Note: All assignments submitted in this course are to be written in strict accordance with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed.). If you do not already own the Publication Manual, this is a required text.

Technology Requirements

You will need access to Blackboard, Angelo State University's learning platform. If you have any technical problems associated with the test (i.e. webcam problems, lock down browser problems) you should contact the IT Department. The IT Service Department is open M-F from 8-5 and the number is (325) 942-2911. If you call any time after 5:00 p.m. or on the weekend, you may not receive assistance until the following weekday, so please plan accordingly.

To successfully complete this course, students must have access to the following devices, software, and services:

- A computer capable of running Windows (7 or later), or Mac OSX (10.8 or later)
- The latest version of Microsoft Edge, Mozilla Firefox, or Mac Safari web browsers
- Microsoft Office Suite (or a compatible Open Office Suite)
- Adobe Acrobat Reader (or similar PDF reader)
- High Speed Internet access and an Ethernet adapter cable required (wireless connections can drop during tests and Collaborate sessions)
- Webcam with microphone
- Respondus Monitor and LockDown Browser software (available for download from the Technology Support tab in Blackboard)

Topic Outline

See weekly module themes at the end of the syllabus in the tentative schedule and in the weekly modules of the course's accompanying Blackboard webpages.

Communication

All communication (email or phone) typically receives a response within 24 hours at the latest. Messages sent on weekends and evenings may receive a longer wait for responses than during morning or afternoon hours during the week.

Ask questions and participate in all opportunities for course discussion. Learning and understanding course material is dependent upon your synthesis of the material with your existing knowledge base. Active learning improves student outcomes as demonstrated by a well-established evidence base. Utilize office hours if you have questions or concerns about the material or any other matter that is course related. I am an important resource to help facilitate your learning, but I can only help when I know that you have questions or concerns. If my office hours are not convenient, I am happy to make an appointment to speak in-person, via phone, or through Blackboard Collaborate at a more convenient time.

All course-related communication must be conducted in a civil, polite, professional manner. This encompasses all email, Flipgrid, or WebEx communication. Individuals who violate this guideline will receive one (1) warning. Further violations will result in a failing grade for the course and possible expulsion from the MSW program [based on the severity and circumstances of the incident(s)].

Grading

Evaluation and Grades

Course grades will be determined as indicated in the table below.

Course Assignments	Percentage of Total Grade
Chapter Presentation	15%
Group Practice Paper	20%
Organization Practice Paper	30%
Community Practice Paper	35%
Total	100%

Grading System

Course grades will be dependent upon completing course requirements and meeting the student learning outcomes.

The following grading scale is in use for this course:

A = 90 to 100 B = 80 to 89 C = 70 to 79 D = 60 to 69
F = 59 and below

Teaching Strategies

Students are expected to be “active learners.” It is a basic assumption of the instructor that students will be involved (beyond the materials and lectures presented in the course) discovering, processing, and applying the course information using peer-review journal articles, researching additional information and examples on the Internet, and discussing course material and clinical experiences with their peers.

Assignment and Activity Descriptions

Chapter Presentation

15%

Students will be assigned one chapter to create a presentation for and deliver to class in during the semester. Students will prepare a PowerPoint presentation which includes the information from the chapter AND any additional information they feel pertains to the topic and helps the class to understand the assigned material. Finally, students should be prepared to teach the information and address any questions the class may have. Details for the presentation and a rubric for grading the presentation can be found on the Blackboard course site.

Group Practice Paper

Students will apply advanced knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to group practice. Students will write a paper discussing how to engage the group, how to assess any unmet needs of the group, select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, values, and preferences of the group in order to address the needs and then select and suggest appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes of the proposed intervention. Student MUST use a minimum of 5 peer reviewed journal articles in addition to any other resources utilized. Details for the paper and a rubric for grading the paper can be found on the Blackboard course site.

Organizational Practice Paper

Students will apply advanced knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to organizational practice. Students will discuss how to engage the organization/agency, how to assess any unmet needs of the organization, select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, values, and preferences of the organization in order to address the needs and then select and use appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes of proposed intervention(s). Students MUST use a minimum of 7 peer-reviewed journal articles in addition to any other resources utilized. Details for the paper and rubric for grading the paper can be found on the Blackboard course site.

Community Practice Paper

Students will apply advanced knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with and assess an identified community issue. Students will discuss how to engage with stakeholders and key individuals within the community, how to assess any unmet needs of the community, select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, values, and preferences of the community in order to address the needs and then select and use appropriate methods for evaluation of outcomes for the proposed intervention. Students MUST use a minimum of 10 peer-reviewed journal articles in addition to any other resources utilized. Details for the paper and rubric for grading the paper can be found on the Blackboard course site.

