Course Objectives

The essential objectives of this course are for the student (1) to acquire factual knowledge, (2) to learn financial principles and theories, and (3) to acquire professional skills and international views. Topics may include study of underlying forces in international financial relations and the unique problems of international trade, the nature or behavior of foreign exchange rates and managing the impacts of exchange rates on short-term and long-term international business activities, foreign direct investments decisions, and international capital budgeting. Other topics covered include international banking, the balance of payments, and the Asian financial crisis.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify and differentiate theories related to why MNCs pursue international business, including theory of comparative advantage, imperfect markets theory, and product cycle theory.
2. Critique the performance of U.S. parent companies' stocks and compare it to that of S&P 500. Make investment recommendations.
3. Define theories related to interest rate parity and purchasing power parity.
4. Compare and contrast U.S. and international differences in social, cultural, political, and legal areas within the finance sector.

5. Describe, discuss, and explain how international investments can provide diversifications that benefit financial decisions.

Assessment Methods:

SLO 1 is assessed through multiple-choice exam questions.

SLO 2 is assessed through group project and presentations.

SLO 3 is assessed through multiple-choice exam questions.

SLO 4 is assessed through group project and presentations.

SLO 5 is assessed through quiz essay question.

The Hewlett-Packard 10B-II (HP 10B-II), or Hewlett-Packard 10-BII (HP 10B-II Plus) calculator is strongly recommended. All examples shown on notes will use this calculator. If you choose to use another, it is your responsibility to learn to use it.

Grading Policies

This course employs the following to measure student learning. Grades may consist of exams, assignments, and attendances. Specific due dates for each will be announced in a timely manner on blackboard. Students are responsible for being aware of the information.

Course grades will be based on a weighted composite of the following (Please be aware that the instructor reserves the right to change the weights of each grading component):

Exam I:	20%
Exam II:	20%
Final Exam:	20%
Others (Assignments, attendances):	40%

Your grade will be assigned to the following achievements. The instructor reserves the right to change the cutoffs presented below.

Letter Grade	%
A	90% and above
B	80% - 89.99%
C	70% - 79.99%
D	60% - 69.99%
F	Below 60%

Exam Make-up Policy

Please keep in mind that being prepared and taking the tests during the allocated times is your responsibility. I will announce the date of the exams at least one week ahead. Missing a scheduled test without approval will result in a zero for that test.

If you cannot be present at an exam, you must discuss your situation with the instructor before the scheduled exam date to determine if a make-up will be permitted.

Make-up exam might be different and more difficult.

WEBCAM AND LOCKDOWN BROWSER ARE REQUIRED FOR EXAMS.

Graded Assignments ("Homework")

I will announce on blackboard the due date of each assignment. Late submissions will not be accepted for any reason. Please do not ask if you can submit these assignments late. I will return the graded assignments to you in a timely manner.

Course Policies

1. Class Participation:

Students are required to log into this course via blackboard on a weekly basis. Your weekly logging activities will be considered as part of your grade and the total credits are 15 points.

2. Communication with Your Instructor and Fellow Students

You may communicate with me by phone, during virtual office hours, announcements on blackboard, or by ASU email. I check my ASU email very often during the day, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. I will make announcements on blackboard when there is any update of the course (new materials, new HWs, quizzes, exams, etc). I will respond to your e-mails within 24 to 48 hours during business day. Emails sent on Saturday or Sunday will receive a reply by Monday or Tuesday. If you call and I do not answer, please send an email or leave a message on the voicemail. Please make your message short and leave your phone number and a good time to return your call. The best way to reach me is via email.

You should also check your ASU email account and blackboard on a regular basis for communications and announcements about your class.

2. Policy on Server Unavailability or Other Technical Difficulties:

Angelo State University is committed to providing a reliable online course delivery system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected blackboard server outage or any ASU or MyEconLab technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive activity, I will extend the due date and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. The accommodations will be made as soon as the ASU IT Department or MyEconLab confirms that there was such a problem. Students should report any problems to the professor through their ASU email account and also email www.elearning@angelo.edu.

Note that this does not apply to individual technical problems that you may encounter on your personal computer. It is the responsibility of the student to work with a reliable computer and Internet connection and plan ahead.

Email manners: Please include subject, titles or name of the person you are writing to, content, and your names. Usually I will respond within two business days. I will not respond to emails that do not meet the requirements.

Course Revision: Any revisions to this syllabus will be announced on blackboard and supersede this syllabus. Students are responsible for being aware of these changes.

ASU Course Policies

Academic Honesty and Integrity

Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding and complying with the university Academic Honor Code, which is in both print and web versions of the ASU Student Handbook.

Academic integrity is expected. This includes, but is not limited to, any form of cheating, plagiarism, unauthorized sharing of work, or unauthorized possession of course materials. The professor assumes that all students can be trusted. Please do not violate this trust. Violation of academic integrity will result in a failing grade for the course.

