General Purpose
A University, like any community, must have regulations and/or standards by which its members abide and procedures by which its organization functions. The standards should provide order and an atmosphere conducive to intellectual and personal development. This Student Handbook and the Code of Student Conduct contained within are intended to serve these purposes in the interest of all segments of Angelo State University. Angelo State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters, and doctorate degrees. Contact the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Angelo State University.

The University has a responsibility to maintain order within the University community and to discipline those who violate its standards, rules, and/or policies. Enrollment requires students to share this responsibility. Students are responsible for knowing the information, policies and procedures outlined in this document. Students agree to abide by the standards, rules and/or policies set forth in this Student Handbook, the Undergraduate Catalog and other official University publications, as well as the Texas Education Code. Student organizations also agree to follow these standards, rules, and/or policies. The University or its representative may amend this document at any time without notice.

The University reserves the right to make changes to this code as necessary and once those changes are posted online, they are in effect. Students are encouraged to check online for the updated versions of all policies and procedures. Students are also informed of changes to the Code of Student Conduct by electronic notification outlets and/or official campus publications. The Student Handbook was approved by the Board of Regents on August 10, 2018 to be effective Monday, August 13, 2018.

Membership in the Angelo State University Community
As members of the academic community, University students enjoy the privileges and share the obligations of the larger community of which the University is a part. Students are entitled to the privileges which accrue to them by virtue of this membership. These privileges carry with them the obligations of responsible citizenship. Students shall conform to University regulations. Students should recognize that citizenship also includes contributing deliberately to strengthening the educational community, improving learning for themselves and their classmates and promoting excellence within the above context. Freedom of discussion, inquiry, and expression is protected and nurtured in the classroom as the safeguard of the freedom to learn. Students are expected to exercise their freedom to learn in a manner consistent with the maintenance of good order. Responsibility for maintaining good order in the classroom is vested in the instructor. The Code of Student Conduct outlines the standards of behavior for University students and the disciplinary processes to address misconduct.
Mission, Vision and Values

Mission

Angelo State University provides highly competitive graduates to the global marketplace by delivering quality programs in a values-focused and student-centered teaching and learning environment.

Vision

By the end of this decade, ASU will be known as an innovative leader in driving educational, cultural, and economic initiatives to meet the needs, face the challenges, and grasp the opportunities for our region, state, and the global community.

Values

• Integrity | Integridad
• Diversity & Inclusion | Diversidad & Inclusión
• Significance | Impacto
• Community | Comunidad
• Commitment | Compromiso

Each member of the Ram Family is part of our journey as we continue to build a values-based culture at Angelo State. NOTE: The Angelo State University Mission, Vision and Core Values will be added once they are approved by the Texas Tech University Board of Regents in the August 11, 2022 meeting.
PART I: CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

SECTION A: MISSION AND POLICIES FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT AND THE OFFICE OF TITLE IX COMPLIANCE

As a values-based community, Angelo State University believes our core values of Integrity, Diversity & Inclusion, Significance, Commitment, and Community are the success to achieving our vision and mission. The Ram Fam experience is founded on these values, and for our Rams and Rambelles to be successful at ASU, we embrace and promote the core values as a symbol of membership in our community. The quality of our Ram Fam experience, personal development, and a thriving campus community depend on our students’ responsibility to uphold these values. The five values help to guide and inform our individual and organizational behaviors, interactions, and decisions in the Ram Fam.

New, continuing, and returning undergraduate, graduate, and professional students must uphold their responsibilities as a member of the Ram Fam and, as such, will be afforded all the rights and responsibilities as an ASU community member.

The Code of Student Conduct outlines behavioral standards developed by the University Community for students and student organizations and the related procedures for addressing misconduct. Students should be aware that the processes outlined in Code of Student Conduct are not criminal or civil court proceedings. Students and student organizations are responsible for actions that constitute misconduct and violate the Code of Student Conduct. Any student or student organization found responsible for misconduct may be subject to sanctions.

The University provides a prompt, fair, and equitable process, utilizing a thorough, neutral, and impartial investigation, from which is generated a resolution.

The Code of Student Conduct and related processes educate students about their rights and responsibilities while promoting holistic development, self-worth, and mutual respect for all members of the University community. Freedom of discussion, inquiry, and expression is also fostered by an environment in which the privileges of citizenship are protected, and the obligations of citizenship are understood.

Angelo State University is committed to an educational and developmental process that balances the interests of individual students with the interests of the University community. No student will be found in violation of University policy without sufficient information and evidence showing that it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred, and any sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation and to the student’s cumulative history from both the Office of Student Conduct and Office of Title IX Compliance.

The processes outlined in Code of Student Conduct exist to protect the interests of the community and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with our policies. Sanctions are intended to challenge students’ moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with our community expectations and values. When a student is unable to conform their behavior to community expectations, the processes outlined in Code of Student Conduct may determine that the student should no longer share in the privilege of participating in this community.

1. Disciplinary Authority
   The authority to enact and enforce regulations of the University is vested in the Board of Regents. The responsibility for enforcing the regulations and imposing penalties is delegated to the President of the University and any University officials the President designates. The Office of the President is the principal agency for the investigation and adjudication of Title IX cases while the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs is the principal agency for the administration of student conduct and non-Title IX cases.
The Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Director of Title IX Compliance/Title IX Coordinator (Title IX Coordinator), and the Director of Housing and Residential Programs shall implement the student discipline procedures. All references to the officials listed above shall be interpreted to include persons designated to act on their behalf.

The Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, or designee will assume responsibility for the investigation of an allegation of misconduct to determine if the complaint has merit.

a. Student Conduct Officer/Investigator

A Student Conduct Officer/Investigator is a trained University staff member whose role is to conduct a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation of alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct. In most cases heard by a University Hearing Panel, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will present the information and evidence obtained through the investigation to the Hearing Panel, which will make a determination of responsible or not responsible and assign a sanction. In cases unrelated to Sexual Misconduct or Title IX that are heard through the Administrative Hearing process or completed via an Informal Conference, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may render findings and issue sanctions.

Investigators are assigned to cases by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, the Assistant Director of Student Conduct, or designee. Investigators are trained University full-time employees.

b. Administrative Hearing Officer

An Administrative Hearing Officer is a trained University staff member whose role is to make a decision of responsibility and assign sanctions, as appropriate in an Administrative Hearing. The Administrative Hearing Officer may be the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator who completed the Investigation/Investigation Report or an Administrative Hearing Officer assigned by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.

NOTE: Administrative Hearing Officers are not used in cases involving allegations of violations to the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct policy.

c. Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team

The Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team are ASU faculty and staff members specifically trained about Title IX and Sexual Misconduct policies, offenses, investigation procedures, due process requirements, impartiality, conflicts of interest, informal resolution processes, and other state and federal laws that related to Title IX and Sexual Misconduct. Members of the team may serve as Investigators or Hearing Panel Members in cases related to Title IX or Sexual Misconduct.
In Hearings involving Title IX Sexual Misconduct, the Title IX Hearing Officer will be one of the four members of the Hearing Panel and will serve as the Hearing Panel’s chair. The Hearing Panel will be the decision-maker that objectively evaluates all relevant evidence and renders a determination regarding responsibility after the hearing.

The determination regarding responsibility will be made by a majority vote of the Hearing Panel. The Hearing Panel has the right and responsibility to ask questions and elicit information from parties and witnesses on its own initiative to aid in obtaining relevant evidence both inculpatory and exculpatory.

The Hearing Panel will conduct disciplinary Hearings. The Panel pool will consist of a trained pool of full-time faculty, full-time staff, and full-time students according to the following guidelines:

5. Committee Quorum
A quorum for the committee is five (5) members.

6. Additional Committee Members
The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee may appoint additional members of the Code of Student Conduct Review Committee to expedite the review process of the Code.

2. Jurisdiction
Students at the University are provided an electronic copy of the Code of Student Conduct annually in the form of a link on the Student Affairs website: (https://www.angelo.edu/current-students/student-handbook/). Students are responsible for having read and abiding by the provisions of the Code of Student Conduct.

The University community has developed standards of behavior pertaining to students and to student organizations. Students and registered student organizations are subject to conduct action according to the provisions of the Code of Student Conduct. The University respects the rights and responsibilities of students and will consider each violation of the University policy and each violation of federal, state, and/or local law on a “case-by-case” basis and will further attempt to initially use educational options and subsequent intervention and/or prevention options to assist students.

The Code of Student Conduct and the processes included therein apply to the conduct of individual students, both undergraduate and graduate, and all registered student organizations. For the Code to apply, the University considers an individual to be a student when an offer of admission has been extended and thereafter as long as the student has a continuing educational interest in the University.

The Code of Student Conduct applies to behaviors which occur on University premises, at University-sponsored activities and events, and may apply to off-campus behavior when the Vice President for Student Affairs, the Executive Director of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee determines that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial University interest, such as situations where a student’s conduct may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others; situations that infringe on the rights of other students; situations causing significant disruption to the educational community; or are detrimental to the educational mission of the University. Proceedings under the Code of Student Conduct may be carried out prior to, independent of, concurrent with, or following civil or criminal proceedings.

The University retains jurisdiction related to this Code over students who choose to take a leave of absence, withdraw, or have graduated for any misconduct that occurred prior to the leave, withdrawal, or graduation. If sanctioned, a hold may be placed on the student’s ability to re-enroll, obtain official transcripts, and/or graduate. All sanctions must be satisfied prior to re-enrollment eligibility. In the event of serious misconduct committed while still enrolled but reported after the accused student has graduated, the University may invoke these procedures and should the former student be found responsible, the University may revoke that student’s degree or any other penalty that may be deemed appropriate. The University reserves the right to address and adjudicate behavior of previously enrolled students when there is a continued University interest.

The Code of Student Conduct may be applied to behavior conducted online, via e-mail, or other electronic medium. This activity may fall outside of protected speech, and may, in some cases, constitute Code of Student Conduct violations. Students should also be aware that online postings such as blogs, web postings, chats, and social networking sites are in the public sphere and are often not private. While the University does not typically search for this activity, it may be brought to the University’s attention. If the activity rises to the level of a Code of Student Conduct violation, disciplinary action may be taken.

The Code of Student Conduct applies to guests of community members whose hosts may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests. The Code of Student Conduct may also be applied to resident non-students, campers, and high school bridge/extension/partner/dual-credit programs by contractual agreements. Visitors to and guests of the University may seek resolution of violations of the Code of Student Conduct committed against them by members of the University community.

3. Notice

Notice is deemed to have been properly provided when written notification is sent to the student’s official assigned Angelo State University e-mail address, delivered via Certified Mail to the student’s last known address, or personally delivered to the student. University e-mail is the University’s primary means of communication with students. Students are responsible for all communication delivered to their University e-mail address. Students will be given a reasonable amount of time to respond to requests to meet with University officials. Prescheduled meetings are scheduled around a student’s published academic schedule and include the opportunity to reschedule in the event of unavoidable conflicts. Should a student wish to reschedule an appointment, he/she should contact the sender of the message in a timely manner. The University will make all reasonable efforts to accommodate student scheduling conflicts but will not permit unreasonable delays in the conduct process. After proper notice has been given to the student, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or designee may proceed with the conduct process. Should a student fail to comply with the requests of a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or designee, the Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, or designee may issue a “Failure to Comply” Code of Student Conduct allegation to the student. Students are advised to keep their most current local address, permanent address, and primary telephone number updated in the student records system at:

http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrars_office/registrar_forms.php

4. Timelines

It is recommended that reports of alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct should be reported as soon as possible after the alleged incident to initiate conduct procedures. There is no time limit on reporting violations; however, the longer someone waits to report an offense, the more difficult it becomes to obtain information.
and evidence regarding the incidents. The Office of the Executive Director of Student Affairs will make every effort to complete the process as quickly as possible. Timelines may vary depending on the availability of individuals participating in the process, availability of evidence, delays for concurrent criminal investigations, breaks between academic semesters, and other delays.

The Grievance Process utilized for Sexual Misconduct will be concluded within a reasonably prompt timeframe of one hundred and twenty days (120) days. There may be certain circumstances that allow for limited extensions of this timeframe for good cause. For such extensions of time or delays, written notice will be provided to the Complainant and Respondent of the delay or extension and the reasons for the action. A Grievance Process that exceeds one hundred and twenty days (120) days, shall be reviewed by the University, and justification for the extended or delayed investigation must be documented. The Complainant, Respondent, and other persons deemed appropriate by the University will be provided an update on the progress of the Grievance Process after the review.

5. Standard of Evidence

The proceedings are not restricted by the rules of evidence governing criminal and civil proceedings. The standard of proof used in Code of Student Conduct proceedings is the preponderance of evidence, or more likely than not.

6. Reporting Allegations of Misconduct or any Concerns Related to Student Behavior

To report allegation(s) of misconduct against student(s) or student organization(s), individuals should complete an online Incident Reporting Form. The online reporting form can be utilized to report any behaviors of concern to the appropriate individuals at Angelo State University including but not limited to: potential violations of the Code of Student Conduct, reports to the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT), concerns related to possible violations of Angelo State’s Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, and Title IX Policy, academic misconduct, and any other concerns related to student behavior. For specific directions related to reporting allegations of Sexual Misconduct please see Section D: Procedures from the Office of Title IX Compliance.

When submitting an online report, please include as many details as possible, including name, CID, title, and contact information. Please note that submitting the report anonymously may greatly limit the institution’s ability to address your concern. Upon receipt of this report, the appropriate Angelo State Administrator will review the matter and take proper steps to investigate, stop, prevent, and remedy prohibited conduct in accordance with Angelo State policies.

Individuals may also file a report in person with the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, located in Suite 112 of the Houston Harte University Center, or the Title IX Coordinator located in the Mayer Administration Building, Room 210. The Executive Director of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee regularly review reports submitted from the Angelo State University community, Housing and Residential Programs, University Police Department, and non-University community members.
As it relates to Student Organizations, leaders of organizations may self-report organization or member behavior that may be considered a violation(s) of Angelo State University policy. When an organization is able to quickly identify a concern, address it, and report it, the organization is less likely to be held responsible for behavior that may be a policy violation. The self-report allows the University, in conjunction with the student organization, to collect information, begin individual student conduct processes, and ensure that behavior has ceased and does not recur. When incidents are unreported by organizations and instead come to the attention of the University via a Complainant, the options for resolution are more limited. Self-reporting allows the University to work collaboratively with the organization to address the situation and can allow for lower-levels of sanctioning for misconduct. Sometimes organization leaders may become aware of organization or member activities that may result in violations of policy but have not occurred yet. In these cases, the organization leadership is encouraged to work directly with the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee to intervene and address the concern. This type of pre-report has the highest likelihood of lowering the risk of potential conduct violations and sanctions for the organization. Organization leaders may self-report misconduct or potential misconduct by utilizing the online Incident Reporting Form.

If, after an initial report has been made, a student experiences a subsequent concern or continued incident(s) of alleged misconduct, a student may file an additional report pursuant to the procedures in this section (Part I, Section A.6.).

7. Confidentiality
Angelo State University is committed to ensuring confidentiality during all stages of the student conduct process. The confidentiality the Complainant, the Respondent, the Reporting Party, any individuals who have sought guidance about this policy or have participated in an investigation or incident will be honored by the University to the extent possible without compromising the University’s commitment and obligation to investigate allegations of misconduct, to protect the University Community, and to the extent allowed by law. Unless waived in writing by the individual, the identity of aforementioned individuals:

a. Is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code; and
b. May be disclosed only to:

   i. University Employees or individuals under contract with the University to which the report is made who are necessary for an investigation of the report or other related hearings;
   ii. A law enforcement officer as necessary to conduct a criminal investigation of the report;
   iii. A health care provider in an emergency, as determined necessary by the University;
   iv. The Respondent, to the extent required by other law or regulation and
v. Potential witnesses to the incident as necessary to conduct an investigation of the report and to the extent required by other law or regulation.

In some exceptional circumstances, where the incident in question presents a continuing threat to the University Community, the University may be required to investigate irrespective of the Complainant’s desire to pursue allegations of student misconduct and may be required to issue a “timely warning” to the campus community as required by the Clery Act. Timely warnings do not include personally identifiable information of involved parties.

However, because the University also has an obligation to maintain an environment free of Sex Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct, all University employees have mandatory reporting and response obligations and may not be able to honor a Complainant’s request for confidentiality. The Title IX Coordinator or designee will evaluate requests for confidentiality. The willful and unnecessary disclosure of confidential information by anyone, including the Complainant or Respondent, may affect the integrity of the investigation.

Students may make confidential reports to the University Counseling Center. All Complainant Parties may also make confidential reports to local rape crisis centers, or to other licensed clinical and/or mental health professionals acting in their professional role of providing those services, including medical providers employed by the university. Information may be shared by the clinical and/or medical provider only with the Complainant’s or Respondent’s consent.

8. Anonymity
Angelo State University understands the sensitive nature of some incidents of alleged misconduct. Further, the University is mindful of the Complainant’s desire, in some cases, to report an incident without disclosing their name or other identifying information. Angelo State University will always attempt to protect a student’s anonymity if that is the student’s request. Providing anonymity, however, can often make it more difficult to thoroughly and effectively investigate an alleged incident. The University will work with each student on a case-by-case basis to find the approach that best fits the student’s wants and needs.

If the Complainant of an alleged incident of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, or Stalking reported to the University requests the University not to investigate the alleged incident, the University may investigate the alleged incident in the same manner an anonymous complaint may be investigated. The University shall inform the Complainant whether the University will conduct an investigation. In determining whether to investigate the alleged incident, the University shall consider:
a. The seriousness of the alleged incident;

b. Whether the University has received other reports of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, or Stalking committed by the alleged perpetrator or perpetrators;

c. Whether the alleged incident poses a risk of harm to others; and

d. Any other factors the University determines relevant.

9. Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) FERPA protects the privacy of student education records, including personally identifiable information derived from student conduct records. Generally, schools must have written permission from a student in order to release any information from a student's education record. FERPA allows schools to disclose student records, without consent, in situations including, but not limited to:

   a. School officials with legitimate educational interest.
   b. Other schools to which a student is transferring.
   c. To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.
   d. To parents when there is a health or safety emergency involving the student.
   e. To parents when the student has committed a disciplinary violation with respect to use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance and the student is under 21 years of age at the time of the disclosure.
   f. To the victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense concerning the final results of a disciplinary hearing.

Additional information on Student Records is available in The Student Handbook, Part II, Section 0: (Student Records) or at: (www.angelo.edu/ferpa).

10. Student Organizations
Information gathered during an investigation of student organization misconduct, as well as any conduct findings and decisions, may be shared with the international or regional headquarters of organizations, sponsoring department, or organization as appropriate. This otherwise confidential information will not be shared with other students or the Greek community.

Student organization records do not impact the content of individual student records for members of those student organizations. A finding of responsibility for misconduct for a student organization does not indicate a finding of responsibility for individual students. Individual students may be subject to their own conduct processes separate from the student organization process.

All records concerning a student organization related to conduct processes will remain on file with the University for a minimum of seven (7) years from the date of the completion of the case via Informal Resolution, Informal Conference, any Hearing process, and/or conduct appeal processes.
11. Reporting Criminal Behavior

Some instances of student misconduct may also constitute a violation of state, federal, and/or local law. Students have the option to report misconduct to the University, to local law enforcement, or to both. Angelo State University administrators are available to assist students in making a report to law enforcement and will even accompany the student if he or she wishes.

See Section D.3 for more information on reporting Sexual Misconduct to law enforcement.

12. Amnesty

The University will provide educational options in lieu of conduct proceedings in certain situations. Examples of the amnesty provision include, but are not limited to:

a. Victims of or witnesses to misconduct who were engaging in policy violations, such as underage drinking or drug use at the time of the incident.
   • In investigations into matters of Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others, all involved parties may fall under this amnesty provision.
b. Students who offer assistance to others by calling medical personnel or law enforcement.
c. Students who bring their own use, addiction, or dependency to alcohol, drugs, or other addictions to the attention of the University prior to any conduct incidents or reports.

The University will not take any disciplinary action against a student who, in good faith, reports being the victim of, or witness to, an incident of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking, for a violation of the Code of Student Conduct occurring at or near the time of the incident, regardless of the location at which the incident occurred or the outcome of the disciplinary process regarding the incident.

The University reserves the right to investigate to determine whether a report related to Sexual Misconduct was made in good faith. After such investigation, the Title IX Coordinator, or his/her designee will make a determination as to whether a student is entitled to amnesty. Once a determination is made regarding amnesty for a student, such determination is final and may not be revoked.

Abuse of amnesty provisions can result in a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Amnesty does not preclude students from being charged with allegations of misconduct related to Part I, section B.1.b. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others). The Code of Student Conduct amnesty provisions do not impact criminal proceedings or charges. Amnesty does not preclude students from being required to meet with University staff and to participate in conditions such as counseling and alcohol assessments, but the final determination regarding amnesty will be made by the Executive of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee.
13. Withdrawal

The Complainant or Respondent who are the subjects of an alleged incident of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking will be allowed to drop a course in which they are both enrolled without any academic penalty.

A Responding Student facing an alleged violation of the Code Student of Conduct may have a hold placed on their transcript requiring them to contact the Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, or designee to request permission to withdraw from the University. While a student may be permitted to withdraw from the University, the hold will remain on the student’s transcript until all allegations are resolved. The investigation into alleged conduct violations may continue regardless of the student’s withdrawal or choice to participate in the investigation. The institution shall expedite the disciplinary process as necessary to accommodate both the Complainant and Respondent's interest in a speedy resolution.

SECTION B: PROCEDURES FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

Upon notice of an alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator to review allegations of misconduct. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will inquire, gather, and review information about the reported student misconduct and will evaluate the accuracy, credibility, and sufficiency of the information.

Incident reports will be forwarded for investigation when there is reasonable cause to believe a policy has been violated. Reasonable cause is defined as some credible information to support each element of the offense, even if that information is merely a credible witness or the Complainant’s statement. If it is determined that the information reported does not warrant an allegation, a Policy Clarification may be issued to the involved parties to clarify the policy that was in question.

When an initial report of misconduct by a third party does not identify the Complainant or the Complainant is not available, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will investigate the reported incident to the fullest extent of the information available.

When a Complainant is identified but is reluctant to participate in the investigative process and/or the student conduct process entirely, the University will make every attempt to follow the wishes of the Complainant while weighing the interests of the campus community and the possibility of a continuing threat. If the Complainant does not want to participate in the investigative process but has no aversion to the University pursuing conduct action with respect to the named Respondent, the University will proceed with the student conduct process to the extent of the information available. If the Complainant does not want the University to pursue the report in any respect, the University will investigate further only if there is reason to believe that a significant continuing threat to the campus community exists.

NOTE: The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee may proceed with the conduct process (even if the Complainant[s] choose not to participate) on a case-by-case basis if the alleged behavior involves pattern, predation, threat, or violence (PPTV) that may significantly impact the campus community and others.

has been completed. However, violations of interim administrative action may result in additional allegations of the Code of Student Conduct.

The term of a No Contact Order is indefinite, unless otherwise stated in the Order.

3. Other Interim Actions

1. Grounds for Removal
The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or another University agent acting in accordance with his/her duties may recommend to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee that, in accordance with the Texas Education Code, the student have his/her consent to remain on the campus withdrawn if, in the judgment of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, it is determined that:

- The student has willfully disrupted the orderly operation of the premises, and;
- The student’s presence on the campus or facility constitutes a substantial and material threat to the orderly operation of the premise.
If the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee concurs with the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator’s recommendation, permission for the student to be on University premises will be withdrawn. This Withdrawal of Consent will not be longer than fourteen (14) calendar days and a Hearing must be held within these fourteen (14) calendar days to determine the student’s status at the University. Permission to be on University premises must be coordinated through the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee and the University Police Department. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will notify all parties of the final decision using the written notification procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. within five(5) University business days.

6. Registration Hold Following Withdrawal of Consent
When a student is withdrawn under this section, an administrative hold will be placed on the student’s readmission to the University. This administrative hold will remain on the student’s record until the student is readmitted.

NOTE: See Texas Education Code, Sections 51.233-51.244

c. Referral Meeting
A University official may request a meeting with a student in order to discuss a referral made to the Office of Student Conduct or other administrative department when the referral may not be deemed a violation of the Code of Student Conduct, but when the Investigator or designee determines the referral warrants a discussion. The purpose of the discussion is to clarify concerns of the involved parties, to offer assistance to all involved parties, and to explain to the student that repeated referrals may warrant an Investigation which may warrant adjudication.

d. Voluntary Resolution
In any matter governed by the Code of Student Conduct, the parties (usually the Complainant and Respondent) may mutually agree to attempt to resolve the matter prior to conclusion of the conduct process through a Voluntary Resolution process. The procedures utilized in the Voluntary Resolution process must be agreed upon by the parties with concurrence from the Executive Director of Student Affairs, or designee. The parties must mutually agree in writing to all aspects of any resolution reached through the Voluntary Resolution process, including any restrictions, sanctions, or conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties with concurrence from the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, and any such resolution will be binding and final with no opportunity to appeal. Either party may withdraw from the Voluntary Resolution process at any time prior to final resolution, at which time the matter will proceed through the student conduct process as set forth in the Code of Student Conduct. Voluntary Resolution agreements will be maintained in accordance with University policies.
e. The Conduct Process

1. Notice of Investigation/Notice of Involvement/Notice to Appear
   A student will be given notice of his or her investigation in an alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct by the receipt of a “Notice of Investigation/Notice of Involvement” Letter. [Note: In cases involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the instructor of record will notify the student of the allegations]. When preliminary information indicates that certain, identifiable student(s) are associated with the reported incident, those student(s) will be asked to meet with a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or the instructor of record for allegations of Academic Misconduct. In the event a student fails to respond to written notification, an administrative hold may be placed on the student's record to prevent further registration and transcript receipt. The administrative hold will remain until such time as the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator receives an appropriate response. Failure to comply with or respond to a notice issued as part of this conduct procedure and/or failure to appear will not prevent a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator from proceeding with the conduct process. Likewise, failure of a student to respond may result in additional alleged violation and result in a charge of Failure to Comply.

2. Rights and Responsibilities
   Prior to the formal investigative process, a student will be provided a Student Rights and Responsibilities document. This document will be reviewed and signed by the student prior to an interview with the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. The Students Rights and Responsibilities document informs the student of his or her rights to be exercised before and during the investigative process. Information gathered during the course of the investigation and student conduct process may be shared only with faculty, staff, students, and/or advisors who are directly involved in the incident or necessary to the student conduct process. Information gathered may also be disclosed in compliance with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

   A student has the right to:

   a. A prompt, fair, and equitable process.

   b. Be accompanied by an advisor at any meeting or Hearing. An advisor can be any one of the following: a member of the Angelo State University Community (faculty, staff, or student not otherwise involved in the case), a parent or legal guardian, a relative, or an attorney. An advisor’s role is that of support – he or she may not speak on behalf of the student and does not have an active, participatory role in the conduct process. If an advisor for the student is an attorney, an attorney from the Texas Tech University System Office of General Counsel and/or General Counsel for Angelo State University may attend the Hearing on behalf of the University. Students are responsible for presenting their own information;
therefore, advisors are not permitted to speak or participate directly in any Hearing unless authorized by a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will not accept investigative materials, statements, evidence, etc. directly from an advisor and will not communicate with the advisor on behalf of the student. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee has the discretion to remove an advisor at any point during the conduct process. A witness, anyone who may have a conflict of interest, or anyone who may have any participatory role in the process may not be allowed to serve as an Advisor. Students who have been suspended may not serve as an Advisor during their suspension, and students who have been expelled may not serve as an advisor. Students should select an advisor whose schedule allows attendance at the scheduled date and time for the Hearing, as delays will not be allowed due to the scheduling conflicts of an advisor, except at the discretion of Conduct Officer/Investigator.

c. Refrain from making any statement relevant to the investigation. If a student chooses not to provide information or provides only limited information during the investigation, they will not be allowed to provide new information during the Hearing. The student will only be permitted to speak to the information that they provided with no additional commentary. The rationale for this policy is to prevent either party from presenting new evidence at the Hearing that was available during the investigation process which could disadvantage the other party. A student’s choice not to participate in the investigation process will not stop the investigation or hearing process.

NOTE: See Pre-Hearing Process, below, for details on inclusion of new, previously unavailable information after conclusion of the investigate process.

d. The opportunity to provide information and evidence in support of their case.

e. Know if they have been issued any allegations of misconduct.

f. Know the range of sanctions that may be imposed for a conduct violation, if one is alleged and found to have occurred.

g. Know the Angelo State University conduct policies and procedures and where to find them.

h. Know that any information provided by the student may be used in a conduct proceeding.

i. Know that if a student makes any false or misleading statements during the student conduct process, that student could be subject to further disciplinary action.

It is the student’s responsibility to:
a. Be responsive to all correspondence from the University.

b. Provide information relevant to the incident or situation.

c. Be honest and provide true and accurate information during the investigation.

d. Review the Code of Student Conduct in order to fully understand all aspects of the student conduct process.

3. Investigation

   The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator who will conduct a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation of the reported allegation. In cases involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the instructor of record will conduct the initial inquiry/investigation. Reported allegations of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct have varying degrees of complexity and severity. Therefore, the investigation procedures described below may vary.

   When an initial inquiry indicates a concurrent police investigation is occurring, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will, where possible, collaborate with the University Police Department during the investigation. Elements of this collaborative investigation may include the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator coordinating with responding officers at the scene of the incident, joint interviews with police detectives, and evidence sharing. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will never take physical custody of any physical or electronic evidence but will work closely with the University Police Department to inspect, analyze, and incorporate physical or electronic evidence into the Investigative Report and/or investigative materials.

   During the investigative process, Complainant Parties and Responding Parties are responsible for providing all information or evidence that they believe should be considered.

   Once the investigative process is complete, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may compile the relevant information and evidence into an Investigation Report, which will include the allegations of the Code of Student Conduct and may include a timeline of the event(s), statements from interviews, physical and electronic evidence, a breakdown of the discrepancies in the various interviews, and credibility considerations. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will document any physical or electronic evidence in a manner that is conducive and unobstructive to concurrent or forthcoming police investigations. A student will have access to review the completed Investigation Report and/or investigative materials relevant to the investigation after the Investigative process has concluded.
Charges of potential violations of the Code of Student Conduct, if appropriate, are assigned at the conclusion of the investigative process at which point the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator explains the options for resolution to the involved parties. Should students not participate in the investigative process, the conduct process may continue without their participation, including the assignment of charges, along with decisions regarding the finding(s) and sanction(s).

4. Informal Conference

   If after the Initial Inquiry/Investigation, the responding student accepts responsibility for the allegations of the Code of Student Conduct which may be outlined in an Investigation Report, the student can choose to resolve the issue informally. Should the student wish to participate in the Informal Conference Process, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator conducting the initial inquiry/investigation will inform the student of the appropriate sanctions for the misconduct. To participate in the Informal Conference process, a student must accept both the finding and the sanctions. If accepted, the process ends, the finding is final, and there is no appeal. In cases involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the instructor of record can assign sanctions in Part I, Section B.3.e.7.h. Additional sanctions in Part I, Section B.3.e. can also be assigned on a case-by-case basis by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.

   In cases involving another student (a Complainant) and/or a violation of Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others) of the Code of Student Conduct, both the Complainant and the Respondent must agree to both the finding and the sanctions as recommended by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. The case will only be reopened if new material, previously unavailable, is presented.

   Written notification of the outcomes and sanctions, if applicable, of the Informal Conference will be provided to the student and appropriate University Administrators within five (5) University business days of the effectuation of the Informal Conference. All cases involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct) will be reported to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee by the instructor of record using the online Incident Reporting Form.

5. Pre-Hearing Process

   In cases involving an Administrative Hearing, the Pre-Hearing Process will be followed. Once the investigative process is complete, the Complainant and Respondent will be given notice of a Pre-Hearing Meeting scheduled outside of the student’s academic schedule. Should students not participate in the Pre-Hearing, the conduct process may continue without their participation, including the assignment of charges and the completion of an Administrative or Panel Hearing. During this meeting, students will be given the opportunity to review the Investigation Report, relevant evidence, and/or other documents/materials to be used in the Administrative or Panel Hearing. Other documents/materials reviewed may include notification of the Respondent’s allegations, Panel composition, and Hearing Script.
Following the Pre-Hearing, student(s) will be notified, via the notification procedures, outlined in Part I, Section A.3., of a date, time, and location of the Hearing.

While students may identify errors in their own statements during the Pre-Hearing, they are not able to add additional information to the Investigation Report unless that information, in the judgment of the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, was unavailable during the investigative process and is pertinent to the consideration of the case. If a student discovers new, previously unavailable information during the time after the Pre-Hearing but before the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel, the student should inform the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator immediately. If the new information is pertinent to the consideration of the case, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will determine whether the new information should be included in the Investigation Report or presented verbally during the Administrative or Panel Hearing. If there is new evidence introduced, other involved parties would also be given the opportunity to provide a response to any new evidence that will be presented in the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel.

The student conduct process is designed to be non-adversarial. Students will be permitted to question the statements and evidence presented by the other involved parties but may not do so directly. After reviewing the investigation report, during the Pre-Hearing, Complainant Parties and Responding Parties will have the opportunity to question the statements and evidence presented by the other involved parties, via the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, who will pose the questions and supplement the Investigation Report.

NOTE: Questions that are deemed objectionable, inappropriate, and/or irrelevant by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may be rejected.

Students may indicate whether an Administrative Hearing, Hearing Panel or Sanction Only Hearing is preferred. However, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator has the sole discretion in all cases to designate whether an Administrative Hearing, Hearing Panel or Sanction Only Hearing will be held notwithstanding the student’s preference.

In cases requiring a Hearing Panel, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will share the list of Panel members which consists of faculty, staff, and students trained for Hearing Panels. Students will be given the opportunity to request to strike any member of the Hearing Panel whose impartiality may be in question. In order to strike a member of the Hearing Panel, the student must provide the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator with a reasonable and substantiated rationale for the request. Once the composition of the Hearing Panel is set, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will schedule the Panel Hearing.

At the discretion of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, a review of the conduct case may occur at any point during the investigation or conduct process for clarification of procedural processes and may remand to investigation or adjudication if deemed necessary.

6. Hearings

Upon completion of the initial inquiry/investigation, after the allegation(s) have been assigned, and proper notice has been given to the student, the University may proceed to conduct either an Administrative Hearing or a Hearing Panel and issue a finding and accompanying sanctions, if applicable. The Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel may be held and a decision made, regardless of whether the student responds, fails to respond, attends the Hearing, or fails to attend the Hearing. Should the student fail to attend the Administrative or Panel Hearing, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or the Hearing Panel may consider the information contained in the Investigation Report, relevant evidence, and/or other documents/materials and render a decision. If the student accepts responsibility for the allegations issued in the Investigation Report, the student may request a Sanction Only Hearing.

Hearings are closed to the public. In cases involving another student (a Complainant) and/or a violation of Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions against Members of the University Community and Others) of the Code of Student Conduct, both the Complainant and the Respondent have the right to be present at the Hearing; however, they do not have the right to be present during deliberations. Arrangements can be made so that Complainant and Responding Parties do not have to physically be in the Hearing room at the same time. To request changes in the scheduled Hearing time, students should contact the Office of Student Affairs prior to the scheduled Hearing.

The University will attempt to facilitate reasonable questioning of involved parties throughout the investigation and conduct process.

An In Absentia decision may be rendered by the appointed hearing body after proper notice has been given to the student, and the student has failed to respond within the allotted timeframe to meet with a Conduct Officer/Investigator.

a. Administrative Hearing

An Administrative Hearing is the process of adjudicating allegations of violations of the Code of Student Conduct by an Administrative Hearing Officer. The Administrative Hearing Officer in an Administrative Hearing may be the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator that completed the Investigation Report or Administrative Hearing Officer assigned by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, or designee. In cases involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the Administrative Hearing Officer will be the Academic Dean of the college housing the course where the violation occurred or designee with assistance from the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee. The Administrative Hearing Officer makes the decision of responsibility and assigns sanctions, as appropriate.

