

Beth Green

Cooper High School, 3639 Sayles Blvd., Abilene, TX 79606

325-691-1000, Ext. 8762

beth.green@abileneisd.org

Education

Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA

M.S. in Veterinary Entomology

1989-1991

Thesis: "The Survival of Equine Infectious Anemia Virus in Biting Flies"

Louisiana Tech University, Ruston, LA

B.S. Zoology, Summa Cum Laude

1985-1989

Certifications

- Texas Educator's Certificate, Composite Science, grades 8-12
 - Texas Educator's Certificate, Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities, grades K-12
-

Honors and Activities

- Teacher of the Year, Baird High School, 2010
 - Teacher in the Limelight Teacher of the Year Finalist, Abilene ISD, 2013
 - LSU Board of Regents Graduate Fellowship, 1989-1991, $15,000/year plus tuition
 - F.J. Taylor Outstanding Freshman Woman Award, 1986
 - LA Tech University Presidential Scholarship, 1985-1989
-

Teaching and Professional Experience

Cooper High School, Abilene, TX

Science Teacher

AP Lead Science Teacher, Abilene ISD

2010-Present

Taught multiple science courses, including EOC review, on-level, pre-AP, and AP courses. As AP Lead Science Teacher, coordinated vertical team meetings and collaboration meetings for all pre-AP and AP science teachers in Abilene ISD, as well as review sessions for AP science students.

Baird High School, Baird, TX

Science Teacher/Junior Class Sponsor/UII Science Coach

2008-2010

Taught multiple science courses, coached UII Science Team, and coordinated organization of the Junior/Senior prom.

Cisco College, Abilene, TX

Adjunct Instructor – BIOL 1406 and BIOL 1407

2009-2010

Taught two sections of freshman Biology for majors (BIOL 1406 and BIOL 1407), one per semester. Designed units, provided instruction, and administered labs for Biology for majors.

Remington College, Springdale, AR

Adjunct Instructor – Medical Transcription

1995-1996

Taught one section of Medical Transcription, including the practice of medical transcription, medical terminology, and ethics of medical transcription.
