 - b. Where are you from
 - c. What do you want to be and why
2. Discussing the Schwartz article and what stood out to you about it and how you will use that information to do the rest of the class.

Exams

Exams are worth 30% of your grade. If it is in the slides, articles, book and/or lectures you can expect to be on the test. The more we discuss and idea is positively correlated with the probability that it will be on the test. Tests will be on Blackboard using Respondus Lockdown Browser.

Meeting With Dr. D

You will meet (thru zoom) with the professor once in the Maymester.

My Strengths Video

10% of your grade. You will take a free strengths finder test that I will give the link to. Using FlipGrid you will record a video describing your top 5 strengths and what they mean for your leadership style. Anything under 9:50 will be graded at a 0.

Readings & Responses

40% of your grade. 10 total. You will read/watch the article, video and or powerpoint slides then respond through FlipGrid (it will be noted on the assignment). Anything under 9:50 will be graded at a 0.

Leadership Philosophy Video

10% of your grade. Using what you have learned in the course you will summarize who you are as a leader and how your ethics are governed. Anything under 9:50 will be graded at a 0.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- A. All assignments are due on the due date. Students not turning in an assignment will be recorded as a grade of zero (0).
- B. Prior arrangements must be made with the instructor if an absence from an exam is unavoidable and is university excused.
- C. The student is responsible for all work and is encouraged to have a contact within the class. Students are encouraged to set up an appointment to meet with the instructor for additional information as needed.
- D. Students with Disabilities:
Persons with disabilities which may warrant academic accommodations must contact the Student Life Office, Room 112 University Center, in order to request such accommodations prior to any accommodations being implemented. You are encouraged to make this request early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Students with disabilities who request reasonable accommodations must meet with the Course Coordinator within the first week of classes. Reasonable accommodations will be provided as authorized by the Office of Student Life as long as course requirements are not compromised. Faculty will provide no accommodations without authorization from the Office of Student Life. It is the student's responsibility to be a self-advocate when requesting accommodations.

- E. Rams & Rambelles do not lie, steal or cheat or tolerate those who do.
“Angelo State University expects its students to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic pursuits. Students are responsible for understanding the Student Handbook.”