Written notification of the outcomes of the Administrative Hearing will be provided to the student within five (5) University business days of the conclusion of the Administrative Hearing. Decisions made through the Administrative Hearing may be appealed by students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section B.3.e.8.

b. Hearing Panel
For each Hearing Panel three (3) Hearing Panel members will be chosen from the available pool by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee. Typically, the Hearing Panel will be comprised of one student, one faculty member, and one staff member. Availability may determine a different composition for the Panel. For allegations involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the Hearing Panel will be comprised of only students and faculty members. All Hearing proceedings, excluding deliberations of the Hearing Panel, will be recorded by the University.

During the Hearing, a designated non-voting Resource Person will facilitate the Hearing process.

The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Panel Resource Person to serve as a non-voting participant in the Panel Hearing. The Panel Resource Person will be a trained University staff member who may:

- Prepare the Panel Hearing materials;
- Record the Panel Hearing proceedings;
- Escort participants into the Hearing room, grant breaks for participants, and distribute evidentiary materials;
- Ensure proper decorum throughout the Panel Hearing;
- Ensure the procedural soundness of the Panel Hearing;
- Provide student conduct history as well as any documented Policy Clarifications issued to the Respondent, during the sanctioning phase, if necessary;
- Transcribe the findings of the Hearing Panel;
- Compile the post-Hearing documentation;
- Deliver notification to student parties.

The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator presents the Investigation Report, evidence, witnesses, allegation(s), and questions for deliberation. Both the Complainant and Respondent have the right to add or make additional comments about the facts of the case. The Hearing Panel may question the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses. The Complainant and Respondent may not question each other or witnesses directly, but may pose questions through the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. Should new evidence be presented without prior discussion with the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, the Hearing may be halted to consider the inclusion of this information. Impact statements will also be halted if they are shared prior to the sanctioning phase of the Hearing. In the event the Resource Person removes a student due to misconduct (Complainant, Respondent, or witnesses), the alleged misconduct will be forwarded to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.

Following the Hearing, the Hearing Panel will deliberate and will render a decision in regard to the alleged misconduct as well as decide any sanctions, if applicable. Should the Hearing Panel have any questions for the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, the Complainant, and/or the Respondent, the Hearing Panel will reconvene so that all parties have the opportunity to respond and be present for other parties’ responses.

Outcomes of the Hearing Panel will be provided simultaneously to the student(s) in writing within five (5) University business days of the conclusion of the Panel Hearing. Decisions made through the Hearing Panel may be appealed by students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section B.3.e.8.

c. Sanction Only Hearing
If the student accepts responsibility for the allegations issued in the Investigation Report, the student may request a Sanction Only Hearing, by either a Hearing officer or a Hearing Panel. During a Sanction Only Hearing, the Investigation Report and finding are presented to the Hearing Panel by the Investigator. During presentation of the Investigation Report and finding, the Complainant and Respondent are not allowed to dispute the facts or details of the case. Both the Complainant and Respondent may be present and both the Complainant and Respondent may provide impact statements prior to sanctioning. Mitigating factors as well as a character statement may also be presented by the Respondent and may be considered by the Hearing Panel. Written notification of the outcome of the Sanction Only Hearing will be provided to the student(s) within five (5) University working days of the conclusion of the Sanction Only Hearing. Decisions made through the Sanction Only Hearing may be appealed by the students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section B.3.e.8. In Sanction Only Hearings, students may appeal the sanction(s), and can only appeal on the following grounds, “the sanction imposed substantially varies from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.” A student may only choose a Hearing Panel for Sanction Only Hearings for potentially separable offenses.

7. Sanctions
A Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, or Hearing Panel may impose sanctions as a result of an Informal Conference, Administrative Hearing, or Hearing Panel, when a student is found responsible. The potential sanctions are listed in the Code of Student Conduct grid in Appendix B. The grid, is provided only as a guideline for administering sanctions by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, or the Hearing Panel. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, and/or the Hearing Panel may deviate from the grid for sufficient reason.
Implementation of the disciplinary sanction(s) will not begin and are not deemed final until either the time for a disciplinary appeal has expired or until the disciplinary appeal process is exhausted. Sanctions agreed upon through the Informal Conference Process are final upon effectuation of the Informal Conference. When sanctions are final, appropriate University Administrators may be notified of the student's sanctions. Upon the judgment of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, some cases resulting in sanctioning of suspension and expulsion may begin prior to the completion of the disciplinary appeal process. Findings and sanctions agreed upon through the Informal Conference Process are final and cannot be appealed.

All records related to the disciplinary process will remain on file in Room 112 of the Houston Harte University Center for a minimum of seven (7) years from the date the case is completed through an Informal Conference, Administrative Hearing, Hearing Panel, Sanction Only Hearing, and/or Disciplinary Appeal Procedures in Part I, Section B.3.e.8. All records related to the disciplinary process resulting in suspension and/or expulsion will remain on file indefinitely.

If a student is found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct, sanctions may be imposed and can include, but are not limited to, the following:

a. Disciplinary Reprimand
   The Disciplinary Reprimand is an official written notification using the notice procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. (Notice) to the student that the action in question was misconduct.

b. Disciplinary Probation
   Disciplinary Probation is a period of time which a student's conduct will be observed and reviewed. The student must demonstrate the ability to comply with University policies, rules, and/or standards and any other requirement stipulated for the probationary period. Further instances of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct during this period may result in additional conditions, restrictions, and/or sanctions.

c. Deferred Disciplinary Suspension
   Deferred Disciplinary Suspension is a period of time where a Disciplinary Suspension may be deferred for a period of observation and review, but in no case will the Deferred Disciplinary Suspension be less than the remainder of the semester. Further instances of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct during this period may result in additional sanctions.

d. Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension
   Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension is a specific period of time in which a student is not allowed to participate in class, University related activities, or be present on campus property. The status of disciplinary suspension will be shown on the student’s academic record, including the transcript. Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension is noted on the student’s transcript by the phrase “Disciplinary “Suspension” and will include the period of time in which the student is/was suspended from the University. In most cases, the notation of disciplinary suspension will remain on the transcript permanently. A student has the ability to petition to remove a Disciplinary Suspension notation in the following instances: (1) the student is eligible to reenroll in the institution or (2) the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee determines that a good cause exists to remove the notation. A Disciplinary Suspension of a student will indicate the date on which the suspension period begins and the earliest date the application for student readmission will be considered. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may deny a student’s readmission, if the student’s misconduct during the suspension would have warranted additional disciplinary action. If the student has failed to satisfy any sanction that was imposed prior to application for readmission, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee may deny readmission of a student. On denial of a student’s readmission, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will set a date when another application for readmission may again be made. An administrative hold will be placed on the student’s record to prevent registration during the Disciplinary Suspension.

e. Disciplinary Expulsion
Disciplinary Expulsion occurs when the student is permanently withdrawn and separated from the University. The status of Disciplinary Expulsion will be shown permanently on the student’s academic record, including the transcript. Disciplinary Expulsion is noted on the student’s transcript by the phrase “Disciplinary Expulsion” and the date in which the student’s expulsion was effective. In most instances, the notation of Disciplinary Expulsion will remain on the transcript permanently. A student may petition in writing to remove a Disciplinary Expulsion notation in the following instances: (1) the student is eligible to reenroll in the institution or (2) the Executive Director of Students or designee determines that good causes exists to remove the notation. An administrative hold will be placed on the student record by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee to prevent future registration.

f. Conditions
A condition is an educational or personal element that is assigned by Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, or Hearing Panel. Costs associated with conditions may be the responsibility of the student and will be billed to the student’s account. Some examples of conditions include, but are not limited to:

- Personal and/or academic assessment/counseling intake session.
- Discretionary educational conditions and/or programs of educational service to the University and/or community.
- Residence hall relocation and/or contract review/cancellation of residence hall contract and/or use of dining facilities.
- Restitution or compensation for loss, damage or injury, which may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
• Monetary assessment owed to the University.
• Completion of an alcohol or drug education program.
• Referral to the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley (ADACCV) for assessment, http://www.adaccv.org/.

g. Restrictions
A restriction is an additional component of a disciplinary sanction. A restriction is usually an educational component that is to occur in conjunction with the sanctions and will usually be time specific. Some examples of restrictions include, but are not limited to:

- Revocation of parking privileges.
- Denial of eligibility for holding office in registered student organizations.
- Denial of participation in extracurricular activities.
- Prohibited access to University facilities and/or prohibited direct or indirect contact with members of the University community.
- Loss of privileges on a temporary or permanent basis.

h. Academic Penalties
In cases involving violations of Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct) an academic penalty may be imposed by the referring party. Academic penalties include, but are not limited to:

- Assignment of a grade for the relevant assignment, exam, or course;
- Relevant make-up assignments;
- No credit for the original assignment;
- Reduction in grade for the assignment and/or course;
- Failing grade on the assignment;
- Failing grade for the course;
- Dismissal from a departmental program;
- Denial of access to internships or research programs;
- Loss of appointment to academically-based positions;
- Loss of departmental/graduate program endorsements for internal and external fellowship support and employment opportunities; and/or
- Removal of fellowship or assistantship support.

i. Parental Notification
Violations of Part I, Sections B.1.c. (Alcoholic Beverages) or B.1.d. (Narcotics or Drugs) may result in notification to the parents/guardians of dependent students under the age of 21.

8. Disciplinary Appeal Procedures
A student may appeal the finding or the sanction(s) imposed in an Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel by submitting a written petition to the designated appeal officer within five (5) University business days of the delivery of the written decision. An appeal may not be filed on behalf of the student by a third party.

The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will be the designated appeal officer in each conduct case. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs or designee will be the designated appeal officer for cases involving Academic Misconduct. The designated appeal officer will be a trained University staff or faculty member who did not serve as the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or the Administrative Hearing Officer in the original Conduct Process and will render a neutral, impartial, and unbiased decision.

The petition must clearly set forth the grounds for the appeal, together with the evidence upon which the appeal is based. A disagreement with the decision alone shall not constitute grounds for appeal. The only proper grounds for appeal, and the only issues that may be considered on appeal are as follows:

a. A procedural or substantive error that significantly impacted the outcome of the Hearing (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.);
b. The discovery of new evidence, unavailable during the original Hearing or review of the case, which could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included; or

c. The sanctions imposed substantially vary from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.

In cases involving alleged misconduct involving Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions against Members of the University Community and Others), either the Complainant or Respondent may appeal the decision of the Hearing Panel.

The designated appeal officer will first review the appeal to determine if the appeal is timely and properly sets forth the appropriate grounds for appeal, with adequate accompanying evidence. If any of these requirements are not met, the appeal will be dismissed, and the decision will be final. The Hearing Body may provide a response to the appeal upon request of the appellate officer.

If the designated appeal officer determines that the sanctions imposed substantially vary from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions, the appeal identifies a procedural/substantive error, or new evidence that was unavailable at the original Hearing, the appeal officer will then determine whether the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision of the Administrative Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel. If the designated appeal officer determines that the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision, he or she may:

- Modify the finding and/or increase, decrease, or otherwise modify the sanctions;
- Remand the case to the original Hearing Panel;
• Remand the case to a new Hearing Panel.

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Academic Dean, or designee shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student(s) of the status of the appeal throughout the appellate process and shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student(s) of the result of their appeal using the written notification procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. (Notice) within ten (10) University business days. If necessary, the designated appeal officer will notify the student should they need additional time to determine the outcome of the appeal. The decision of the designated appeal officer is final and cannot be appealed.

If the designated appeal officer remands the decision to a new Hearing Panel, the decision of that Hearing Panel is final and may not be appealed.

9. Former Student Conduct & Readmission
A former student who engages in conduct that is a violation of the Code of Student Conduct may be subject to conduct procedures prior to reenrollment, a bar against readmission, revocation of a degree, and withdrawal of a diploma.

A student who has had an administrative hold placed on his or her records under this section must request readmission from the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee at least three (3) weeks prior to any Angelo State University Office of Admissions application deadlines for the semester or summer session in which the student wishes to re-enroll. The student may be required by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee to submit evidence in writing supportive of his or her present ability to function properly and effectively in the University community. The University will evaluate the student’s request and supporting documentation with primary consideration given to satisfying all conditions specified at the time of suspension or withdrawal. If approval is granted by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee for the removal of the administrative hold, the student must then complete the regular University readmission procedures.

SECTION C: PROCEDURES FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT FOR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Upon notice of an alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct by a student organization, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator to review allegations of misconduct. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will inquire, gather and review information about the reported student organization misconduct and will evaluate the accuracy, credibility, and sufficiency of the information.

Incidents will be forwarded for investigation when there is reasonable cause to believe a policy has been violated. Reasonable cause is defined as some credible information to support each element of the offense, even if that information is merely a credible witness or Complainant’s statement. If it is determined that the information reported does not warrant an allegation, a Policy Clarification letter may be issued to clarify the policy in question.

1. Initial Inquiry
   An initial inquiry would occur to review information about the alleged misconduct and to evaluate the accuracy, credibility, and sufficiency of the information. When an initial report does not identify victims of misconduct or victims are not available, it can limit the ability to investigate the incident. When the Complainant is identified but is reluctant to participate in the investigation process or student conduct process, the University will make every attempt to follow the wishes of the Complainant while weighing the interests of the campus community and the possibility of continuing inappropriate behavior and threat to the community. If the Complainant does not want to participate in the investigative process but has no aversion to the University pursuing the conduct process, the University will proceed to the extent of the information available.

2. Decision to Document the Incident without Further Investigation
   If it is determined that the information reported and available does not warrant an allegation of a conduct violation, a Policy Clarification letter may be issued to clarify the policy in question. This may happen in situations where reports received are from anonymous sources with no ability to validate the credibility of the concern and the initial inquiry identifies little to no other information to support the report.

3. Remedies & Resources to Complainant Parties/Responding Parties
   a. The University will take immediate action to eliminate hostile environments, prevent recurrence and address any effects on the Complainant and community prior to the initiation of formal investigation and/or formal conduct processes. These immediate steps will be taken to minimize the burden on the Complainant while respecting due process rights of the Respondent. Remedies for students may include, but are not limited to, counseling services, modifications to on-campus housing, modifications to parking permission, and modification to academic schedule. Remedies will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

   b. Assistance and resources are provided to the Complainant in order to help them understand the options available to them when making a report, to determine what resolution the Complainant is seeking, to identify university and community resources to support the Complainant, and to stop any current inappropriate behavior. Resources include, but are not limited to, assistance in reporting criminal behavior to the University Police Department or San Angelo Police Department, counseling services, medical assistance, academic support referrals, and other support services. This is handled by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee taking the initial report. This staff member may or may not be the person to investigate the complaint.
4. Interim Actions

Under the Code of Student Conduct, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee may impose restrictions and/or temporarily suspend the registration of a student organization pending the scheduling of a campus Hearing on alleged violation(s) of the Code of Student Conduct when the student organization represents a threat of serious harm to others, that is deemed a continuous threat, is facing allegations of serious criminal activity, to preserve the integrity of an investigation, to preserve University property and/or to prevent disruption of, or interference with, the normal operations of the University. Examples of conduct or incidents that may result in interim suspension are hazing; conduct or incidents at organization events and activities resulting in allegations of Sexual Misconduct; behavior that results in criminal felony charges, severe disruption, and/or retaliatory harassment; alcohol/drug policy violations occurring during recruitment or social events; and cease and desists directives from inter/national or regional organizations. A student organization who receives an interim suspension may request a meeting with the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee to demonstrate why an interim suspension is not merited. Regardless of the outcome of the meetings, the University may still proceed with the scheduling of a campus Hearing. During an interim suspension, the student organization is not able to access the benefits of being a registered student organization during this time period, and organization activities should cease in order to prevent additional misconduct. Student organizations are informed of interim actions by the official notice procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. of the Code of Student Conduct. Interim action is not a sanction. It is taken in an effort to protect the safety and well-being of the Complainant, Respondent, and other members of the University Community, the University, and/or property. Interim action is preliminary in nature; it is in effect only until the conduct process has been completed. However, violations of interim actions may result in additional allegations of violations of the Code of Student Conduct.

5. Notice of Investigation/Notice of Involvement

A student organization will be given notice of the organization’s investigation in an alleged violation of the Code of Student Conduct by receipt of a “Notice of Investigation/Notice of Involvement” letter or direct contact by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.

6. Initial Contact to the Student Organization Leadership and Advisor

In most cases, the appropriate Student Organization or Greek Life, Student Affairs, or staff will ask the student organization President and Faculty/Staff Advisor or Alumni Advisor for an initial response to the information received within a prompt timeframe. At this time, student organization officers and members accused of conduct violations will also receive information about resources that can assist them during the investigation process. Organization leaders are expected to be prompt, cooperative, and forthcoming with information for review by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee. Organizations should be aware that information gathered during this initial contact is documented for use during the investigation process. Organizations that fail to comply with or respond to a notice issued as part of investigation process and/or fail to appear at a Hearing will not prevent the continuation of the conduct process. Likewise, a student organization that ignores requests for information, misrepresents information, or conceals information can face additional allegations of misconduct and increased sanctions.

7. Notification of the International or Regional Headquarters (if relevant)
In most cases (with the exception of low-level concerns), Greek Life staff will notify representatives of the international or regional headquarters of the complaint received and of the process for reviewing the complaint. Angelo State University believes in an active partnership with international and regional organization staff to resolve concerns. These international and regional staff and volunteers are often better able to identify opportunities to address concerns and may be conducting their own investigation and conduct process. Angelo State University staff will specifically contact international and regional organizations when recurring concern indicates a climate issue for the organization, when the response of the organization is not compliant or timely, when there is an immediate threat to member or other’s safety, or when the organization has already participated in conduct processes for concerns.

