Virtual communication: Office hours and/or advising may be done with the assistance of the telephone, Collaborate, Skype, etc.

Grading

Evaluation and Grades

Course grades will be determined as indicated in the table below.

Assessment	Percent/Points of Total Grade
Ethical Responsibility to the Broader Society	20
Presentations	40
Empowerment paper	40
Total	100%

Grading System

Course grades will be dependent upon completing course requirements and meeting the student learning outcomes.

The following grading scale is in use for this course:

- A = 90.00-100 points
- B = 80.00-89.99 points
- C = 70.00-79.99 points
- F = 0-69.99 points (Grades are not rounded up)

Keep in mind, that the Graduate School does not recognize a D as a passing grade for any graduate level course

Teaching Strategies

Students are expected to be “active learners.” It is a basic assumption of the instructor that students will be involved (beyond the materials and lectures presented in the course) discovering, processing, and applying the course information using peer-review journal articles, researching additional information and examples on the Internet, and discussing course material and clinical experiences with their peers.

Assignment and Activity Descriptions

Please note: Rubrics for all assignments and activities are located at the end of this syllabus.

Ethical Responsibilities to the Broader Society Assignment

The textbook identifies four areas related to a social worker’s ethical responsibility to the broader society (Kirst-Ashman Chapter 2). For this assignment, please select one of the areas and discuss how you plan to fulfill your ethical responsibility. Please connect the selected area to the core values of social work and include the NASW Code of Ethics in your discussion. This paper should be between 5-7 pages in length (not including your title and reference pages). You need to follow APA when writing this paper as well. At least 5 peer reviewed journal articles are necessary for assignment submission. Lack of doing so will cost 20 points of the total grade.

Ethical Responsibilities to the Broader Society Assignment Outline

- I. Introduction
- II. Identify and discuss one of the 4 ethical responsibilities to the broader society
 - a. Discuss the rationale for your selection (why is this particularly important to you).
 - b. Outline how you plan to fulfill this ethical responsibility
- III. Integration
 - a. Connect your selection to the core competencies (identify 3 competencies in your discussion)

- b. Connect your selection to the NASW Code of Ethics (discuss the other 3 ethical responsibilities to the broader society as well)
- c. Discuss the importance of ethics in social work practice
- d. IV. Conclusion

Presentations

40%

Students will be assigned a macro level case study/vignette by the end of Week 1 of class. Each student will create a presentation digital poster related to their vignette. Students will formulate a macro level plan to assist the clients in the case study.

Things to address on poster:

Page 1

- Community
- Organization
- Theory related to proposed change suggestion
- Groups
- Social, Economic and Political Forces
- Social Institutions

Page 2: References

Students will be asked to support their presentations using information from the textbooks, as well as to locate and use scholarly resources (e.g., peer reviewed journal articles (Minimum of 5), books, demographic research, creditable internet sources, and so forth). Students are expected to engage in research without regard to their own personal beliefs about the topic.

Empowerment of At-Risk Population

40%

Select a population at risk in the macro environment from Kirst-Ashman chapter 12 and discuss why this population is at risk. Discuss how you would work with this group to empower them in a specific area at the macro level (work place, discrimination, etc.). Review the literature on the at-risk population and provide demographic information about the selected population. Your literature review should also include evidence-based practices that can assist you with the population. This paper should be 5-7 pages not including the title and reference pages. You are required to use at least 5 peer reviewed and credible references. Lack of doing so will cost 20 points of the total grade.

Empowerment of At-Risk Population Outline

- I. Introduction
- II. At-Risk Population/ Literature Review
 - a. Provide local, state, and national demographics for the at-risk population selected.
 - b. Discuss rationale for the selection of this population
 - c. Discuss stereotypes, myths, and misconceptions related to this population
 - d. Discuss evidence-based practices that can assist with this population
- III. Macro Level Issues
 - a. Identify 2 policy issues impacting this population (can be local, state, or federal)
 - b. Discuss at least 2 diversity issues impacting this population (incarceration percentages, workplace, discrimination, oppression, equal rights, etc.)
- IV. Empowerment Plan
 - a. Discuss how you would work with this group to empower them
 - b. How would you engage this group?
 - c. Outline how you would go about empowering this group
 - i. Who would be a part of your action system and why?
 - ii. How would you keep this population motivated?
 - iii. How would you know the population was empowered?
 - d. Connect the NASW Code of Ethics to how you would work to empower this population. Include a discussion of the core values of the social work profession and how you would incorporate the core competencies.
- V. Conclusion

Assignment Submission

All assignments MUST be submitted through the Assignments link in the Blackboard site. This is for grading, documenting, and archiving purposes. Issues with technology use arise from time to time. If a technology issue does occur regarding an assignment submission, email me at chelsea.kading@angelo.edu and attach a copy of what you are trying to submit. Please contact the IT Service Center at (325) 942-2911 or go to your Technology Support tab to report the issue. This lets your faculty know you completed the assignment on time and are just having problems with the online submission feature in Blackboard. Once the problem is resolved, submit your assignment through the appropriate link. This process will document the problem and establish a timeline. Be sure to keep a backup of all work.

Late Work or Missed Assignments Policy

POLICY ON LATE OR MISSED ASSIGNMENTS

The course is set up on weekly modules. The week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday. Assignment due dates are shown on the calendar/schedule or posted within Blackboard. I will accept no papers or assignments late.

General Policies Related to This Course

All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook¹
- Angelo State University Catalog²

Student Responsibility and Attendance

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from ASU.

The College of Health and Human Services adheres to the university's Statement of Academic Integrity³.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.

Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu. For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website.⁴ The employee charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is:

Dallas Swafford
Director of Student Disability Services
Office of Student Affairs 325-942-2047
dallas.swafford@angelo.edu
Houston Harte University Center, Room 112

Incomplete Grade Policy

It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11 Grading Procedures⁵ for more information.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU's Academic Integrity policy⁶ in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.⁷

Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day⁸ for more information.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Syllabus Changes

The faculty member reserves the option to make changes as necessary to this syllabus and the course content. If changes become necessary during this course, the faculty will notify students of such changes by email, course announcements and/or via a discussion board announcement. It is the student's responsibility to look for such communications about the course on a daily basis.

Title IX at Angelo State University

Student Evaluation of Faculty and Course

Students in all programs are given the opportunity to evaluate their courses and the faculty who teach them. Evaluations are most helpful when they are honest, fair, constructive, and pertinent to the class, clinical experience, or course. Faculty value student evaluations, and use student suggestions in making modifications in courses, labs and clinical experiences. Angelo State University uses the IDEA (Individual Development and Educational Assessment) system administered through Kansas State University for all course evaluations. The Office of Institutional Research and Assessment administers IDEA for the entire university, online and has established a policy whereby students can complete course evaluations free from coercion.