Assignment Submission

All assignments MUST be submitted through the Assignments link in the Blackboard site. This is for grading, documenting, and archiving purposes. Issues with technology use arise from time to time.

If a technology issue does occur regarding an assignment submission, email me at my ASU email address (christopher.shar@angelo.edu) and attach a copy of what you are trying to submit. You must also contact the IT Service Center at (325) 942-2911 or go to your Technology Support tab in Blackboard to report the issue. This lets faculty know you completed the assignment on time and are just having problems with the online submission feature in Blackboard. If you do not contact the IT Service Center and receive an email that acknowledges the receipt of your report, your submission will not be accepted. Once the problem is resolved, submit your assignment through the appropriate link. This process will document the problem and establish a timeline. Be sure to keep a backup of all work.

Note: All assignments, including the outline for the policy presentation, must be written in strict accordance with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed.).

Late Work or Missed Assignments Policy

Late assignments are not accepted. Accommodations may be made on a case-by-case basis, but only for extreme circumstances of University-approved or instructor-approved absences.

General Policies Related to This Course

All students are required to follow the policies and procedures presented in these documents:

- Angelo State University Student Handbook (<https://www.angelo.edu/student-handbook/>)
- Angelo State University Catalog (<https://www.angelo.edu/academics/catalog/>)

Student Responsibility and Attendance

This section of SWK 3357: Social Work Research Methods II is taught entirely online. It is especially important for each student to be self-motivated and engaged to understand and be able to apply the concepts and procedures featured in this course. There are readings which you will have to complete to be able to adequately participate. In order to complete this course successfully, you must complete all course activities. Students are expected to engage in course assignments and submit work on or before the assignment's deadline. Generally, you should expect to spend a minimum of three to six hours of studying the assigned readings, completing course assignments, and consuming other course-related material each week.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Angelo State University is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA) and subsequent legislation.

Student Disability Services is located in the Office of Student Affairs, and is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability. It is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by contacting an employee of the Office of Student Affairs, in the Houston Harte University Center, Room 112, or contacting the department via email at ADA@angelo.edu. For more information about the application process and requirements, visit the Student Disability Services website. The employee responsible for reviewing and authorizing accommodation requests is Ms. Dallas Swafford, Director of Student Disability Services. Her office phone number is (325) 942-2047 and her University email address is dallas.swafford@angelo.edu.

Title IX

Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. In accordance with Title VII, Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE), and other federal and state laws, the University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence or dating violence), sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex.

You are encouraged to report any incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Michelle Miller, J.D. You may submit reports to Ms. Miller through the following methods:

- Online – www.angelo.edu/incident-form
- Face-to-Face – Mayer Administration Building, Room 210
- Phone – (325) 942-2022
- Email – michelle.miller@angelo.edu

Note, as a faculty member at Angelo State, I am a mandatory reporter and must report incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. Should you wish to speak to someone in confidence about an issue, you may contact the University Counseling Center (325-942-2371), the 24-Hour Crisis Helpline (325-486-6345), or the University Health Clinic (325-942-2171). For more information about resources related to sexual misconduct, Title IX, or Angelo State University's policy, please visit ASU's Title IX webpage.

Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Days

A student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. See ASU Operating Policy 10.19: Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day for more information.

Incomplete Grade Policy

It is policy that incomplete grades be reserved for student illness or personal misfortune. Please contact faculty if you have serious illness or a personal misfortune that would keep you from completing course work. Documentation may be required. See ASU Operating Policy 10.11: Grading Procedures for more information.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in all work. Any student found guilty of any form of dishonesty in academic work is subject of disciplinary action and possible expulsion from Angelo State University. The Archer College of Health and Human Services adheres to the Statement of Academic Integrity.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU's Academic Integrity Policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft. In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list. Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Please consult the ASU Writing Center's Academic Honesty resources for more information.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Syllabus Changes

The faculty member reserves the option to make changes as necessary to this syllabus and the course content. If changes become necessary during this course, the faculty will notify students of such changes by email, course announcements and/or via a discussion board announcement. It is the student's responsibility to look for such communications about the course on a daily basis.

Student Evaluation of Faculty and Course

Students in all programs are given the opportunity to evaluate their courses and the faculty who teach them. Evaluations are most helpful when they are honest, fair, constructive, and pertinent to the class, clinical experience, or course. Faculty value student evaluations, and use student suggestions in making modifications in courses, labs and clinical experiences. Angelo State University uses the Individual Development and Educational Assessment (IDEA) system administered through Kansas State University for all course evaluations. The Office of Institutional Research and Assessment administers IDEA for the entire university, online and has established a policy whereby students can complete course evaluations free from coercion.

Grading Rubrics

All grading rubrics are included on the Blackboard course pages.