8. Rights & Responsibilities
Prior to the formal investigation process, a student organization will be provided a Students Rights & Responsibilities document to review and sign prior to an interview with the appointed Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. The Rights & Responsibilities document informs the student organization of rights to be exercised before and during the conduct process. Those rights include the right to:

a. A prompt, fair, and equitable process;

b. Be accompanied by an advisor at any meeting or Hearing. An advisor can be any one of the following: a member of the Angelo State University Community (faculty, staff, or student not otherwise involved in the case), a parent or legal guardian, a relative, or an attorney. An advisor’s role is that of support – he or she may not speak on behalf of the student organization and does not have an active, participatory role in the conduct process. If an advisor for the student organization is an attorney, an attorney from the Texas Tech University System Office of General Counsel and/or General Counsel for Angelo State University may attend any meeting or Hearing on behalf of the University. Student organizations are responsible for presenting their own information; therefore, advisors are not permitted to speak or participate directly in any meeting or Hearing unless authorized by a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will not accept investigative materials, statements, evidence, etc. directly from an advisor and will not communicate with the advisor on behalf of the student organization. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee has the discretion to remove an advisor at any point during the conduct process. A witness, anyone who may have a conflict of interest, or anyone who may have any participatory role in the process may not be allowed to serve as an Advisor. Students who have been suspended may not serve as an Advisor during their suspension and students who have been expelled may not serve as an advisor. Student organizations should select an advisor whose schedule allows attendance at the scheduled date and time for meetings and the Hearing, as delays will not be allowed due to the scheduling conflicts of an advisor, except at the discretion of a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator.

c. Refrain from making any statement relevant to the investigation. If a student organization chooses not to provide information or provides only limited information during the investigation, they will not be allowed to provide new information during the Hearing. The student organization will only be permitted to speak to the information that they provided with no additional commentary. The rationale for this policy is to prevent either party from presenting new evidence at the Hearing that was available during the investigation process which could disadvantage the other party. A student’s choice not to participate in the investigation process will not stop the investigation or hearing process.

NOTE: See Pre-Hearing Process, below, for details on inclusion of new, previously unavailable information after conclusion of the investigative process.

d. The opportunity to provide information and evidence in support of the case;

e. Know if they have been issued any allegations of misconduct;

f. Know the range of sanctions that may be imposed for a conduct violation, if one is alleged and found to have occurred;

g. Know the Angelo State University conduct policies and procedures and where to find them;

h. Know that any information provided by the student organization may be used in a conduct proceeding:
   - Any information provided by a student during an investigation may be used in formal conduct processes related to allegations against the student organization, the student, or other students.
   - Student and student organization records are subject to the Federal Education Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA). Information collected during an investigation will be compiled into an investigation report and is considered student or student organization records. The investigation report may be shared with the assigned student conduct hearing panel members or administrative officers assigned to adjudicate concerns as officials with legitimate educational interest and without written consent for release. Student and student organization records can be subpoenaed in accordance with criminal processes which could include the release of the investigation report to law enforcement officials. The investigation report may also be shared with the international or regional organization headquarters staff to assist with collaborative investigations.
i. Know that if a student makes any false or misleading statements during the student conduct process, that student could be subject to further disciplinary action.

Student organization responsibilities include:

a. Be responsive to all communications from the University;

b. Provide information relevant to the incident or situation;

c. Be honest and provide true and accurate information during the investigation;

d. If a student or student organization needs additional time to gather information, please inform your Student Conduct Officer/Investigator;

e. Review the Code of Student Conduct in order to fully understand all aspects of the student conduct process.

9. Investigation

a. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will appoint a Student Conduct Officer/Investigator to conduct a prompt, thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation of the reported allegation.

b. Reported allegations of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct have varying degrees of complexity and severity. Therefore, the investigation procedures described below may vary. In student organization incidents there is potential for three or more separate investigations to be occurring in a similar time frame:
   - Angelo State University Student Organization Conduct Investigation.
   - Angelo State University Sexual Misconduct and Title IX Office Investigation
   - Criminal Investigation by the University, San Angelo, or Other Police Departments.
   - International or Regional Headquarter Investigation.
   - Local Student Organization Advisory Board Investigation.

c. When initial inquiry indicates that another concurrent investigation is occurring alongside the Angelo State University student conduct investigation, the appointed investigator(s) will, where possible, collaborate with the other entities conducting investigations. Elements of a collaborative investigation may include coordinated or joint interviews, evidence sharing, and investigation report sharing within the limits of student records policies.

d. Investigations of student organization conduct may include the requirement for student organization members to attend an investigation meeting as a group or as individuals. Students may be asked to complete written questionnaires related to the investigation. Regardless of the nature of the investigation, students and student organizations should be aware of their rights and responsibilities in the conduct process and recognize that any information shared during the course of the student conduct investigation may be used in formal conduct processes against the student organization or the individual student. Students can always decline to participate in a collaborative investigation meeting and meet only with the student conduct investigator instead of meeting together with other investigators.

e. During the investigation process, student organization representatives are responsible for providing all information or evidence that they believe should be considered. Once the investigative process is complete, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may compile the relevant information and evidence into an Investigation Report, which will include the allegations of the Code of Student Conduct and may include a timeline of the event(s), statements from the interviews, physical and electronic evidence, a breakdown of the discrepancies in the various interviews, and credibility considerations. The Investigator will document any physical or electronic evidence in a manner that is conducive and unobstructed to concurrent or forthcoming police investigations.

f. Student organizations will be asked to provide information about any actions occurring voluntarily by the organization and/or to address concerns or actions occurring related to other conduct processes (international or regional actions, local alumni board actions). This information is used to afford the opportunity for an organization to be eligible for Informal Conference processes or the sanctioning portion of a formal hearing if an organization is found responsible for a policy violation.

g. A student organization will have access to a completed Investigation Report and/or investigative materials relevant to the allegation(s) after the investigative process has concluded.

10. Investigation Report is Completed by Conduct Officer/Investigator and Pre-Hearing Scheduled

a. Once the investigation report is completed, the President and his/her advisors for the student organization will be given notice of a Pre-Hearing Meeting. During this meeting, the representatives will be given an opportunity to review the Investigation Report and other documents or evidence that would be used in a formal hearing. If new or previously unavailable information is now available, the Investigator will make a determination about the inclusion of the information in the report.

- If there is not sufficient evidence to proceed to a hearing, a Policy Clarification will be issued to the organization and the file will be closed.
- If there is sufficient evidence to proceed to a hearing, the investigation report will outline the formal allegations against the student organization.
- A discussion will occur around the opportunity for an Informal Conference or a formal Hearing.

b. In cases proceeding to a formal hearing, the President and his/her Advisor(s) for the student organization will review the formal hearing script and the pool of faculty, staff, and students trained for the Hearing Panel.

11. Informal Conference
a. Upon review of the investigation report and the investigation process, the organization may have the opportunity to resolve the issue informally. The Conduct Officer/Investigator would provide an Informal Conference in writing to the organization representatives for their consideration. The organization would agree to the outlined findings of responsibility for misconduct and the outlined sanctions. If there is a complaint, the Reporting Party must also agree to the informal conference. To participate in the Informal Conference process, the President and his/her Advisor(s) for the student organization must accept both the finding and the sanction. There is no appeal of signed informal conferences. Once completed, the Informal Conference completes the conduct process. The case will only be reopened if new materials, previously unavailable, are presented.

12. Pre-Hearing Process
a. In cases involving an Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel, the Pre-Hearing Process will be followed. Once the investigative process is complete, the student organization will be given notice of a Pre-Hearing Meeting. Should student organizations not participate in the Pre-Hearing, the conduct process may continue without their participation, including the assignment of allegations and the completion of an Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel. During this meeting, student organizations will be given the opportunity to review the Investigation Report, relevant evidence, and/or other documents/material to be used in the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel. Other documents may include notification of Respondent’s allegations, Panel composition, and Hearing Script. Following the Pre-Hearing, the President and his/her Advisor for the student organization will be notified, via the notification procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. (Notice) of a date, time, and location for the Hearing.

b. While students may identify errors in their own statements during the Pre-Hearing, they are not able to add additional information to the Investigation Report unless that information, in the judgment of the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, was unavailable during the investigative process and is pertinent to the consideration of the case. If a student discovers new, previously unavailable information during the time after the Pre-Hearing but before the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel, the student should inform the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator immediately. If the new information is pertinent to the consideration of the case, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will determine whether the new information should be included in the Investigation Report or presented verbally during the Administrative or Panel Hearing. If there is new evidence introduced, other involved parties would also be given the opportunity to provide a response to any new evidence that will be presented in the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel.

c. The conduct process is designed to be non-adversarial. Student organization representatives will be permitted to question the statements and evidence presented by the other involved parties, but may not do so directly. After reviewing the Investigation Report, during the Pre-Hearing, the Complainant and Respondent will have the opportunity to question the statements and evidence presented by the other involved parties, via the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, who will pose the questions and supplement the Investigation Report.

NOTE: Questions that are deemed objectionable, inappropriate, and/or irrelevant by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may be rejected.

d. Student organizations may indicate whether an Administrative Hearing, Hearing Panel, or Sanction Only Hearing is preferred. However, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator has the sole discretion in all cases to designate whether an Administrative Hearing, Panel Hearing, or Sanction Only Hearing will be held notwithstanding the student’s preference.

e. In cases requiring a Hearing Panel, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator will share the list of faculty, staff, and students trained for Hearing Panels. Student organization representatives will be given the opportunity to request to strike any member of the Hearing Panel whose impartiality may be in question. In order to strike a member of the Hearing Panel, the student organization representative must provide the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator with a reasonable and substantiated rationale for the request. Once the composition of the Hearing Panel is set, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will schedule the Panel Hearing.

f. At the discretion of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, a review of the conduct case may occur at any point during the investigation or conduct process for clarification of procedural processes and may remand to investigation or adjudication if deemed necessary.

13. Hearings

Upon completion of the initial inquiry/investigation, after the allegation(s) have been assigned, and proper notice has been given to the student organization, the University may proceed to conduct either an Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel and issue a finding and accompanying sanctions, if applicable. The Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel may be held and a decision made, regardless of whether the student organization responds, fails to respond, attends the Hearing, or fails to attend the Hearing. Should the student organization fail to attend the Administrative Hearing or Hearing Panel, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator or the Hearing Panel may consider the information contained in the Investigation Report, relevant evidence, and/or other documents/materials and render a decision. Student organization conduct processes are typically adjudicated by a Panel Hearing. If the student organization accepts responsibility for the allegations issued in the Investigation Report, the student organization may request a Sanction Only Hearing.

Hearings are closed to the public. In cases involving another student (a Complainant) and/or a violation of Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others) of the Code of Student Conduct, both the Complainant and Respondent have the right to be present at the formal hearing; however, they do not have the right to be present during deliberations. Arrangements will be made so that the Complainant and Respondent do not physically have to be in the Hearing room at the same time. To request changes in the scheduled Hearing time, students should contact the Office of Student Affairs or designee.

The University will attempt to facilitate reasonable questioning of involved parties throughout the investigation and conduct process.

An In Absentia decision may be rendered by the appointed hearing body after proper notice has been given to the student organization, and the student organization has failed to respond within the allotted timeframe to meet with an investigator.

Student organizations are typically represented by the current President and an advisor.

In situations where the organization no longer has a current student representing the organization, the conduct process will continue with the information available at the time. Organizations with international regional, or local advisory staff or volunteers with a long-term interest in the organization’s recognition at the University may be allowed to participate in the resolution of conduct processes when a current student is no longer able to represent the organization.

a. Administrative Hearing
An Administrative Hearing is the process of adjudicating allegations of violations of the Code of Student Conduct by an Administrative Hearing Officer. The Administrative Hearing Officer in an Administrative Hearing may be the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator that completed the Investigation Report, or an Administrative Hearing Officer assigned by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee. The Administrative Hearing Officer makes the decision of responsibility and assigns a sanction, as appropriate.

Written notification of the outcomes of the Administrative Hearing should be provided to the student within five (5) University business days of the conclusion of the Administrative Hearing. Decisions made through the Administrative Hearing may be appealed by students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section C.15.

b. Panel Hearing
For each Panel Hearing a panel of three (3) Hearing Panel members will be chosen from the available pool by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, or designee. Typically, the Hearing Panel will be comprised of one student, one faculty member, and one staff member. (*Note students are not utilized in a Title IX Hearing Panel). Availability may determine a different composition for the Hearing Panel. For allegations involving Part I, Section B.1.a. (Academic Misconduct), the Panel will be comprised of only students and faculty members. For cases involving Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others) or other sensitive issues, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will appoint three (3) Administrative Hearing Officers from the pool of available members for the Hearing Panel.

Administrative Hearing Officers who served as Investigators for the case being heard by a Hearing Panel may not serve as either a voting member of the Hearing Panel or as the non-voting Resource Person and will only participate as the Investigator in the Panel Hearing.

All Hearing proceedings, excluding deliberations of the Hearing Panel, will be recorded by the University.

During the Panel Hearing, a designated Resource Person will facilitate the Hearing process.

The Executive Director of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee will appoint a Panel Resource Person to serve as non-voting participant in the Panel Hearing. The Panel Resource Person will be a trained University staff member who may:

- Prepare the Panel Hearing materials.
- Record the Panel Hearing proceedings.
- Escort participants into the Hearing room, grant breaks for participants, and distribute evidentiary materials.
- Ensure proper decorum throughout the Panel Hearing.
- Ensure the procedural soundness of the Panel Hearing.
- Provide student conduct history as well as any documented Policy Clarifications issued to the Respondent, during the sanctioning phase, if necessary.
- Transcribe the findings of the Hearing Panel.
- Compile the post-Hearing documentation.
- Deliver notification to student parties.

The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator presents the Investigation Report, evidence, witnesses, allegation(s), and questions for deliberation. Both the Complainant and Respondent have the right to add or make additional comments about the facts of the case. The Hearing Panel may question the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses. The Complainant and Respondent may not question each other or witnesses directly, but may pose questions through the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. Should new evidence be presented without prior discussion with the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, the Hearing may be halted to consider the inclusion of this information. Impact statements will also be halted if they are shared prior to the sanctioning phase of the Hearing. In the event the Resource Person of the Hearing Panel removes a student due to misconduct (Complainant, Respondent, or witnesses), the alleged misconduct will be forwarded to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for additional processing as appropriate.

Following the Hearing, the Hearing Panel will deliberate and will render a decision in regard to the alleged misconduct as well as decide any sanctions, if applicable. The Investigator will provide information during sanctioning related to any previous conduct history, self-sanctioning occurring with the organization, and general information about the organization’s activities and participation at Angelo State University to help the panel determine appropriate sanctioning.

Should the Hearing Panel have any questions for the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, the Complainant, and/or the Respondent, the Hearing Panel will reconvene so that all parties have the opportunity to respond and be present for other parties’ responses.

Outcomes of the Hearing Panel will be provided simultaneously to the student(s) in writing within five (5) University business days of the conclusion of the Panel Hearing. Decisions made through the Hearing Panel may be appealed by students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section C.15.

c. Sanction Only Hearing

If the student organization accepts responsibility for the allegations issued in the Investigation Report, the student organization may request a Sanction Only Hearing, by either a Hearing Officer or a Hearing Panel. During a Sanction Only Hearing, the Investigation Report and finding are presented to the Hearing body by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator. During presentation of the Investigation Report and finding, the Complainant and Respondent are not allowed to dispute the facts or details of the case. Both the Complainant and Respondent may provide impact statements prior to sanctioning. Mitigating factors as well as character statements may be presented by the student organization spokesperson and may be considered by the Hearing body. Written notification of the Sanction Only Hearing will be provided to the student organization within five (5) University working days of the conclusion of the Sanction Only Hearing. Decisions made through the Sanction Only Hearing may be appealed by the student organizations by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part II, Section C.15. In Sanction Only Hearings, students may appeal the sanction(s), and can only appeal on the following grounds, “the sanction imposed substantially varies from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.” A student organization may choose a Hearing Panel for Sanction Only Hearing for potentially separable offenses.

14. Sanctions

A Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, or a Hearing Panel may impose sanctions as a result of an Informal Conference, Administrative Hearing, or Panel Hearing, when a student organization is found responsible. The potential sanctions are listed in the Sanctioning Grid in the Student Handbook, Appendix B. The grid is provided only as a guideline for administering sanctions by the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, or the Hearing Panel. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, Administrative Hearing Officer, and/or the Hearing Panel may deviate from the grid for sufficient reason.

The cooperation of an organization during the investigation and conduct process as well as any self-sanctioning or other required sanctioning will also be considered in the determination of sanctions.

Implementation of the disciplinary sanction(s) will not begin and are not deemed final until either the time for a disciplinary appeal has expired or until the disciplinary appeal process is exhausted. Sanctions agreed upon through the Informal Conference Process are final upon effectuation of the Informal Conference. When sanctions are final, appropriate University Administrators may be notified of the student organization’s sanctions. Upon the judgment of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee some cases resulting in sanctioning of suspension and expulsion may begin prior to the completion of the disciplinary appeal process. Findings and sanctions agreed upon through the Informal Conference Process are final and cannot be appealed.

