

Taylor Gruman

Glendale, AZ

P: 347-753-3299

E: Taylor.Gruman@gmail.com

Education and Training

Ph.D. History, 2022

University of Missouri - Columbia

M.A., History, 2014

Indiana University

B. A., Liberal Arts, 2006

Sarah Lawrence College

Dissertation Project

“In the Hands of Noble Men:” A Regional History of Thessaly from the Archaic Period to the End of the Third Sacred War

Research Interests

Interstate relations of ancient polities, ancient animal husbandry, ancient economies

Present Position

LearningMate

Subject Matter Expert

January 2022-Present

Designed and wrote lessons plans and assessments for online, asynchronous AP English Language Curriculum

Teaching Experience

Maryvale Prep High School

Glendale, AZ

August 2021-December 2022

Instructor of Record: English Language Arts and Economics

Madison Highland Prep High School

Phoenix, AZ

August 2020-June 2021

Instructor of Record: AP English Literature and AP English Language

Arizona State University, West Campus
Glendale, AZ

January 2020-May 2020

Instructor of Record: HIST 101 Global History since 1500 and HIST 413 American History Since 1945

University of Missouri-Columbia

Columbia, MO

2014-2019

Teaching Assistant: HST 1200 US History from 1865-Present

Conference Presentations

“Calculating the Carrying Capacity of the Krisaeian Plain”

Classical Association of the Middle West and South, 2019

“Motivated by Spite: Thessalian Betrayal at the Battle of Tanagra”

Missouri Valley History Conference, 2018

“The Roman Army Riot of 408 and the Execution of Flavius Stilicho”

Classical Association of the Middle West and South, 2016

"The Expansion of Interrogatory Torture in the Roman Judicial System from Cicero to the Corpus Juris Civilis"

Lane Occasional Papers, 2016

Service

Social Chair

University of Missouri History Graduate Student Association

2015-2017