Late Work

Every due date for this class has a built in 24-hour grace period where you can still receive full credit. After that, absolutely no late work is accepted. Dealing with deadlines is a large part of being successful in the business world. If I do not have possession of your assignment by the final cutoff, then it is late. Note that this includes accidentally submitting the wrong assignment and not realizing your error until after the due date. Also, “.pages” files (which is the default word processor for Mac computers) are not acceptable as I cannot open them. The business world runs on PC. Note that all deadlines are 11:59:01 PM.

Weekly Videos

I will post weekly videos on the Blackboard Announcements page. These will usually be posted on Mondays. Watching these videos is a required part of the course. Each weekly video must be watched within four days of it being posted. I will occasionally give a class instruction in a video that is found nowhere else to determine who is watching the videos and who is not. Not watching these videos will result in a significant reduction in your grade.

Extra Credit

There is one extra credit offering in this class. The details are listed in Blackboard. This assignment can be submitted any time before the deadline of March 5th at 11:59:01 PM. After the 24-hour grace period, absolutely, positively, no extra credit of any kind for any reason whatsoever will be offered (Don't ask!).

Course Policies

Academic Honesty and Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code, which is in both print and web versions of the ASU Student Handbook.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

It is the professor's intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Code of Ethics

Students, faculty, administrators and professional staff of the College of Business should always:

- Be forthright and truthful in dealings with all stakeholders
- Take responsibility for one's actions and decisions
- Serve as an example of ethical decision-making and behavior to others

Courtesy and Respect

Courtesy and respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other's opinions and respect others points of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity and harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, life style, religion, etc., violations of these rules will result in appropriate disciplinary actions.

Accommodations for Disability

Incomplete as a Course grade

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade "I" is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. For undergraduates, an "I" that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an "F". A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of "I" before it automatically becomes an "F". To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all "I's".

Grade Appeal Process

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, has experienced inequitable evaluation procedures, or inappropriate grading practices, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the grade appeal process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: <http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance>.