If a student organization is found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct, sanctions may be imposed and can include, but is not limited to the following:

a. Disciplinary Reprimand
   The Disciplinary Reprimand is an official written notification that the action in question was misconduct. The disciplinary status of the organization is still good-standing.

b. Disciplinary Probation
   Disciplinary Probation is a period of time during which the organization’s conduct will be observed and reviewed. The organization must demonstrate the ability to comply with University policies and any other conditions/requirements stipulated for the period of probation. Further instance of misconduct during this time period may result in additional sanctions, conditions, and/or restrictions.

c. Deferred Disciplinary Suspension
   Deferred Disciplinary Suspension is a period of time where a Disciplinary Suspension may be deferred for a period of observation and review, but in no case will the Deferred Disciplinary Suspension be less than the remainder of the semester. Further instances of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct during this time period may result in immediate temporary suspension of organization activities and often result in suspension or expulsion. Deferred suspension often includes multiple conditions and restrictions for the organization to continue recognition with the University.

d. Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension
   Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension is a specific period of time in which a student organization’s registration with the University is suspended as well as privileges and benefits of registration. Suspended student organizations may not hold events or activities on campus, may not solicit or utilize University grounds or services to promote organizations or events or to recruit members, and may not utilize any other benefits or services provided to registered student organizations. If an international or regional organization suspends the charter of an organization, this results in a sanction no less than time-limited suspension for the time period of the suspended charter. Notification of disciplinary suspension of a student organization will indicate the date on which it begins and the earliest date the student organization’s application for registration will be considered. The Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may deny an application for registration if the organization’s misconduct during suspension would have warranted additional disciplinary action. If the student organization has failed to satisfy any sanction that was imposed prior to application for registration, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator may deny registration to the student organization. On a denial of student organization registration, the Student Conduct Officer/Investigator, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will set a date when another application for registration may again be made.

e. Disciplinary Expulsion
Disciplinary Expulsion occurs when the student organization is permanently separated from the University with no opportunity for future registration as a student organization.

f. Conditions
A condition is an additional component of a disciplinary sanction, usually an educational element assigned to occur in conjunction with a period of probation or deferred suspension or assigned to occur prior to returning from time-limited suspension. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Hosting educational programs or initiatives for the organization or community related to the misconduct.
- Requirements for additional training or advisement from Angelo State University staff, advisory boards, or other appropriate parties.
- Requirements for community service or other activities beneficial to the membership and associated with remedying the impact of behavior on the community.
- Restitution or compensation for loss, damage or injury, which may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
- Requirements for completion of membership reviews and providing updated rosters.
- Requirements to submit information about updated and improved organizational processes such as new member education plans or social event plans.

g. Restrictions
A restriction is an additional component of a disciplinary sanction, usually an educational restriction on organization activities that occurs during a time period of probations or deferred suspension or upon return from time-limited suspension. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Revocation of organization benefits such as eligibility for funding, eligibility to reserve rooms, and eligibility to solicit or hold events on campus; or
- Denial of participation or restrictions associated with participation in University activities as a student organization such as homecoming, recreational activities, and recruitment activities.

h. Required Notifications

Some organization misconduct requires additional notifications. Texas Education Code, Chapter 51.936 indicates that institutions of higher education shall distribute to each student enrolled at the institution, no later than the 14th day before the first class day of each fall or spring semester, a copy of, or an electronic link to a copy of, a report on hazing committed on or off campus by an organization registered with or recognized by the institution.

Each postsecondary educational institution shall develop and post in a prominent location on the institution’s Internet website a report on hazing committed on or off campus by an organization registered with or recognized by the institution. The report must include:

i. Information regarding each disciplinary action taken by the institution against an organization for hazing, and each finding of responsible of hazing by an organization, during the three years preceding the date on which the report is issued or updated, including:
   A. The name of the organization disciplined or found responsible;
   B. The date on which the incident occurred or the citation was issued, if applicable;
   C. The date on which the institution’s investigation into the incident, if any, was initiated;
   D. A general description of:
      • The incident;
      • The violations of the institution’s Code of Student Conduct;
      • The findings of the institution;
      • Any sanctions imposed by the institution on the organization;
   E. The date on which the institution’s disciplinary process was resolved;

ii. The report must be updated to include information regarding each disciplinary process not later than the 30th day after the date on which the disciplinary process is resolved; and

iii. The report may not include personally identifiable student information and must comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).
Each postsecondary educational institution shall provide to each student who attends the institution's student orientation a notice regarding the nature and availability of the report required under Texas Education Code, Chapter 51.936 and include the Internet website address to access the report.

A student organization spokesperson may, at any time, request a review of the sanctions in place in writing to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.

15. Disciplinary Appeals Procedures

a. A student organization may appeal the decision of a hearing or the sanction(s), condition(s), and restriction(s) imposed following a formal hearing by submitting a written petition for appeal to the designated appeal officers within five (5) University business days of receiving the written decision.

b. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will select an appeal officer in each case. The designated officer will be a trained University staff or faculty member who was wholly uninvolved in the original Conduct Process and will render a neutral, impartial, and unbiased decision.

c. Petitions for appeal must clearly identify the grounds for the appeal, together with the evidence upon which the appeal is based. A disagreement with the decision alone shall not constitute grounds for appeal.

d. The only proper grounds for appeal are as follows:
   i. A procedural [or substantive] error occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the Hearing (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.);
   ii. The discovery of new evidence, unavailable during the original Hearing or review of the case, which could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included; or
   iii. The sanctions imposed substantially vary from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.

e. In cases involving alleged misconduct involving Part I, Section B.1.b. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others), either the Complainant or Respondent may appeal the decision of the Hearing Panel. In such cases, the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will provide the request for appeal to the other party and provide opportunity for response.

f. The designated appeal officer will first review the appeal to determine if the appeal is timely and properly sets forth the appropriate grounds for appeal, with adequate accompanying evidence. If any of these requirements are not met, the appeal will be dismissed, and the decision will be final.
g. If the designated appeal officer determines that the sanctions imposed substantially vary from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions, the appeal identifies a procedural/substantive error or new evidence that was unavailable at the original Hearing, the appeal officer will then determine whether the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision of the Administrative Hearing Officer or Panel Hearing. If the designated appeal officer determines that the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision, they may:
   i. Modify the finding and/or increase, decrease, or otherwise modify the sanctions;
   ii. Remand the case to the original Hearing Panel;
   iii. Remand the case to a new Hearing Panel.

h. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student organization of the status of the appeal throughout the appellate process and shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student organization of the result of their appeal using written notification procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. within ten (10) University business days. If necessary, the designated appeal officer will notify the student organization should they need additional time to determine the outcome of the appeal. The decision of the designated appeal officer is final and cannot be appealed.

i. If the designated appeal officer remands the decision to a new Hearing Panel, the decision of that Hearing Panel is final and may not be appealed.

16. Student Organization Records
   a. All records concerning a student organization related to conduct processes will remain on file with the University for a minimum of seven (7) years from the date of the completion of the case via informal conference, formal hearing, and/or conduct appeal processes.

   b. Student organization records do not impact the content of individual student records for student organization members. A finding of responsibility of misconduct for student organizations does not indicate a finding of responsibility for individual students. Individual students are subject to their own conduct processes separate from the student organization process.

   c. Student organization conduct decisions and findings are shared with the international or regional headquarters or organizations as appropriate.

SECTION D: PROCEDURES FROM THE OFFICE OF TITLE IX COMPLIANCE
This section provides information regarding the University's policies on sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, public indecency, Sexual Misconduct, interpersonal violence, and stalking.

1. Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, and Title IX Policies at Angelo State University

The University is committed to providing and strengthening an educational, working, and living environment where students, faculty, staff, and visitors are free from sex discrimination of any kind. The University prohibits discrimination based on sex, which includes pregnancy, sexual orientation and gender identity, gender expression, and other types of Sexual Misconduct. Sexual Misconduct is a broad term encompassing all forms of gender-based harassment or discrimination and unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature. The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal (dating, domestic, or family) violence, sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex. Any acts that fall within the scope of this policy hereinafter are referred to as Sexual Misconduct. Discriminatory behavior is prohibited regardless of the manner in which it is exhibited, whether verbally, in writing, or electronically displayed or conveyed.

Policies outlined in this section may be found in Angelo State's Operating Policy 16.03 Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, and Title IX Policy and Complaint Procedure and in TTU System Regulation 07.06 Sexual Misconduct.

These policies apply to all University students and University employees, visitors, applicants for admission to or employment within the University, as well as University affiliates and others conducting business on the University campus. The University will take all reasonable steps to respond to complaints of Sexual Misconduct and restore or preserve equal access to the University's Education Programs or Activities, as appropriate.

The University expects all members of the University Community to comply with applicable laws and University policies. Members of the University Community who violate these policies and related laws may be subject to disciplinary action or sanctions, up to and including termination of employment, expulsion from the University, or being barred from University premises and events.

For complaints relating to discrimination, other than gender discrimination or discrimination based on sex, see Angelo State Operating Policy 16.02 Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy and Complaint Procedure for Violations of Employment and Other Laws or Part II, Section C.

The Title IX Coordinator or designee will assume responsibility for determining which policy should be utilized to address a report of Sexual Misconduct and will coordinate the appropriate processes. The following flowchart will be utilized to assist the Title IX Coordinator determining what policy will apply to the alleged misconduct.
All investigations and procedures will be conducted in a prompt timeframe and in an equitable and impartial manner. Investigations conducted under these policies are not criminal investigations. For all complaints related to Sexual Misconduct, the burden of proof shall be a preponderance of the evidence, which means more likely than not.

a. The Office of Title IX Compliance

The University has an Office of Title IX Compliance which includes the Title IX Coordinator who oversees the University’s compliance with Title IX and other state and federal laws related to Sexual Misconduct with the help of the Title IX Officer. The University has also designated Title IX Deputy Coordinators and a Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team that works alongside the Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team

The Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team are ASU faculty and staff members specifically trained about Title IX and Sexual Misconduct policies, offenses, investigation procedures, due process requirements, impartiality, conflicts of interest, informal resolution processes, and other state and federal laws that relate to Title IX and Sexual Misconduct. Members of the team may serve as Investigators or Hearing Panel Members in cases related to Title IX or Sexual Misconduct.
1. Sexual Misconduct and Title IX Investigators (Investigators): Two members of the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team may be designated to conduct a thorough, reliable, and equitable investigation of the reported Sexual Misconduct or Title IX allegation and compile the information gathered into an Investigative Report.

2. Sexual Misconduct and Title IX Hearing Panel Members (Hearing Panel Members): Three members of the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team (who did not serve as Investigators on the case) may be designated to serve as Hearing Panel Members during Hearings involving charges of Sexual Misconduct or Title IX violations. Hearing Panel Members are responsible for objectively evaluating all relevant evidence and rendering a determination regarding responsibility after a hearing is held. The Hearing Panel has the right and responsibility to ask questions and elicit information from parties and witnesses to aid in obtaining relative evidence both inculpatory and exculpatory. If a responsible finding is rendered, the Hearing Panel will determine sanctions.

If a person would like to file criminal charges for any alleged violations of criminal law, the definitions as set forth in state law may apply. 3. Reporting Allegations of Sexual Misconduct or Title IX Violations to the Title IX Coordinator

   a. How to Submit a Report

   Students and third parties are strongly encouraged to promptly report Sexual Misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. Any person may make a report in person, by mail, by phone, by email or by utilizing the online reporting form, or by any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the verbal or written report. Such a report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by utilizing the contact information below or via the online reporting form: http://angelo.edu/incident-form. When submitting the report, please include as many details as possible.

   Note that while you may submit an anonymous report it will greatly limit the ability for the Office of Title IX Compliance to investigate an alleged incident, collect evidence, and/or take action or otherwise address concerns.

b. After Submitting a Report

After receiving an inquiry or report, the Office of Title IX Compliance will contact the Complainant to discuss how the report will be responded to and/or addressed. Supportive Measures will be provided as deemed necessary. The Reporting Party will be contacted only if additional information is needed.

c. Employee’s Obligation to Report

University Employees (including student Employees) that, in the course and scope of their employment, witness or receive information regarding the occurrence of an incident that the Employee reasonably believes constitutes Sexual Misconduct must promptly report such incident and information to the University Title IX Coordinator or System Office of Equal Opportunity in accordance with Texas law.

d. Separate Reporting to Law Enforcement

Students may also report incidents of Sexual Misconduct to law enforcement, including University and local police. Complainants may choose to notify law enforcement and will be provided the assistance of the Office of Title IX Compliance in contacting the authorities if the individual wishes. To contact the University Police Department, call 325-942-2071. Complainants may also decline to notify law enforcement of incidents of Sexual Misconduct.

e. Victims Encouraged to seek Medical Care

An individual who experiences Sexual Misconduct is encouraged to seek medical care for treatment and preservation of evidence, if applicable, as soon as practicable after the incident. Preserving DNA evidence can be key to identifying the perpetrator in a sexual violence case. Victims can undergo a Sexual Assault Forensic Exam (SAFE) performed by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) to preserve physical evidence with or without police involvement. If possible, this should be done immediately. If an immediate medical exam is not possible, a SANE may still collect evidence several days following a sexual assault. With the examinee’s consent, the physical evidence collected during this medical exam can be used in a criminal investigation. To undergo a SAFE, go directly to the nearest emergency department that provides SAFE services.

f. Preservation of Evidence
An individual who experiences any form of Sexual Misconduct should also preserve other evidence relevant to the complained of activity, such as items of clothing, photographs, phone records, text messages, computer records, and other documents.

g.  Amnesty for Good Faith Actors

If a student enrolled at the University makes a report or Formal Complaint of sexual misconduct in good faith, the University may not take disciplinary action against that student for violation(s) of the University’s student conduct policy occurring at or near the time of the incident. This subsection does not apply to an individual who perpetrates or assists in the perpetration of the incident reported under these policies.

h.  Non-Disclosure of Private Information to Medical Providers

Absent consent from the Complainant, disclosures to a healthcare provider, mental health care provider, or other medical provider acting in the course and scope of their employment with the University shall only state the type of incident reported and may not include any information that would violate an expectation of privacy. These Employees are encouraged to provide Complainants with information and guidance regarding University reporting options and available resources. This subsection does not affect the Employee’s duty to report an incident under any other law or regulation under which they maintain their licensure.

i.  Deadline for Reporting

While employees must promptly fulfill their mandatory reporting obligations, for other individuals, there is no deadline for reporting incidents of Sexual Misconduct. However, to promote prompt and equitable review, the University encourages individuals with reports of Sexual Misconduct to come forward as soon as possible. Delays in reporting limit the ability to respond to Sexual Misconduct, collect evidence, and take effective action against persons accused of violating this regulation.

Note: If a Respondent has left campus, either by withdrawing or graduating, prior to a report being filed, the university’s ability to investigate and/or adjudicate may be limited.

4. Reporting Allegations of Sexual Misconduct or Title IX Violations to Confidential Resources

Students may make confidential reports to the University Counseling Center or to any of the resources outlined below.

Information may be shared by the clinical and/or medical provider only with the Complainant’s or Respondent’s consent.

5. Confidentiality

Angelo State University is committed to ensuring confidentiality during all stages of the Grievance Process. Confidentiality protections provided in this section apply to:

- The Complainant;
- The Reporting Party;
- An individual who sought guidance from the University concerning an incident;
- An individual who participated in the University’s investigation of an incident; or
- The Respondent, if after completing an investigation, the University determines the report to be unsubstantiated or without merit.

Unless waived in writing by the individual, the identity of aforementioned individuals:

- Is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code; and
- May be disclosed only to:
  1. University Employees or individuals under contract with the University to which the report is made who are necessary for an investigation of the report or other related hearings;
2. a law enforcement officer as necessary to conduct a criminal investigation of the report;
3. a health care provider in an emergency, as determined necessary by the University;
4. the Respondent, to the extent required by other law or regulation; and
5. potential witnesses to the incident as necessary to investigate of the report and to the extent required by other law or regulation.

In some exceptional circumstances, where the incident in question presents a continuing threat to the University Community, the University may be required to investigate irrespective of the Complainant’s desire to pursue allegations of student misconduct, and may be required to issue a “timely warning” to the campus community as required by the Clery Act. Timely warnings do not include personally identifiable information of involved parties.

Absent consent from the Complainant, disclosures to a healthcare provider, mental health care provider, or other medical provider acting in the course and scope of their employment with the University shall only state the type of incident reported and may not include any information that would violate an expectation of privacy. These Employees are encouraged to provide the Complainant, with information and guidance regarding University reporting options and available resources.

6. Student Rights and Responsibilities
Prior to a formal investigation a student will be provided a Student Rights and Responsibilities document. This document will be reviewed and signed by the student prior to an interview with the Investigator(s). The Students Rights and Responsibilities document informs the student of their rights to be exercised before and during the Grievance Process. Information gathered during the course of the investigation and hearing process may be shared only with faculty, staff, students, and/or advisors who are directly involved in the incident or necessary to the student conduct process. Information gathered may also be disclosed in compliance with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

a. Rights and Responsibilities of a Complainant or Respondent

b. Rights and Responsibilities of a Witness

c. Amnesty

The University may provide educational options in lieu of conduct proceedings in certain situations.

Examples of the amnesty provision include, but are not limited to:
1. Complainants, Reporting Parties, and/or Witnesses to misconduct who were engaging in policy violations, such as underage drinking or drug use at the time of the incident.
   - In investigations into matter of Sexual Misconduct, all involved parties may fall under this amnesty provision.

2. Students who offer assistance to others by calling medical personnel or law enforcement.

3. Students who bring their own use, addiction, or dependency to alcohol, drugs, or other addictions to the attention of the University prior to any conduct incidents or reports.

The University will not take any disciplinary action against a student who, in good faith, reports experiencing or witnessing an incident of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking, for a violation of the Code of Student Conduct occurring at or near the time of the incident, regardless of the location at which the incident occurred or the outcome of the Grievance Process regarding the incident.

The University reserves the right to investigate to determine whether a report related to Sexual Misconduct was made in good faith. After such investigation, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will make a determination as to whether a student is entitled to amnesty. Once a determination is made regarding amnesty for a student, such determination is final and may not be revoked.

Abuse of amnesty provisions can result in a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. Amnesty does not preclude students from being charged with allegations of misconduct related to Part II, section B.2. (Actions Against Members of the University Community and Others). The Code of Student Conduct amnesty provisions do not impact criminal proceedings or charges. Amnesty does not preclude students from being required to meet with University staff and to participate in conditions such as counseling and alcohol assessments, but the final determination regarding amnesty will be made by the Executive Director of Student Affairs, Title IX Coordinator, or designee.

d. Non-Retaliation

Retaliation against a person who reports a potential violation under these policies, assists someone with a report of a violation, or participates or refuses to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or other resolution of a complaint made under these policies is strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated. Retaliation includes, but is not limited to threats, intimidation, coercion, discrimination, reprisals, or adverse actions related to an individual’s employment or education. In addition, charges against an individual for the Code of Student Conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or Formal Complaint of Title IX Sexual Misconduct, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, constitutes retaliation. The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment does not constitute retaliation prohibited under this regulation.

