

Aaron M. Moyer

Augusta, GA 30907
910-224-5383
aaron.m.moyer1@gmail.com

PROFILE

An experienced and versatile educator who is passionate about the future of intelligence and information warfare in higher education. Expert communicator with years of experience presenting executive intelligence updates to General Officers, Ambassadors, and members of Congress. Adept at creating intelligence analyst education and training curriculum tailored to job requirements. Career is supported by a Master of Science and Technology Intelligence, an active TS/SCI, and a USCYBERCOM certification as a Cyber Mission Force Master All Source Analyst.

EDUCATION

Master of Science	National Intelligence University Science & Technology Intelligence Dual Concentration – Influence Operations and Cyber Intelligence / Data Analytics summa cum laude	July 2020
Bachelor of Arts	American Military University International Relations, summa cum laude	May 2018
Associate of Applied Science	Cochise Community College Intelligence Operations, high honors	May 2013

EXPERIENCES

August 2020 – Present: GA.	Senior Intelligence Analyst / Editor / Instructor, U.S. Army Cyber Command, Fort Gordon,
June 2021 – Present:	Guest Lecturer, National Intelligence University, Bethesda, MD.
July 2019 – August 2020:	Graduate Student, National Intelligence University, Bethesda, MD.
June 2015 – July 2019:	Senior Intelligence Analyst / Editor / Instructor, 1 st Special Forces Command, Fort Bragg, NC.
January 2013 – June 2015:	Senior Intelligence Analyst / Multinational Liaison / Instructor, 1 st Armored Division G2, Fort Bliss, TX; CENTCOM FWD-Jordan, Amman, Jordan.
June 2003 – January 2013:	Multiple duty assignments in Military Intelligence including Senior Middle East Analyst, Chief Intelligence Sergeant, Tactical Intelligence Instructor

TEACHING EXPERIENCES

August 2020 – Present:	Curriculum Developer, Lecturer, and Instructor, U.S. Army Cyber Command, Fort Gordon, GA. Developed Intelligence Support to Information and Influence Operations training program to prepare intelligence professionals for operating in social media, Open Source Intelligence, and the information environment. Guest-lectured for National Intelligence University's Cyber Threat, Collections Management, Propaganda & Persuasion, and Cyber Intelligence courses on the subjects of information warfare, cyberwarfare, cyber threat analysis, defensive and offensive cyber operations. Instructed over 200 hours of training and lecturing to intelligence community graduate students. Areas of instruction: Cyber Threat Analysis, Information Warfare, Social Media Analytics, Propaganda, Cybersecurity Fundamentals, and Strategic Communications.
June 2015 – July 2019:	Curriculum Developer and Instructor, 1 st Special Forces Command, Fort Bragg, NC. Created intelligence professional onboarding training and education program designed to prepare intelligence professionals for unique special operations mission and intelligence requirements. Crafted curriculum, syllabi, and evaluation criteria for intelligence analyst onboarding program – creating an education program covering 21 unique courses and hundreds of hours of education. Instructed over 350 hours of training and education to junior analysts. Areas of instruction: Executive Communication, Analytical Tradecraft, Sourcing and Research Methodologies, Security Studies, Sensitive Activities, National Security Decision Making, Intelligence Community Roles and Responsibilities, and Written Communication

- June 2015 – November 2018 Executive Educator, 1st Special Forces Command, Fort Bragg, NC. Delivered tailored instruction on Middle East dynamics, the Islamic State, and policy considerations to prepare General Officers for role as Commanding General of Special Operations Joint Task Force. Areas of instruction: Middle East History, Terrorism Studies, Intelligence Community Roles and Responsibilities
- April 2014 – January 2015 Multinational Instructor, CENTCOM-Forward Jordan, Amman, Jordan. Developed and instructed English and Arabic curriculum to teach basic tenets of military intelligence used by the Jordanian Armed Forces to train new intelligence officers. Areas of instruction: Intelligence Analysis, Terrorism Studies

Teaching Interests

Intelligence Analysis, Advanced Analytical Tradecraft, Influence and Information Operations, Information Power, Propaganda, International Relations, Cyber Threat Intelligence, Written and Oral Communication, Intelligence Community Sourcing, Research Methodologies, National Security Decision Making Process

Publications

Moyer, Aaron M., "Steadfast and Patient: Islamic State Messaging Since the Fall of the Caliphate." National Intelligence University Thesis: 2020.

Moyer, Aaron M (Contributor), "Army Special Operations Intelligence: Capable and Ready." Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin 34-19-2 (2019) 45-2. https://fas.org/irp/agency/army/mipb/2019_02.pdf

Moyer, Aaron M (Contributor), "Data Analytics to Win in a Complex World." Military Intelligence Professional Bulletin 34-18-4 (2018) 44-4. https://fas.org/irp/agency/army/mipb/2018_04.pdf.