Children are a community’s greatest resource. All children can and want to learn at high levels. “Education has two functions: unify diverse populations of students to support our democratic ideals and prepare each student for the world they will enter.” 1918 Cardinal Principles for Secondary Ed