The University will take appropriate steps to ensure that a person who, in good faith, reports, complains about, participates or refuses to participate in an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or other resolution pursuant to these policies will not be subjected to retaliation. Individuals who believe they are experiencing retaliation are strongly encouraged to report the incident to Office of Title IX Compliance.

Individuals who are found to have retaliated under this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, expulsion from the university, or being barred from university premises and events.

e. False Information

An individual found to have knowingly and in bad faith provided materially false information may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or separation from the University. A determination regarding responsibility alone is not sufficient to conclude that any party or witness made a materially false statement in bad faith.

7. Interim and Supportive Actions

The University will offer Supportive Measures to the parties in order to maintain an environment free from harassment, discrimination, or retaliation; protect the safety and well-being of the parties and the University Community; or restore or preserve equal access to the University's Education Program or Activity.

Additionally, the University may pursue emergency removal, altering the University status of the Respondent. Other Supportive Measures may be implemented and will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Supportive Measures may be kept in place through the conclusion of any review, investigation, resolution, or appeal process. Supportive Measures can be implemented regardless of whether or not the Complainant pursues a Formal Complaint or criminal action. The Office of Title IX Compliance is available to help students understand the Grievance Process and identify resources.

Remedies may be implemented after a determination of responsibility in Grievance Proceedings to restore and preserve equal educational opportunities to the Complainant.
The University will maintain confidentiality of any Supportive Measures provided to the parties to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the University to provide Supportive Measures.

a. Resources and General Supportive Measures

Resources include, but are not limited to, assistance from the Office of Title IX Compliance in reporting criminal behavior to the University Police Department or the San Angelo Police Department, referrals to the University Counseling Center, medical assistance, assistance in changing or modifying work situations, accessing campus escort services, increased monitoring of certain areas on campus, and other support services based on the individual student’s needs. The Office of Title IX Compliance is available to help students understand the Sexual Misconduct and Title IX process and identify resources regardless of the student’s desire to share details of the misconduct.

Local resources may be found by visiting http://www.angelo.edu/title-ix.

b. Academic Supportive Measures

The Office of Title IX Compliance can assist the Complainant or Respondent in modifying their academic situation including permissive withdrawal from or retake of a class without penalty; extensions of deadlines or other course related adjustments. Consistent with Texas law, a Complainant or Respondent who is the subject of an alleged incident of Sexual Misconduct will be allowed to drop a course in which they are both enrolled without any academic penalty.

c. No Contact Orders

When initial inquiry indicates persistent and potentially escalating conflict between two members of the University Community, a No Contact Order may be issued as a remedial, non-punitive deterrent to further conflict or situational complication. A No Contact Order will be issued by the Title IX Coordinator or designee via the student’s official Angelo State University e-mail or during a face-to-face meeting. The notice serves as an official directive that the student(s) have no contact with the other listed party or parties. Contact cannot occur in person, by telephone, e-mail, text message, or other electronic means of communication, or through a third party (other than an attorney). Should contact need to occur, the student should coordinate with the Title IX Coordinator or designee. This notice may also come with a Notice of Formal Complaint or other information related to changes in class schedule or other interim actions or restrictions to facilitate the No Contact Order. Failure to comply with the No Contact Order may result in disciplinary action, including possible suspension or expulsion. Violations of no contact orders may also result in Emergency Removal pending the completion of the investigation and resolution of the report. The term of a No Contact Order is indefinite, unless otherwise stated in the Order.
d. Interim Actions

In the event that the physical or emotional well-being of a student, other students, or members of the University Community could be endangered, or if the presence of the student could significantly disrupt the normal operations of the University, interim actions may be taken to protect the educational environment. These actions include, but are not limited to, temporary removal from Housing and Residential Programs, temporary changes in a student's academic schedule, and temporary restrictions from the University campus/facilities/events. Interim action is not a sanction and is preliminary in nature utilized in an effort to protect the University Community. Interim action is in effect only until the investigation and resolution of a complaint is complete. Students will be notified of interim actions through the official notice procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. in the Code of Student Conduct. However, a violation of an interim action may result in additional allegations of the Code of Student Conduct.

e. Emergency Removal

Where the University finds that a Respondent poses an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or individual, the University may remove the Respondent prior to the conclusion of the Grievance Process to protect the safety of the University Community where an immediate threat exists. The University shall conduct an individualized safety and risk analysis to determine if an individual poses such an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual arising from the allegations of Sexual Misconduct that justifies removal. The University shall provide the Respondent with notice utilizing the official notice procedures outlined in Part I, Section A.3. in the Code of Student Conduct. Respondents will be given an immediate opportunity to challenge the decision in writing to the Title IX Coordinator immediately following the removal. Regardless of the status of the student’s removal, the University may proceed with the Grievance Process.

Conduct, on or off-campus, that may result in Emergency Removal include:

- A significant and articulable threat to the health or safety of a student or other member(s) of the University community that is deemed a continuous threat;
- Sexual assault, other forms of Sexual Misconduct, stalking, and relationship violence that are creating a hostile environment for the Complainant and the remedy for the behavior requires temporary separation;
- Criminal felony charges related to weapons, drugs, aggravated assault, and/or terroristic threats;
- Severe disruption in the academic community related to erratic behavior, threats, property damage, and/or verbal aggression with another student, where the offending student is uncooperative with staff requests;
• Violation of a No Contact Order;
• Retaliatory harm, discrimination, or harassment.

An Emergency Removal may prohibit the student from one or more of the following: attending class(es), using University services and/or resources, and/or not being allowed on campus until the Grievance Process has concluded. At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator or designee and with the approval of, and in collaboration with, the appropriate Dean(s), alternative coursework options may be pursued to ensure as minimal an impact as possible on the Respondent.

f. Non-Student Supportive Measures

Any guest to the University who is alleged to have violated University policies and/or is deemed to pose a threat to the physical and/or emotional well-being of a student or other members of the University community and/or the presence of an individual could significantly disrupt the normal operations of the University, the Title IX Coordinator or designee, in conjunction with the University Police Department, may issue a Criminal Trespass Warning to that individual(s).

g. Withdraw

Subject to Federal Law the Complainant or Respondent who are working with the Office of Title IX Compliance to address an allegation of Sexual Misconduct will be allowed to drop a course in which they are both enrolled without any academic penalty.

If a student withdraws or graduates from the University pending a disciplinary charge alleging the student violated the University’s Code of Student Conduct by committing sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking, the institution:

1. May not end the disciplinary process or issue a transcript to the student until the institution makes a final determination of responsibility; and
2. Shall expedite the institution’s disciplinary process as necessary to accommodate both the Complainant’s and Respondent’s interest in a speedy resolution.
3. On request by another institution, the University shall provide to the requesting institution information relating to a determination that a student enrolled violated the institution’s code of conduct by committing sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking.

8. Options in Addressing Reports of Title IX and Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct

After receiving a report, the Office of Title IX Compliance will reach out to the individual deemed the Complainant via their official Angelo State email to request that the student schedule an appointment with the Office of Title IX Compliance to further discuss the report received. This meeting will allow the Office of Title IX Compliance to discuss the student’s options in addressing the report and discuss the availability and implementation of Supportive Measures. When health and safety of the student is potentially at risk, the Office of Title IX Compliance may call the student on the phone number listed in their student record. In the event that the student does not respond, the Office of Title IX Compliance will send a second email in an attempt to connect with the student.

The Complainant is not required to respond or participate in any meetings with the Office of Title IX Compliance. If the Complainant does not return contact or requests to not meet with the Office of Title IX Compliance, the case may be closed.

If the Complainant requests only Supportive Measures, the Office of Title IX Compliance will contact the appropriate campus parties to address the student’s needs. If a Complainant wishes to make a statement, file a formal complaint or otherwise utilize a process to address Sexual Misconduct the Office of Title IX Compliance will schedule an intake meeting with the Complainant. At this time the Title IX Coordinator will evaluate the information provided by the student and determine if the report involves Title IX Sexual Misconduct or Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct.

If the Complainant requests the institution not to investigate the incident reported to the University, the University may investigate the incident in the same manner that an anonymous complaint may be investigated. In determining whether to investigate the incident, the institution shall consider:

- The seriousness of the incident;
- Whether the University has received other reports of Sexual Misconduct committed by the alleged perpetrator or perpetrators;
- Whether the incident poses a risk of harm to others;
- Whether the allegations involved violence, use of weapons, or other similar factors; and
- Any other factors the University determines relevant.

If the University decides not to investigate an incident of Sexual Misconduct based on the Complainant’s request not to investigate, the University shall take any steps the University determines necessary to protect the health and safety of the University Community in relation to the alleged incident.

The University shall inform a Complainant whether the University will conduct an investigation into the incident.

In implementing the processes outlined in this section, the University will, to the greatest extent practicable, ensure equal access for students enrolled at or employees of the institution who are persons with disabilities. The Office of Title IX Compliance will make reasonable efforts to consult with Student Disability Services to assist students with any particular needs.
Note: The Title IX Coordinator or designee may proceed with the Grievance Process (even if the Complainant(s) chooses not to participate) on a case-by-case basis if the alleged behavior involves pattern, predation, threat, or violence (PPTV) that may significantly impact the campus community and others.

The options to address a reported violation of this policy include:

a. Referral Meeting

The Office of Title IX Compliance may request a meeting with a student in order to discuss a referral made to the Office of Title IX Compliance when the referral may not include information that indicates there is reasonable belief a violation of the Code of Student Conduct occurred, but when the Office of Title IX Compliance determines the referral warrants a discussion. The purpose of the discussion is to clarify concerns of the involved parties, to offer assistance to all involved parties, and to explain to the student that repeated referrals may warrant a Formal Investigation which may warrant adjudication. This meeting may also include a Policy Clarification, which is written notice provided to a student when it is determined that the information reported does not warrant an allegation but may warrant notice to the involved parties to clarify the policy in question.

b. Formal Complaint (Initiation of Grievance Process)

A Formal Complaint is a document signed by a Complainant or the Title IX Coordinator alleging Sexual Misconduct against a Respondent requesting that the University investigate the allegation(s) of Sexual Misconduct. While incidents may be reported by any third party, only the Complainant or Title IX Coordinator may initiate the Grievance Process by filing the Formal Complaint. A Formal Complaint is also required for any individuals wishing to pursue an Informal Resolution.

When a Formal Complaint is filed, the Office of Title IX Compliance will provide written notice to the Respondent with sufficient time for the Respondent to prepare a response before an initial interview. The Notice of Formal Complaint includes information about the Grievance Process, the Informal Resolution Process, the allegations and any details known at the time, such as the name of the Complainant, and the location, date and time of the alleged incident(s), and the specific section(s) of the Code of Student Conduct the Respondent is alleged to have violated. The Complainant also receives a copy of the Notice of Formal Complaint.

1. Review of Formal Complaint

When a Formal Complaint is received, Office of Title IX Compliance will evaluate jurisdiction and mandatory and discretionary dismissal described below, assess appropriate Supportive Measures for both parties, evaluate the need for Emergency Removal, and initiate the Grievance Process.

a. Mandatory Dismissal – The Title IX Coordinator shall dismiss a Formal Complaint in the following situations:

1. For Title IX Sexual Misconduct:
   - The allegation does not describe conduct that would constitute Title IX Sexual Misconduct as defined, even if proven;
   - The Title IX Sexual Misconduct did not occur in the University’s Education Program or Activity; or
   - The Title IX Sexual Misconduct did not occur against a person in the United States.
2. For Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct
   - The allegation does not describe conduct that would constitute Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct as defined, even if proven.
   - The Respondent is not a member of the University Community

b. Permissive Dismissal – The Title IX Coordinator may dismiss a Formal Complaint in the following situations:

1. The Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that they wish to withdraw the Formal Complaint or some allegations in the Formal Complaint;
2. The Respondent is no longer enrolled in or employed by the University; or
3. Circumstances exist that prevent the University from gathering sufficient evidence to reach a determination as to the Formal Complaint or the allegations.

c. Application of other Policies Upon Dismissal – If the Title IX Coordinator dismisses a Formal Complaint or any of the allegations in the Complaint, the office must promptly send written notice of the dismissal and reason(s) for the dismissal simultaneously to the Complainant and Respondent. Dismissal of a Title IX Sexual Misconduct Formal Complaint does not preclude utilizing the Grievance Process to address Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct.

d. Appeal of Dismissal Decision – Any party can appeal the dismissal decision following the criteria and procedures listed below under Appeals.

e. Right to Consolidate Complaints – The University may consolidate Formal Complaints as to the allegations of Title IX Sexual Misconduct:

1. Against more than one Respondent;
2. By more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents; or
3. By one party against another party where the allegations of Title IX Sexual Misconduct arise out of the same facts.
4. If one or more of the consolidated Formal Complaints involve allegations of Title IX Sexual Misconduct, then the consolidated Complaint must proceed under the Title IX Sexual Misconduct Grievance Process.

Formal Investigation

c. Options in Resolving Formal Complaint

1. Informal Resolution

After the Complainant and Respondent have been provided written notice of a Formal Complaint, the Office of Title IX Compliance may offer and facilitate the Informal Resolution Process. The procedures utilized in the Informal Resolution process must be agreed upon by obtaining the parties voluntary, written consent, with concurrence from the Title IX Coordinator or designee. The parties must agree in writing to all aspects of any resolution reached through the Informal Resolution process including any restrictions, sanctions, or conditions as may be agreed upon by the parties with concurrence from the Title IX Coordinator or designee, and any such resolution will be binding and final with no opportunity to appeal. Either party may withdraw from the Informal Resolution process at any time prior to the final resolution and resume the Grievance Process with respect to the Formal Complaint. Informal Resolution agreements will be maintained in accordance with University policies. Should either party violate the terms of the resolution, the matter may be referred to the Office of Student Conduct.

The University will not require any person to participate in the Informal Resolution Process and will not condition enrollment, employment, or enjoyment of any other right or privilege upon agreeing to the Informal Resolution Process. Any party may withdraw from the Informal Resolution Process at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution and resume the Grievance Process with respect to the Formal Complaint.

2. Informal Conference

An Informal Conference is a form of Informal Resolution. If after the Investigation, the Respondent accepts responsibility for the allegations of the Code of Student Conduct which may be outlined in an Investigation Report, the student can choose to resolve the issue informally. Should the student wish to participate in the Informal Conference process, the Complainant and the Respondent must accept both the finding and the sanctions as recommended by the Office of Title IX Compliance. If accepted, the process ends, the finding is final, and there is no appeal. The case will only be reopened if new material, previously unavailable, is presented.
Written notification of the outcomes and sanctions, if applicable, of the Informal Conference will be provided simultaneously to the student(s) and appropriate University Administrators within five (5) university working days of the effectuation of the Informal Conference.

3. Hearings:
These are two processes for a formal Hearing, one will be utilized for Title IX Sexual Misconduct the other will be utilized for Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct. For either type of Hearing, students will first complete the Pre-Hearing Process.

a. Pre-Hearing Process

In cases involving a Hearing, the Pre-Hearing Process will be followed. Once the investigation process is complete, the Complainant and Respondent will be given notice of a Pre-Hearing Meeting. Should students choose not to participate in the Pre-Hearing, the Grievance Process may continue without their participation, including the completion of a Hearing. During this meeting, students will be given equitable access to review various documents including the Hearing Panel composition, Hearing Script, Opening, Closing, and Impact Statements, and Appeal Procedures. Following the Pre-Hearing, students and their advisors will be notified of a date, time, and location of the Hearing via written Notification of Hearing sent to the student's official assigned Angelo State University email address, delivered via Certified Mail to the student's last known address, or personally delivered to the student. University email is the University's primary means of communication with students. Students are responsible for all communication delivered to their University email address.

While students may identify errors in their own statements during the Pre-Hearing, they are not able to add additional information to the Investigation Report unless that information, in the judgment of the Investigator(s), was unavailable during the investigative process and is pertinent to the consideration of the case. If a student discovers new, previously unavailable information during the time after the Pre-Hearing but before the Hearing, the student should inform the Investigator(s) immediately. If the new information is pertinent to the consideration of the case, the Investigator(s) will determine whether the new information should be included in the Investigation Report or presented verbally during the Hearing. If there is new evidence introduced, other involved parties would also be given the opportunity to provide a response to any new evidence that will be presented in the Panel Hearing.

If the Respondent voluntarily accepts responsibility for the charges issued in the Investigation Report, the Respondent may request a Sanction Only Hearing. However, the Investigator(s) has the sole discretion in all cases to designate whether a Hearing Panel or Sanction Only Hearing will be held notwithstanding the student's preference.

In cases requiring a Hearing Panel, the Investigator(s) will share the list of Panel members from the Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Response Team. One member of a Hearing for Title IX Sexual Misconduct will be the Title IX Hearing Officer. The Title IX Hearing Officer will oversee and conduct the hearing and chair the Hearing Panel. (See System Regulation 07.06.A Attachment 2 for more information). Students will be given the opportunity to request to strike any member of the Hearing Panel whose impartiality may be in question. In order to strike a member of the Hearing Panel, the student must provide the Investigator(s) with a reasonable and substantiated rationale for the request. Once the composition of the Hearing Panel is set, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will schedule the Panel Hearing.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator or designee, a review of the investigation may occur at any point during the investigation process for clarification of procedural processes and may remand for further investigation or adjudication if deemed necessary.

The Grievance Process is designed to be non-adversarial. Students will be permitted to question the statements and evidence presented by the other involved parties. In Title IX Hearings, the Title IX Advisor will conduct cross-examination on behalf of the party. In Non-Title IX Hearings, the student will pose the questions and supplement the Investigation Report via the Investigator.

Note: Questions that are deemed objectionable, inappropriate, and/or irrelevant may be rejected.

b. Title IX Sexual Misconduct Hearing

System Regulation 07.06.A Attachment 2 outlines the full Title IX Sexual Misconduct Hearing Procedures.

