Education

B.A English, Angelo State University
Graduate Studies, Abilene Christian University
M.A. English, Angelo State University

I have over two decades of experience in teaching English, Theater Arts, and Speech Communications at various educational levels. During those years, I have assisted in creating, aligning, and developing curriculum; served as an instructional coach, and coached multiple academic UIL events with state and regional qualifiers. As a teacher, I am committed to fostering a dynamic and inclusive learning environment that promotes academic excellence and student engagement.
