Course Description:

Study of principles and techniques of private and public performance on violin and/or viola. Course may be repeated for credit. Open to music majors only.

Course Content:

Development and understanding of the fundamentals of good musicianship, including: body posture, instrument position, left hand principles, finger placement, accidentals, vibrato, bow hold, sound production, bow strokes, intonation, phrasing, tone production and dynamics through the study of selected repertoire. Development of practice routine and strategies that lead to a successful performance.

Course Objectives:

- Develop good musicianship.
- Develop creative and critical thinking.
- Develop and understand technical aspects of playing a stringed instrument.
- Successfully perform some of the selected repertoire in a studio class or recital.

Course Requirements and Expectations:

- Attendance is required for this course. Any absences should be informed at least 24 hours in advance. Special cases will be analyzed individually.
- Students are expected to participate by actively playing their instruments and other learning activities.
- Students are expected to practice their instruments at least 2 hours daily. That does not count time spent on rehearsals or performances.
- A junior recital is advised but not required.

Grading

Lesson Grade (30%) – Students will receive a grade for each lesson (0-10), based on their readiness for the lesson. You are expected to be on time and warmed up for your lesson.

Live Performances (30%) – Each student is required to perform at least 1 time in a Studio Class and 1 time in the Student Recital. Freshman may be excused from performing in a Student Recital but MUST perform in Studio Class.

Final playing exam (30%) – Consists of a playing exam with selected repertoire and techniques from course material. Music minors will perform to a faculty jury panel during finals week.

Attendance (10%) – Students are expected to attend to all lessons and studio classes. Each unexcused absence will lower your grade by 5 points. Two absences imply a lower letter grade at the end of the semester.

Studio class

Studio class will meet weekly on Mondays at 3:00 pm in the Eldon Black Recital Hall. Attendance is required for all string majors and minor. Unexcused absences and tardiness will be treated the same way as in private lessons. Punctuality is very important in the music world. You are expected to be on time and warmed up for your lesson and studio class.

Other Required Events:

Include events such as your instructors' performances, guest artist masterclasses and recitals within your applied area, Junior and Senior Recitals by your studio colleagues, and other events assigned by the studio professor.

Accompanists:

Public performance (student recital, jury, etc.) of any accompanied piece MUST INCLUDE the accompaniment. If you choose NOT to use the staff accompanist, it is your financial responsibility to engage an accompanist of your choice and inform your applied instructor of your choice. You must rehearse with your accompanist at least once before playing the piece in a lesson for your applied instructor.

Maintain a professional relationship with any accompanist and fulfill your financial obligation to them in a timely manner. This applies when you are using a non-staff accompanist.

Failure to follow these guidelines falls into the category of 'professionalism' under Studio Grade and may adversely affect your final semester Studio Grade; plan accordingly.

Practice:

Daily practice time must be scheduled as though it is another class. Write it in your calendar and treat it as an important daily routine. Practice must not be an afterthought or something that is done IF you get done with your homework and work schedule. Practicing must take precedence over any homework or work schedule you may have.

It is expected, WITHOUT CONDITION, that students practice a minimum of TWO HOURS each day. This does not include time spent in rehearsals.

Value statement:

The music faculty believes that students cannot expect to teach what they themselves cannot demonstrate. Students will be expected to achieve proficiency on their respective instruments. As a result, the student must ensure that his/her instrument takes top priority in his/her music studies. Successful professional educators are also successful performers.