The University will appoint a four-member Hearing Panel. The Title IX Hearing Officer will be one of the four members and will serve as the Hearing Panel Chair. The Hearing Panel will be the decision-maker that objectively evaluates all relevant evidence and renders a determination regarding responsibility after the live hearing. The determination regarding responsibility will be made by a majority vote of the Hearing Panel. The Hearing Panel will not include the Title IX Coordinator or an Investigator involved in the matters considered at the Hearing. The Hearing Panel has the right and responsibility to ask questions and elicit information from parties and witnesses on its own initiative to aid in obtaining relevant evidence both inculpatory and exculpatory.

All parties, witnesses, and other participants in a Hearing must be physically or virtually present in a manner where all participants can simultaneously see and hear each other. Statements of a party or witness that is not present and subject to cross-examination at the Hearing will not be relied on in making a determination of responsibility.

Each Complainant and Respondent shall have an advisor of their choice present at the Hearing. Each party must notify the Office of Title IX Compliance at least ten (10) days prior to the Hearing whether the party intends to select and bring an advisor of their choice to the Hearing. If a Complainant or Respondent does not have an advisor of their choice present at the Hearing, the University will provide without fee or charge an advisor of the University’s choice. The advisors’ only permissible roles at the Hearing are to advise the party and to conduct cross-examination on behalf of the party.

The University will adopt rules of order and decorum provided for and enforced by the Title IX Hearing Officer. Such rules will include, but are not limited to, time limits, hearing order, and requirements that participants not badger a witness, and repetition of the same question may be deemed irrelevant by the Hearing Officer; no party be asked questions in an abusive or intimidating manner; and questioning shall be relevant, respectful, and non-abusive. Each Hearing shall be no more than four (4) hours in length, unless the Hearing Officer determines that exceptional circumstances exist justifying a longer Hearing.

The University will create a record of the Hearing and make it available to the parties for inspection and review upon request.

At the direction of the Hearing Officer, Complainants and Respondents will have an opportunity to offer their own opening and closing statement, subject to time limits set by the Hearing Officer.

Each party will have an opportunity to present evidence to the Hearing Panel. The Hearing Officer will be responsible or making determinations regarding evidence, including relevance. Information that will be deemed not relevant includes, without limitation, information protected by a legally recognized privilege; questions or evidence about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior (unless offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct alleged by the Complainant, or if the questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior with respect to the Respondent and are offered to prove consent); any party’s medical, psychological, or similar records (unless the party has given voluntary, written consent); and party or witness statements that have not been subjected to cross-examination at the Hearing. If a party or witness does not attend or refuses to answer cross-examination, the Hearing Panel cannot draw an inference regarding responsibility based solely on that absence or refusal to answer.

Direct Examination may be conducted by the Title IX Hearing Officer or the Hearing Panel. Cross-examination must be conducted directly orally, and in real time by the party's advisor of choice and never by a party personally. Only relevant cross-examination and other questions, including those challenging credibility, may be asked of a party or witness. Before a participant answers a cross-examination or other question, the Title IX Hearing Officer must first determine whether the question is relevant and explain any decision to exclude a question as not relevant.

After a determination regarding responsibility and before a decision regarding Sanctions, the Hearing Panel may request, and the parties may provide impact statements for consideration.

After the Hearing, the Hearing Panel will issue a written determination regarding responsibility that will include: (1) identification of the allegations potentially constituting Title IX Sexual Misconduct; (2) a description of the procedural steps taken throughout the Grievance Process; (3) findings of fact supporting the determination regarding responsibility; (4) conclusions regarding the application of the University’s applicable conduct policy to the facts of the alleged conduct; (5) a statement of and rationale for the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary Sanctions imposed on the Respondent, and whether Remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s Education Program or Activity will be provided by the University to the Complainant; (6) a statement that the University’s procedures are permissible bases to for the Complainant and Respondent to appeal; and (7) a statement that the determination may be appealed by the parties following the procedures listed below. The written determination of responsibility becomes final when the time period to file an appeal has expired, or when the appeal decision has been sent to the parties.

c. Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct Hearings

In cases involving Non-Title IX Sexual Misconduct the University may proceed to conduct a Hearing Panel and issue a finding and accompanying sanctions, if applicable.

For a Hearing Panel a panel of three (3) members of the Sexual Misconduct and Title IX Response Team will be chosen from the available pool by the Title IX Coordinator or designee. One additional member of the team will be chosen as an alternate and be prepared to serve if needed.
Members of the Sexual Misconduct and Title IX Response Team who served as Investigator(s) for the case being heard by a Hearing Panel may not serve as either a voting member of the Hearing Panel or as the non-voting Resource Person and will only participate as the Investigator in the Panel Hearing.

All Hearing proceedings, excluding deliberations of the Hearing Panel, will be recorded by the University.

During the Panel Hearing, a designated Resource Person will facilitate the Hearing process.

The Title IX Coordinator or designee will appoint a Resource Person to serve as a non-voting participant in the Panel Hearing. The Resource Person will be a trained University staff member who may:

- Prepare the Panel Hearing materials;
- Record the Panel Hearing proceedings;
- Escort participants into the Hearing room, grant breaks for participants, and distribute evidentiary materials;
- Ensure proper decorum throughout the Panel Hearing;
- Ensure the procedural soundness of the Panel Hearing;
- Provide student conduct history as well as any documented Policy Clarifications issued to the Respondent, during the sanctioning phase, if necessary;
- Transcribe the findings of the Hearing Panel;
- Compile the post-Hearing documentation;
- Deliver notification to the parties.

Hearings are closed to the public. Both the Complainant and Respondent have the right to be present at the Hearing; however, they do not have the right to be present during deliberations. Arrangements can be made so that the Complainant and Respondent do not have to physically be in the Hearing room at the same time, arrangements can be made for the parties to participate electronically, from another room, etc. To request changes in the scheduled Hearing time or other accommodations students should contact the Office of Title IX Compliance prior to the scheduled Hearing.

During the Hearing, the Investigator(s) presents the Investigation Report, evidence, witnesses, allegation(s), and questions for deliberation. Both the Complainant and Respondent have the right to add or make additional comments about the facts of the case. The Hearing Panel may question the Investigator, Complainant, Respondent, and any witnesses. The Complainant and Respondent may not question each other or witnesses directly, but may pose questions through the Investigator or Resource Person. Should new evidence be presented without prior discussion with the Investigator, the Hearing may be halted to consider the inclusion of this information. Impact statements will also be halted if they are shared prior to the sanctioning phase of the Hearing. In the event the Resource Person removes a student due to misconduct (Complainant, Respondent, or witnesses), the alleged misconduct will be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct.

Following the Hearing, the Hearing Panel will deliberate and will render a decision in regard to the alleged misconduct. After a determination regarding responsibility and before a decision regarding Sanctions, the Hearing Panel may request, and the parties may provide impact statements for consideration. Should the Hearing Panel have any questions for the Investigator, The Office of Title IX Compliance, the Complainant and/or the Respondent, the Hearing Panel will reconvene so that all parties have the opportunity to respond and be present for other parties’ responses.

Outcomes of the Hearing Panel will be provided to the student(s) simultaneously in writing within five (5) University business days of the conclusion of the Panel Hearing. Decisions made through the Hearing Panel may be appealed by students by utilizing the Appeal Procedures outlined below.

d. Sanction Only Hearing

If the student accepts responsibility for the charges issued in the Investigation Report, the student may request a Sanction Only Hearing, by the Hearing Panel. During a Sanction Only Hearing, the Investigation Report and finding are presented to the Hearing Panel by the Investigator(s). During presentation of the Investigation Report and finding, the Complainant and Respondent are not allowed to dispute the facts or details of the case. Both the Complainant and Respondent be present and both the Complainant and Respondent may provide impact statements prior to sanctioning. Written notification of the outcome of the Sanction Only Hearing will be provided simultaneously to the students within five (5) University working days of the conclusion of the Sanction Only Hearing. Decisions made through the Sanction Only Hearing may be appealed by the students by utilizing the Disciplinary Appeal Procedures outlined in Part I, Section E.9. In Sanction Only Hearings, students may appeal the sanction(s), and can only appeal on the following grounds, “the sanction imposed substantially varies from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.” A student may only choose a Hearing Panel for Sanction Only Hearings for potentially separable offenses.

9. Sanctions

When a student is found responsible of a violation of the Code of Student Conduct sanctions may be imposed. The potential sanctions are listed in the Code of Student Conduct grid in Appendix B. The grid is provided only as a guideline for administering sanctions by the Investigator or Hearing Panel. The Investigator or Hearing Panel may deviate from the grid for sufficient reason.

Implementation of the disciplinary sanction(s) will not begin and are not deemed final until either the time for a disciplinary appeal has expired or until the disciplinary appeal process is exhausted. When sanctions are final, appropriate University Administrators may be notified of the student’s sanctions. Upon the judgment of the Title IX Coordinator or designee, some cases resulting in sanctioning of Suspension and Expulsion may begin prior to the completion of the disciplinary appeal process. Findings and sanctions agreed upon through the Voluntary Resolution Process are final and cannot be appealed.

All records related to the disciplinary process will remain on file for a minimum of seven (7) years from the date the case is completed through an Informal Resolution, a Hearing Panel, Sanction Only Hearing, and/or Disciplinary Appeal Procedures in Part I, Section E.9. All records related to the disciplinary process resulting in Suspension and/or Expulsion will remain on file indefinitely.

If a student is found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct, sanctions may be imposed and can include, but are not limited to, the following:

a. Disciplinary Reprimand

The Disciplinary Reprimand is an official written notification using the notice procedures outlined to the student that the action in question was misconduct.

b. Disciplinary Probation

Disciplinary Probation is a period of time which a student’s conduct will be observed and reviewed. The student must demonstrate the ability to comply with University policies, rules, and/or standards and any other requirement stipulated for the probationary period. Further instances of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct during this period may result in additional conditions, restrictions, and/or sanctions.

c. Deferred Disciplinary Suspension

Deferred Disciplinary Suspension is a period of time where a Disciplinary Suspension may be deferred for a period of observation and review, but in no case will the Deferred Disciplinary Suspension be less than the remainder of the semester. Further instances of misconduct under the Code of Student Conduct during this period may result in additional sanctions.

d. Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension

Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension is a specific period of time in which a student is not allowed to participate in class, University related activities, or be present on campus property. The status of Disciplinary Suspension will be shown on the student’s academic record, including the transcript. Time-Limited Disciplinary Suspension is noted on the student’s transcript by the phrase “Disciplinary Suspension” and will include the period of time in which the student is/was suspended from the University. In most cases, the notation of disciplinary suspension will remain on the transcript permanently. A student has the ability to petition to remove a Disciplinary Suspension notation in the following instances: 1) the student is eligible to reenroll in the institution or 2) the Title IX Coordinator, or designee determines that a good cause exists to remove the notation. A Disciplinary Suspension of a student will indicate the date on which the suspension period begins and the earliest date the application for student readmission will be considered. The Title IX Coordinator or designee may deny a student’s readmission, if the student’s misconduct during the suspension would have warranted additional disciplinary action or if the student has failed to satisfy any sanction that was imposed prior to application for readmission. On denial of a student’s readmission, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will set a date when another application for readmission may again be made. An administrative hold will be placed on the student’s record to prevent registration during the Disciplinary Suspension.

e. Disciplinary Expulsion

Disciplinary Expulsion occurs when the student is permanently withdrawn and separated from the University. The status of Disciplinary Expulsion will be shown permanently on the student’s academic record, including the transcript. Disciplinary Expulsion is noted on the student’s transcript by the phrase “Disciplinary Expulsion” and the date in which the student’s expulsion was effective. In most instances, the notation of Disciplinary Expulsion will remain on the transcript permanently. A student may petition in writing to remove a Disciplinary Expulsion notation in the following instances: 1) the student is eligible to reenroll in the institution or 2) the Title IX Coordinator or designee determines that good causes exists to remove the notation. An administrative hold will be placed on the student record by the Title IX Coordinator or designee to prevent future registration.

f. Conditions

A condition is an educational or personal element that is assigned by the Investigator(s) or Hearing Panel. Costs associated with conditions may be the responsibility of the student and will be billed to the student’s account. Some examples of conditions include, but are not limited to:

- Personal and/or academic assessment/counseling intake session.
- Discretionary educational conditions and/or programs of educational service to the University and/or community.
- Residence hall relocation and/or contract review/cancellation of residence hall contract and/or use of dining facilities.
- Restitution or compensation for loss, damage or injury, which may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
- Monetary assessment owed to the University.
- Completion of an alcohol or drug education program.
- Referral to the Alcohol & Drug Abuse Council for the Concho Valley (ADACCV) for assessment, http://www.adaccv.org/.

7. Restrictions
A restriction is an additional component of a disciplinary sanction. A restriction is usually an educational component that is to occur in conjunction with the sanctions and will usually be time specific. Some examples of restrictions include, but are not limited to:

- Revocation of parking privileges.
- Denial of eligibility for holding office in registered student organizations.
- Denial of participation in extracurricular activities.
- Prohibited access to University facilities and/or prohibited direct or indirect contact with members of the University community.
- Loss of privileges on a temporary or permanent basis.

10. Appeal Procedures for Sexual Misconduct

In Sexual Misconduct cases, either the Complainant or Respondent may appeal the finding or the sanction(s) imposed in a Panel Hearing by submitting a written petition to the designated appeal officer, within three (3) University business days after the delivery of the written decision regarding responsibility. The written appeal must be filed with the University’s Title IX Coordinator, as directed in the written determination regarding responsibility, and the party’s written appeal must set forth the grounds for the appeal and any supporting information.

An appeal may not be filed on behalf of the student by a third party.

Upon the filing of written appeal, the University will give written notice of the appeal to the other party. That party will have three (3) University working days to respond to the appeal.

The petition must clearly set forth the grounds for the appeal, together with the evidence upon which the appeal is based. A disagreement with the decision alone shall not constitute grounds for appeal. The only proper grounds for appeal, and the only issues that may be considered on appeal are as follows:

- A procedural or substantive error that significantly impacted the outcome of the Hearing (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.);
- The discovery of new evidence, not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included;
- The Title IX Coordinator, Investigator(s), or decision maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter; or
- The sanctions imposed substantially varies from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions.
NOTE: Lack of participation at any part of the Grievance Process does not constitute new evidence.

The designated Appeal Officer is a trained University staff or faculty member who did not serve as the Investigator or an Administrative Hearing Officer in the original Title IX Hearing Process and will render a neutral, impartial, and unbiased decision.

The Appeal Officer may submit the written appeal and response to the original Hearing Body, and that Body may submit its response in support of the appeal or original decision to the Title IX Coordinator or designee within three (3) University working days.

The Appeal Officer will first review the appeal to determine if the appeal is timely and properly sets forth the appropriate grounds for appeal, with adequate accompanying evidence. If any of these requirements are not met, the appeal will be dismissed, and the decision will be final.

If the Appeal Officer determines that the sanctions imposed substantially vary from the range of sanctions normally imposed for similar infractions, the appeal identifies a procedural/substantive error, or new evidence that was unavailable at the original Hearing, the Appeal Officer will then determine whether the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision of the Hearing Panel. If the designated appeal officer determines that the error or new evidence would have substantially impacted the decision, he or she may:

- Modify the finding and/or increase, decrease, or otherwise modify the sanctions;
- Remand the case to the original Hearing Panel;
- Remand the case to a new Hearing Panel.

The Office of Title IX Compliance shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student(s) of the status of the appeal throughout the appellate process and shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the student(s) of the result of their appeal using the written notification procedures within five (5) University working days from receipt of all responses. If necessary, the Appeal Officer will notify the student should they need additional time to determine the outcome of the appeal. The decision of the designated appeal officer is final and cannot be appealed.

If the Appeal Officer remands the decision to a new Hearing Panel, the decision of that Hearing Panel is final and may not be appealed.

10. Interference with an Investigation

Any person who knowingly and intentionally interferes with the Grievance Process conducted under this policy is subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or separation from the university. Interference with the Grievance Process may include, but is not limited to:
• Attempting to coerce, compel, influence, or prevent an individual from providing testimony or relevant information;
• Divulging confidential information;
• Removing, destroying, or altering documentation relevant to the investigation; or
• Providing false or misleading information to the investigator, or encouraging others to do so.

Angelo State’s commitment to preventing and raising awareness of the harm resulting from conduct prohibited in these policies include providing primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new Employees, ongoing education to both Employees and students, and emailing information regarding this policy to students at the beginning of each academic semester. This policy is published on the University’s website and information regarding this policy and related policies is included in orientation materials for new students, faculty, and staff.

All incoming students (including transfer students) at Angelo State University are required to attend an orientation session and take an online training module related to Sexual Assault Prevention.

Undergraduate students must take two, two-part trainings called AlcoholEDU and Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates.
• AlcoholEDU provides detailed information about alcohol and the effects it has on the mind and body. While many students choose not to drink while in college, the training assists students in developing skills to handle situations involving their peers and their use of alcohol.
• Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates is intended to educate students about healthy relationships, affirmative consent, good communication, and empowers students to be active bystanders.

Graduate students are required to take one, two-part training called Sexual Assault Prevention for Graduate Students. This training is intended to educate students about healthy relationships, affirmative consent, good communication, and empowers students to be active bystanders.

In addition to these trainings above, student athletes are required to take an additional two-part training online about sexual assault prevention.

Students will receive emails with information about how to access these trainings and relative due dates. Trainings may be accessed through the student’s Ramport. Additional information can be found at: https://www.angelo.edu/services/title-ix/alcoholedu-and-haven.php.
Failure to complete these trainings by the due date may result in a hold being placed on the student’s account.

All employees must attend Equal Opportunity non-discrimination and sex/gender discrimination training including sexual assault, sexual harassment, and campus crime mandated reporter training within the first 30 days of employment and receive supplemental training every two years. Other appropriate compliance training sessions will also be conducted on an ongoing basis. Training sessions will include information on how and where to report incidents of prohibited conduct, resources available, as well as risk reduction and safe and positive options for bystander intervention.

