Responsibility (charge):

The Hearing Panel will conduct disciplinary Panel Hearings. The Panel pool will consist of a trained pool of full-time faculty, full-time staff, and full-time students. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or the Director of Title IX Compliance will be responsible for assembling and training the hearing panel annually.

The Hearing Panel will consist of full-time faculty members, full-time staff members, and full-time students. This pool will be made up of three (3) full-time faculty and staff members from each division on campus along with three (3) full-time students and a pool of Administrative Hearing Officers.

The Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team consists of faculty and staff who have been recommended to the Office of Title IX Compliance by their Vice President or the President to serve on the team. Members of the team may serve as Investigators or Hearing Panel Members in cases related to Title IX or sexual misconduct.

Hearing Panel Composition:

For each Hearing, a Hearing Panel will consist of three (3) members chosen from the available pool by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, Director of Title IX Compliance, or designee. For a hearing involving charges of sexual misconduct or Title IX violations, the Director of Title IX Compliance will appoint three (3) members of the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team who did not serve as an investigator in the case. For all other student conduct hearings, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint three (3) members chosen from the available pool. Typically, a non-sexual misconduct or Title IX Hearing Panel will be comprised of one student, one faculty member, and one staff member. The Hearing Panel composition may include only professional faculty and/or staff members in cases involving sensitive issue. Availability may determine a different composition for the Panel.

Appointment:

Appointments will be made as follows:

- a) The President of the Student Government Association is invited to make recommendations for full-time student Panel members. Upon recommendation and review, three (3) full time student members will be appointed by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee. To be eligible for appointment, students must be considered full-time students, be in good academic and disciplinary standing, and have completed at least 15 hours of academic credit with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0.
- b) The Vice President of each division (Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, Academic Affairs, and Finance and Administration) and the President are invited to make recommendations for full-time faculty and/or staff for the Hearing Panel members and members of the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team. Upon recommendation and review, three (3) full-time faculty and/or full-time staff members from each division will be appointed by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, Director of Title IX Compliance or designee.

The Director of Title IX Compliance or the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee may appoint additional members to the Hearing Panel to expedite the orderly disposition of cases and/or to aid in the administration of the conduct process within the University. The additional members of the Hearing Panel will complete the same training, have the same composition of membership, the same duties, and the same authority as the original Hearing Panel member(s).

Terms of Office:

Each member will be appointed for a single one-year term. Panel members may be re-appointed for consecutive one-year terms but must complete the Hearing Panel training annually.

Resource Person:

The Executive Director of Student Affairs, Director of Title IX Compliance or designee will appoint a Resource Person. The Resource Person is to serve as a non-voting member of the Hearing Panel and assures that University procedures are followed throughout each Panel hearing. The Resource Person is responsible for composing the Panel's decision, rationale, and appropriate sanctions.

Members are notified by:

The Senior Executive Assistant to the President and General Counsel

Responsibility (charge):

The Tenure Advisory Committee may consider matters pertaining to tenure or academic freedom referred to it by members of the university community. Additionally, the Tenure Advisory Committee is responsible for appointing the faculty committee from within or outside its own membership and for its functioning in those cases of non reappointment and termination for cause when an untenured tenure-track faculty member alleges that a decision not to reappoint him or her is based on improper rationale as identified in OP 06.23. The committee will determine its own procedural rules.

In all cases, the committee functions as a recommending body to the president. The president's decision is final in cases involving non-reappointment or termination for cause of untenured tenure-track faculty.

Appointment:

The committee consists of five tenured faculty and two ex-officio member, who are the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and the dean selected by the Deans' Council. Each undergraduate college will elect one member. Each dean's office will prepare and distribute ballots to the faculty of the respective college. Only tenured faculty teaching full time are eligible for election.

Term of office:

Elected members serve two-year terms. Elected faculty members will not be eligible to serve consecutive terms. The Deans' Council member will serve for three years but will not be eligible to serve consecutive terms.

Chairperson:

Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
