

Cory G. Robinson

EDUCATION:

Angelo State University, San Angelo, Texas

M. A., History

December 2007

Thesis: The Role and Significance of Acting Assistant Surgeon
S. L. S. Smith, U. S. A., In the Western Frontier, 1878-1881

Angelo State University, San Angelo, Texas

B. A., History

December 2000

EMPLOYMENT:

December 2015 to
Present

Fort Concho/City of San Angelo, San Angelo, TX

Curator of History

Acquisition, inventory, database management, collections care, responsible for maintaining accession records, responsible for collections care, conducts research and organizes collections-base exhibits and programs, create and implement exhibits, prepare objects for storage, cleaning and stabilizing of objects, conduct collections based inventories throughout the site, recruit and train collections volunteers, perform educational programs.

September 2006 to
December 2015

Fort Concho/City of San Angelo, San Angelo, TX

Visitor and Volunteer Services Manager

Maintained fort's website; organized all volunteer and visitor records; performed duties of retail manager at museum's gift shop; recruited, coordinated, and trained site volunteers; coordinated volunteers to help on both special events and general tours at the museum; coordinated site marketing, publicity, and outreach projects for youth and adults; worked with other staff on exhibits, temporary displays, and public programs; assisted in special events department; provided regular and special interpretive tours for patrons, groups, and organizations; promoted site through newspaper, television, and radio interviews; created ads to promote the fort and its annual events.

August 2010 to Present

Angelo State University

Adjunct/Lecturer of History

Basic duties included preparation of syllabus and course materials, delivery of lectures, grading, and assignment of grades; courses taught included general American History 1301 and 1302.

March 2005 to
September 2006

Tom Green County Library, San Angelo, TX

Library Aide/Shelver

Sort and shelve library materials according to classification; inspect for shelving errors and maintain shelves so books are accurately aligned; answer inquiries from patrons concerning books and research; assist with information and circulation departments as needed.

October 2004 to
September 2006

Fort Concho/City of San Angelo, San Angelo, TX

Interpreter/Retail Manager

Acted as retail manager of museum's sale shop; created and implemented special events; assisted in educational programs; provided interpretive tours for museum patrons and organizations; performed archival and preservation procedures for the museum's library and collections departments; prepared biographical and historical information; assisted with exhibit displays; coordinated volunteers for museum; created and maintained museum's website; promoted site through newspaper, television, and radio interviews.

January 2004 to
September 2004

Grape Creek ISD, Grape Creek, TX

Social Studies Teacher/Substitute Teacher

Began work as substitute teacher filling in as regular teachers were absent; taught Social Studies to students full-time and performed other duties as required.

September 2003 to
December 2003

Buffalo Gap Historic Village, Buffalo Gap, TX

Assistant Manager

Assisted in the general operations of the site and educational foundation; retail manager of site's museum store; provided information to museum patrons; performed education programs for community and public schools; organized and assisted in special educational events at site and other history related sites; performed duties as weekend manager; coordinated and organized staff duties and activities; supervised site enhancement projects.

INTERNSHIP:

2000

Fort Concho National Historic Landmark
San Angelo, Texas

HONORS:

Dean's List, Spring 1998; Fall 1998; Spring 1999

Phi Alpha Theta Honor Society in History

Carr Academic Scholarship

C. J. Davidson Scholarship
Tom Green County Historical Society Scholarship for History

INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES:

I have a great interest in American history of the mid to late 19th century with a strong concentration on the Texas military forts, as well as interests in early 20th century military and civilian life. I enjoy participating in living history events and educating people as a historical interpreter. I volunteer my time to present educational talks concerning various history topics to local schools and social organizations.