary/grammar and reading quizzes and early drafts of essays	30%
Major Grades:	essays, essay tests, and short answer tests	70%
Final Exam:	14% of semester average presentation- 60% for those not exempt from terms and grammar section (100% for those exempt from terms and grammar section)
	terms and grammar test – 40% of final exam for those not exempt

Extra Credit: Students may choose to attend announced Tuesday tutorial sessions to participate in 25 minutes of AP test preparation or complete online AP practice several times each semester. Each attended session or completed practice will earn 1 or 2 points in that 9 week grading period in an extra credit column. These points will be added to the student's average for each grading period.

Course Content: College-level courses may include controversial, sensitive, and/or adult material. Students are expected to have the readiness for college-level rigor and content.

Students with Disabilities: Persons with disabilities that may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office at ASU in order to request such accommodations prior to any being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made. (See Amy Rutherford in the CHS counseling center if you have questions.)

Academic Honesty: Angelo State University and Central High School expect students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Academic Honor Code, which is available on the ASU website at <http://www.angelo.edu/forms/pdf/honorcode5.pdf>. At minimum students who are determined to have violated this policy by plagiarising or cheating will receive a failing grade on the assignment.

Access to ASU Writing Labs and Library: ASU dual credit students have access to the Porter Henderson library, the Writing Center, and the computer labs at ASU. Dual Credit students have 820 free pages of printing per semester. To use ASU's computers, scanners, and printers, you will need to be able to log on to Rampport. To logon, you will need to see your instructor to get your ASU CID number. You will then need to call the Rampport Support line (325-942-2911) to set up your username and password.
