

Kendall Harrison
 Adjunct Teacher of History
 Angelo State University

ACADEMIC EDUCATION:

Year Awarded	Institution – City, State	Degree/Major
August 2006	Texas Tech University Lubbock, TX	Master of Arts, Major: History Minor: Education
May 12, 2004	Abilene Christian University Abilene, TX	Bachelor of Arts, Major: History Minors: English, Education

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION:

Certified History teacher, grades 8-12
 Social Studies Composite Certification, grades 8-12

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Dates	Title	Institution – City, State
2006-Current (08/06-Current)	History Teacher	Abilene Wylie Independent School District Abilene, Texas
2008-2015	Adjunct/Dual Credit History Teacher	Cisco College Abilene, Texas
Fall 2010	Adjunct History Teacher	Abilene Christian University Abilene, Texas
Spring 2004	Student Teaching	Abilene High School 11 th Grade American History Abilene, Texas
Spring 2004	Student Teaching	Abilene High School 10 th World History Abilene, Texas

ACADEMIC PAPERS/PRESENTATIONS:

April 2006	Thesis Committee Presentation- “When Hell Freezes Over: Disabilities and the ADA” Disability history over the past 50-60 years and how the ADA has affected women, children, and the education system.
Nov. 2005	Paper Presented- “Disability Historiography.” Disability History, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas.
April 2005	Paper Presented- “Puritan Perspectives.” New England and Puritan History, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas.
Dec. 2004	Paper Presented- “African American Society During Reconstruction.” Civil War History, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas.
Dec. 2004	Paper Presented- “Ft. Griffin, Texas: The Wild Texas Frontier” Texas Tech University. Lubbock, Texas.