

Dr. Randy D. Hicks
Angelo State University
Associate Professor of Criminal Justice
Email: Randy.Hicks@angelo.edu
Phone: 325-486-6716
Office: RAS 216

Education

Bakersfield College A.A. in Police Science	9/1962-6-1964
California State University at Fresno B.S. in Criminology	9/1964-6-1966
California State University at Fresno M.A. in Communication Theory – (For Law Enforcement)	1/1970-6/1971
University of Southern Mississippi Ph.D. – Criminal Justice Education	5/1979-8/1982

Publications

Effective Interpersonal Communication for Law Enforcement with Application to Patrol Investigation, Undercover Work and Street Survival. Nearing completion. Tentative publishing agreement. Charles C. Thomas Persuasion and Undercover Operations. Charles C. Thomas, 1973.

“Some Observations on Japanese and American Policing.” Journal of Police and Criminal Psychology, 1985.

“Interpersonal Communication Training for Law Enforcement”. Journal of Criminal Justice, 1983.

Teaching Experience

Associate Professor of Criminal Justice. Angelo State University. 1987 – Present

Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice. TAMU- Laredo. 1975-1987

Assistant Professor. St. Morton’s College. 1973-1975

Assistant Professor. Ft. Steilacoom Community College. 1972-1973

South Texas Border Police Academy. Laredo. Concho Valley Regional Police Academy. Continuing.

In Service Professional Work Experience

2 Years Uniformed Patrol. California and Oregon. 1965-1971

4 Years Undercover and Investigation. California State Special Agent. 1966-1970

Courses Taught

Interpersonal communications
Police Systems
Investigation
Criminal Law
Legal Aspects of LE
Police Problems

Crime in America
Constitutional Law
Criminology
Courts Systems & Practices
Patrol Administration

Special Note

Former Chairman of Law Enforcement Commissioner (TCLOSE) Committee for evaluation of entire peace office training in Texas.

In Service instructor – Street Survival
- Police Interpersonal Communication

Developed and Taught two Criminal Justice Programs Ph.D. work in Criminal Justice Curriculum Development and Teaching.