It is the professor's intention to be as fair and impartial as is humanly possible. Therefore, all students will be asked to adhere to the same set of guidelines and rules UNLESS there are disabilities or documented extenuating circumstances that have been discussed with the professor and the Student Life Office. Please make sure you inform the professor as soon as any situation arises. Do NOT wait until the problem is compounded by poor class performance, poor attendance, etc.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a serious topic covered in ASU's Academic Integrity policy in the Student Handbook. Plagiarism is the action or practice of taking someone else's work, idea, etc., and passing it off as one's own. Plagiarism is literary theft.

In your discussions and/or your papers, it is unacceptable to copy word-for-word without quotation marks and the source of the quotation. It is expected that you will summarize or paraphrase ideas giving appropriate credit to the source both in the body of your paper and the reference list.

Papers are subject to be evaluated for originality via Turnitin. Resources to help you understand this policy better are available at the ASU Writing Center.

Copyright Policy

Students officially enrolled in this course should make only one printed copy of the given articles and/or chapters. You are expressly prohibited from distributing or reproducing any portion of course readings in printed or electronic form without written permission from the copyright holders or publishers.

Code of Ethics

Students, faculty, administrators and professional staff of the Norris-Vincent College of Business should always:

- Be forthright and truthful in dealings with all stakeholders
- Take responsibility for one's actions and decisions
- Serve as an example of ethical decision-making and behavior to others
- Admit errors when they occur, without trying to conceal them
- Respect the basic dignity of others by treating them as one would wish to be treated

Courtesy and Respect

Courtesy and respect are essential ingredients to this course. We respect each other's opinions and respect others points of view at all times while in our class sessions. The use of profanity and harassment of any form is strictly prohibited (Zero Tolerance), as are those remarks concerning one's ethnicity, life style, religion, etc., violations of these rules will result in appropriate disciplinary actions.

Accommodations for Disability

ASU is committed to the principle that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs or activities of the university, or be subjected to discrimination by the university, as provided by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments of 2008 (ADAAA), and subsequent legislation.

Student Affairs is the designated campus department charged with the responsibility of reviewing and authorizing requests for reasonable accommodations based on a disability, and it is the student's responsibility to initiate such a request by emailing studentservices@angelo.edu, or by contacting:

Mrs. Dallas Swafford
Director of Student Development
Office of Student Affairs
University Center, Suite 112
325-942-2047 Office
325-942-2211 FAX

Title IX

Angelo State University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. In accordance with Title VII, Title IX, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), the Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act (SaVE), and other federal and state laws, the University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence (domestic violence or dating violence), sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex.

You are encouraged to report any incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Office of Title IX Compliance and the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator, Michelle Boone, J.D. You may submit reports in the following manner:

Online: www.angelo.edu/incident-form

Face to Face: Mayer Administration Building, Room 210

Phone: 325-942-2022

Email: michelle.boone@angelo.edu

Note, as a faculty member at Angelo State, I am a mandatory reporter and must report incidents involving sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. Should you wish to speak to someone in confidence about an issue, you may contact the University Counseling Center (325-942-2371), the 24-Hour Crisis Helpline (325-486-6345), or the University Health Clinic (325-942-2171).

For more information about resources related to sexual misconduct, Title IX, or Angelo State's policy please visit: www.angelo.edu/title-ix.

Student absence for religious holidays

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.19 Student Absence for Observance of Religious Holy Day), a student who intends to miss class to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known in writing to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Course Drop

To view information about how to drop this course or to calculate important dates relevant to dropping this course, you can visit http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrar_office/course_drop_provisions.php.

Incomplete as a Course grade

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedure (OP 10.11 Grading Procedures), the grade "I" is given when the student is unable to complete the course because of illness or personal misfortune. For undergraduates, an "I" that is not removed before the end of the next long semester automatically becomes an "F". A graduate student will be allowed one year to remove a grade of "I" before it automatically becomes an "F". To graduate from ASU, a student must complete all "I's".

Grade Appeal Process

As stated in the Angelo State University Operating Policy and Procedures (OP 10.03 Student Grade Grievances), a student who believes that he or she has not been held to appropriate academic standards as outlined in the class syllabus, has experienced inequitable evaluation procedures, or inappropriate grading practices, may appeal the final grade given in the course. The burden of proof is upon the student to demonstrate the appropriateness of the appeal. A student with a complaint about a grade is encouraged to first discuss the matter with the instructor. For complete details, including the responsibilities of the parties involved in the grade appeal process and the number of days allowed for completing the steps in the process, see Operating Procedure 10.03 at: <http://www.angelo.edu/content/files/14196-op-1003-grade-grievance>.
