

1. Faculty Name

- a. Andrea Robledo, Ph.D.

2. Education

- a. Ph.D., Higher Education and Student Affairs, Indiana University, 2017
- b. M.A., Applied Anthropology, University of North Texas, 2007
- c. B.A., Psychology, Texas A&M University, 2000

3. Academic Experience

- a. Angelo State University, Director STEM HSI Success, 2018-present, full time
- b. Angelo State University, Academic Advisor & Outreach Coordinator, 2015-2017, full time
- c. Lumina Foundation, Graduate Assistantship, 2010-2013, part time
- d. Indiana University, Graduate Assistantship, Student Activities, 2007-2010, part time
- e. University of North Texas, Assistant Director Multicultural Center, 2003-2007, full time

4. Non-Academic Experience

- a. Lumina Foundation, Equity Consultant, 2015, contract
- b. Texas Valley Communities Foundation, Research Consultant, 2013, contract
- c. Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Fort Worth, Program Coordinator, mentoring and youth employment, 2001-2003, full time

5. Certifications or Professional Registrations

- a. None

6. Current Membership in Professional Organizations

- a. None

7. Honors and Awards

- a. President's Award for Staff Excellence in Innovation, Angelo State University, 2016
- b. Achasa Beechler Scholarship Award, Indiana University, 2013
- c. Robert H. Wade Fellowship, Indiana University, 2008
- d. William A. Luker Award for Student Involvement, University of North Texas, 2007

8. Service Activities

- a. Chair, DLH Department of Engineering, Escala Faculty Fellows Committee
- b. Guest Member, DLH Department of Engineering Assessment & Accreditation Committee
- c. Planning Committee Member, Consejos Collectivos: Improving STEM Success at HSIs, National Science Foundation funded conference

- d. Board Member, West Texas C.R.E.O. (Community Reinvesting in Educational Opportunities)
- e. Board Member, Immigrant Integration Project

9. Publications and Presentations

- a. Mejia, J.A., Wilson-Lopez, A., Robledo, A., Revelo, R.A. (2017). “Nepantleros and Nepantleras: How Latinx Adolescents Participate in Social Change in Engineering.” American Society of Engineering Education Annual Conference, Columbus, OH, June 20, 2017.

10. Professional Development Activities

- a. Attendee, Alliance of Hispanic Serving Institution Educators Annual Conference, March 25-28, 2018
- b. Attendee, Texas Association of Chicanos in Higher Education Annual Conference, February 28- March 3, 2018