In addition, University Employees and administrators responsible for implementing this policy, including the Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Deputy Coordinators, Investigators, Hearing Officers, and Appeal Officers receive annual training about offenses, investigatory procedures, due process requirements, impartiality, conflicts of interest, informal resolution process, and University policies related to or described in this policy.

Title IX Coordinators, Investigators, Hearing Officers, and Appeal Officers shall receive adequate and unbiased training on the application of the Sexual Misconduct policy, and the Grievance Process, including, where appropriate, how to conduct Hearings, the use of technology, and how to make relevancy decisions. All materials used to train these staff members are publicly available on the Title IX & Sexual Misconduct website.

PART II: COMMUNITY POLICIES
SECTION A: ALCOHOL POLICY & INFORMATION

1. Beverage Provisions in the Code of Student Conduct Alcoholic Beverages violations are outlined in Part I, Section B.1.c. of the Code of Student Conduct.

SECTION B: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

1. Angelo State University Statement of Academic Integrity
Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one's own class and/or course work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Academic integrity is a personal choice to abide by the standards of intellectual honesty and responsibility. Because education is a shared effort to achieve learning through the exchange of ideas, students, faculty, and staff have the collective responsibility to build mutual trust and respect. Ethical behavior and independent thought are essential for the highest level of academic achievement, which then must be measured. Academic achievement includes scholarship, teaching, and learning, all of which are shared endeavors. Grades are a device used to quantify the successful accumulation of knowledge through learning. Adhering to the standards of academic integrity ensures grades are earned honestly. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which students, faculty, and staff build their educational and professional careers.

2. Academic Dishonesty Definitions
Students must understand the principles of academic integrity and abide by them in all classes and/or course work at the University. Academic Misconduct violations are outlined in Part I, Section B.1.a. of the Code of Student Conduct. If there are questions of interpretation of academic integrity policies or about what might constitute an academic integrity violation, students are responsible for seeking guidance from the faculty member teaching the course in question.

3. Instructor Responsibilities
Any person aware of alleged violations of academic integrity should report the allegation to the instructor of record in the course. The instructor in a course is responsible for initiating action in each case of misconduct that occurs in that class. The instructor should contact the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee to discuss the nature of the violation and the student’s record of academic misconduct violations. Instructions for reporting allegations of academic misconduct are available in the Code of Student Conduct. The instructor will notify the student of the alleged misconduct and attempt to discuss the matter with the student and receive a response from the student about the allegations. Then, the instructor may notify the student of possible academic sanctions including, but not limited to, assigning a paper or research project related to the academic integrity; assigning a make-up assignment that is different than the original assignment; issuing no credit for the original assignment; reducing the grade for the assignment and/or course; issuing a failing grade on the assignment; and/or issuing a failing grade for the course. The academic penalty will not be implemented or assigned until all disciplinary procedures are complete. All academic integrity violations should be referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee as a central clearinghouse of violations. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will review the case and may impose additional sanctions if warranted as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.

4. Withdrawal and Assignment of Grades
   a. Once a student has been notified of an academic integrity allegation, the student may not drop the course until the academic integrity processes are complete. If a student drops or withdraws, the student will be reinstated to the course in question. A student should continue attending class and participating in course work until the disciplinary process is complete. If it is determined that the student was not responsible for academic integrity violations and/or the referring faculty member allows the student to withdraw from the course, the student may file a request with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for approval to drop the course or withdraw from the University retroactively.
   b. If a referring faculty member must submit a final course grade before an Academic Integrity Violation allegation is resolved, the faculty member should notify the Department Chair and the Academic Dean of the intention to assign a grade of F and/or leave the final grade blank. The involved student may be given a temporary grade of X by the Registrar’s Office, which does not affect the student’s GPA, until the academic integrity adjudication process is complete. When the academic integrity adjudication process is complete, the final grade will be assigned through the appropriate academic channels and the completion of a grade change form. All appeals related to academic integrity violations should follow the process outlined in Part I, Section B.3.e.8. (Disciplinary Appeals Procedures).

5. Academic and Disciplinary Penalties
   The academic and disciplinary penalties will not be implemented until the disciplinary procedure and appeal process has been exhausted. In cases in which a student is found not responsible for academic dishonesty, the student will be entitled to the grade he/she would have received in the absence of an academic integrity violation. In addition, the student will be allowed to continue in the particular course without prejudice.

6. Referrals to the Executive Director of Student Affairs
   In addition to the assignment of academic sanctions by the instructor of record, a referral of the academic misconduct violation should also be made to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for the possible assignment of additional disciplinary sanctions. Instructions for reporting academic misconduct violations are available in the Code of Student Conduct. A student referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for alleged violations of academic misconduct is entitled to all substantive and procedural guarantees provided in the Code of Student Conduct. Instructors of record of the course where the alleged violation occurred and the Academic Dean of the college where the student is enrolled or of the college housing the course where the alleged violation occurred may participate in the adjudication of the violation and assignment of additional sanctions with the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.

NOTE: Additional Academic Misconduct information is available from the Office of Student Affairs.

k. Emergency contacts as listed in students’ educational records may be notified by designated staff upon notice of student hospitalization or transport via emergency personnel.

6. Students Rights to Challenge Records
   Students have the right to challenge records and information directly relating to them. This section does not include procedures for students challenging individual grades. Grade appeal procedures are described in the Angelo State University Student Handbook, Part II, Section E.10. The challenge is limited to inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate records and information. The procedures set forth below shall be followed for an appropriate challenge.
   a. Any student wishing to challenge records or information directly relating to him or her must notify the individual responsible for maintaining the records. The notice must be in writing and specifically identify the item challenged and the basis for the custodian of the challenged records.
   b. All initial meetings will be informal and participants will include: the custodian of the challenged records or information, the student, and the author (if appropriate) of the material.
   c. If any of the participants (record custodian, student or author) are not satisfied with the results of the informal meeting, a formal Hearing will be conducted. The student may present evidence relevant to the content of the educational records to demonstrate how they are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the privacy rights of the student. The Hearing also provides an opportunity for correction or deletion of any inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate data contained in the records and for insertion into the records a written explanation by the student requesting the content of the challenged records.

Online FERPA/Proxy information can be found on the Registrar homepage at: http://www.angelo.edu/ferpa/online-ferpa-proxy.php

SECTION P: USE OF UNIVERSITY SPACE

1. General Policy
With the exception of free expression activities outlined below, the space and facilities of the University are intended primarily for the support of the instructional programs of the institution. Second priority is given to programs sponsored and conducted by University academic and administrative departments or organizations affiliated with those departments. Beyond these two priorities, use of campus space and facilities is encouraged for activities that have as their purpose, service or benefit to the Angelo State University community, and that are sponsored by registered student organizations.

University buildings, grounds, or property may be available for use by outside groups in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the University policy, to the extent that the programs and activities of these groups do not conflict or interfere with normal University functions or the activities of campus organizations. An individual who is not a student, faculty, or staff member may attend functions or activities held on University property, but to be eligible for the use of campus facilities, the function or activity must be sponsored by and affiliated with a University department or registered student organization. Sponsorship and/or co-sponsorship minimally include, but are not limited to, direct participation in planning, coordination and implementation by members of the sponsoring organizations. A department, student or registered student organization may not reserve space or facilities on campus and permit it to be used by a non-registered organization or off-campus group or person. Outside groups desiring use of University facilities must obtain approval for their program or activity from the Director of Business Services. The Director of Business Services is responsible for making certain that the proposed program and activity is within the Regent’s Rules and University policies. Reservation requests must be submitted to the Office of Special Events online at: http://reservations.angelo.edu. Appropriate rental charges shall be charged to outside groups using University facilities. State law requires that University facilities and property be used only for state purposes and not for private gain.

2. Reservation Requirements
   a. Reservations must be made for the use of buildings and grounds under the control of the University. Requests for reservations will be granted according to the priorities of the designated area. The procedures for requesting use of the University facilities are available online at: http://reservations.angelo.edu. Reservation requests must be submitted to the Office of Special Events online at: http://reservations.angelo.edu.
   b. If the use of facilities is for programs or activities involving minor children, the sponsoring group must comply with Texas Education Code, Chapter 51.976, which requires sexual abuse and child molestation training, certification, and reporting for program employees. Documentation of timely reporting to the Texas Department of State Health Services of such training should be received before reservation of space of facility will be confirmed.

3. Use of Facilities by Student Organizations
   a. Student organizations must be registered to use University facilities or grounds.
   b. A student organization that has petitioned the Center for Multicultural and Student Activities Programs for registration status may hold up to three meetings in the Houston Harte University Center pending action on the petition. These meetings must be held within a 25 calendar-day time period from the date the petitioning organization filed its intent to register. Other campus facilities or space may be reserved by “petitioning” student organizations for one meeting only, if their full-time faculty or staff advisor agrees to be present at their event. Additional reservations will not be approved until the student organization is registered.

4. Procedure and Priorities for Designated Facilities
   a. Houston Harte University Center
      The facilities, services, and programs of the Houston Harte University Center have been designed to support the total educational mission of the University. In addition to recreational and dining facilities, the University Center provides a wide range of facilities and services for ASU students and their registered organizations. The meeting rooms in the University Center may be reserved for departmental/faculty/staff meetings and educational conferences. Co-sponsored conferences and meetings are provided for the cost of expenses incurred (rental fees for said events may be waived by following procedures outlined in the rules and regulations). The Facilities Fee Waiver form is located at: http://reservations.angelo.edu (under the Links tab).

   b. Academic Buildings
      Any registered student organization may request the use of space in academic buildings for specific purposes. These purposes may include, but are not limited to, regular meetings of honorary or professional organizations, lectures, seminars or workshops and special programs and functions. The space must be reserved through the Office of Special Events. All requests must be submitted with the agreement of a full-time faculty or unclassified staff advisor for the student organization using the online request form at: http://reservations.angelo.edu. All use of academic space is “as is” (group is responsible for own set-up) and the full-time faculty or staff advisor assumes responsibility for accessing the space, supervising the meeting, and securing the space in same condition it was found. For-credit academic use requests may supersede not-for-credit reservations. Recurring space assignments may be made for one semester only. All space assignments are made on the basis of use consistent with the purposes of the University and of available space. Academic use by departments and colleges has priority over others uses and organizational assignments may be changed or canceled if conflicts with regular academic programs develop.
      Academic Space will be assigned on a limited basis if:
      - The intended use is in keeping with the educational purposes of the University.
      - The intended use does not conflict with the use by academic programs or academic organizations.
      - The intended use does not conflict with normal security and maintenance.

   c. Residence Halls
      Currently enrolled students who live in the residence halls have first priority for use of all residence hall facilities. Facilities may also be provided for individuals or groups whose activities are sponsored by, or affiliated with, Housing and Residential Programs. University departments or registered student organizations may use residence hall facilities during the summer, or at times when space is available, for workshops, institutes, short courses and conferences. However, space availability is limited, and requests for the use of residence hall space must be made to the Director of Housing and Residential Programs or designee.

d. Intercollegiate Athletic Facilities

The Junell Center/Stephens Arena, LeGrand Stadium at 1st Community Credit Union Field and other athletic fields are owned and maintained by the University for the primary use and benefit of the intercollegiate athletic programs of the University, of allied non-University athletic activities consistent with such programs and of official academic events of the University. The use of these facilities shall be limited to these purposes unless otherwise authorized by the Director of Business Services or designee. Requests for use of all intercollegiate athletic facilities must be made to the Office of Special Events online at: http://reservations.angelo.edu.

e. Recreational Facilities

The Ben Kelly Center for Human Performance, intramural fields, tennis courts, racquetball courts and basketball court are intended primarily for student recreational and instructional use on an organized group and individual basis. University Recreation is responsible for scheduling the use of these facilities for University Recreation programs and services. A hammock farm was installed between Robert and Mary Massie Residence Halls and this is the only approved campus location for hammock use. Hammocks are available for check-out in the Ben Kelly Center for Human Performance building. Other University departments, organizations, and off-campus guests may request use of the recreational facilities from the Office of Special Events using an online form located at: http://reservations.angelo.edu.

f. Pavilion

The Pavilion is designed to meet the recreational needs of students, faculty and staff and to provide programming opportunities for the University and its registered student organizations. Reservation requests may be submitted to the Office of Special Events online at http://reservations.angelo.edu. The Pavilion may also be rented according to University policy governing this privilege.

g. Lake Facility

The Angelo State University Lake Facility, located at 1925 Beaty Road, is open and operated seasonally by University Recreation for general use by Angelo State University students, faculty and staff. The Lake Facility is also available for University department and registered student organization events as well as private rental events (based on date availability). Reservation requests for the Lake Facility must be submitted to the Office of Special Events online at: http://reservations.angelo.edu.

5. Use of Campus Grounds

a. Selected grounds areas (other than those described above) are available for activities that are sponsored and approved by University departments, registered student organizations or individual faculty, staff, and students. Academic use by departments and colleges has priority and assignments may be changed or canceled if conflicts with regular academic programs develop. Reservation requests must be submitted to the Office of Special Events online at http://reservations.angelo.edu.
b. Students or registered organizations using a designated area are subject to the following requirements:
   • Use of amplification equipment must comply with the guidelines in Item 8. Use of Amplification Equipment (below).
   • A structure may not be erected on campus grounds without prior written approval that will include arrangements for cleaning up after the event.
   • If any expenses will be incurred in the course of an event, the sponsor or co-sponsor will be required to supply a University account number before the activity can be approved by the Director of Business Services.
   • Violations of these campus grounds use regulations are subject to the disciplinary sanctions and procedures outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.
   • Students or registered student organizations desiring grounds use may be required to provide evidence of appropriate liability insurance in accordance with recommendations from the Environmental Health, Safety, and Risk Management Office, Senior Executive Assistant to the President and General Counsel, or other University departments as necessary prior to approval from the Director of Business Services.
   • Participants in, and/or sponsors for, events may be required to sign a “Hold Harmless” release.
   • The sponsor should refer to procedures provided by the Environmental Health, Safety, and Risk Management Office to make necessary arrangements for any event that includes food handling or food service on Angelo State University property by anyone other than the contracted campus food service provider.
   • The sponsor should contact Parking Services to make necessary parking arrangements for the event.
   • If the use of University grounds is for programs or activities involving minor children, the sponsoring group must comply with Texas Education Code 51.976, which requires sexual abuse and child molestation training, certification, and reporting for program employees. Documentation of timely reporting to the Texas Department of State Health Services of such training should be received before reservation of space or facility will be confirmed.

6. Appeals of Campus Grounds Use Request Denials
   Students or registered student organizations whose requests for the use of University grounds are denied may appeal to the Director of Business Services as follows:
   a. A written appeal describing the objections to the denial presented to the Director of Business Services must be filed no later than five (5) University business days after the receipt of notice of the denial from the Assistant Director for Special Events.
   b. The Director of Business Services will convey the appeal decision, in writing, to the student or registered student organization within a reasonable time from the receipt of the written appeal.
SECTION Q: WITHDRAWALS

1. Voluntary Withdrawal from the University
   a. According to the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog, students who find it necessary to withdraw from the University during a semester or summer term must apply to the Registrar’s Office prior to the term withdrawal deadline. A student wishing to drop to zero hours must withdraw from the institution. If a student withdraws on the 13th class day or after, a W will be recorded for all classes that semester or term, and these W’s will not be counted toward the six state-defined permitted drops. International students must receive clearance from the Center for International Studies as a part of the withdrawal procedure. Student athletes must receive clearance from the Director of Athletic Academic Services.
   b. Students considering withdrawal for medical reasons may contact the Office of Student Affairs to discuss additional University resources and services.
   c. There may be financial implications to withdrawal. If a student receives financial aid or is living in Angelo State University student housing, he/she should first contact those offices before applying for the withdrawal.
   d. Refunds
      The Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog indicates that students withdrawing to zero hours at their request or those who have been withdrawn due to University action may be eligible to receive a refund of paid tuition and fees. A tuition and fee refund schedule is listed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog and at: http://www.angelo.edu/services/registrars_office/withdrawals_refunds.php.
   e. Returning to the University after a Voluntary Withdrawal Application materials and deadlines for former Angelo State University students are available at: https://myfuture.angelo.edu. Official transcripts from all institutions attended subsequent to Angelo State University reenrollment must be submitted by the application deadline. All returning students must have a minimum of a 2.0 GPA on work taken since leaving Angelo State University.

2. Involuntary Withdrawals
   a. Angelo State University seeks to balance the rights of individual students with the rights of the community. In order to maintain the safety of both, some behaviors require consultation among a network of campus professionals to determine the appropriate course of action to address the behavior.
   b. When a student poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others, and the direct threat cannot be eliminated or reduced to an acceptable level through the provision of reasonable accommodations where required, a student may be involuntarily withdrawn from the University.
   c. Notice regarding students who may be direct threats (both self-reports and third-party reports) should be made to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee.
   d. A “direct threat” means:
      There is a high probability (not just a slightly increased, speculative, or remote risk) of substantial harm and based on observation of a student’s conduct, actions, and statements.
e. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will review the information presented in the notice including what attempts, if any, have been made to reduce or eliminate the direct threat such as the student’s voluntary compliance with medical or counseling assistance.
f. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will notify the student of the concern.
g. The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will request a meeting with the student to inform the student that an initial individualized, objective assessment will be scheduled within five (5) University business days in order to determine whether the student poses a direct threat to him/herself or others. The meeting may include, but is not limited to discussion of:
   - Involvement of parents or significant others.
   - Academic progress.
   - Living arrangements.
   - Previously granted accommodations.
   - Confidentiality waivers.
   - Other possible accommodations, care and support resources including medical or counseling assistance.
   - Withdrawal implications such as financial aid, health insurance, visas, and academic timelines.
h. If the student does not respond to the request for a meeting or does not attend the meeting, written notice of the pending assessment will be sent via Certified Mail to the student’s last known official, local address as provided by the student to the Registrar’s Office and/or electronically to the student’s University e-mail account. Students not responding to requests for meetings or assessments may be referred to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for allegations of failure to comply with reasonable directive and/or requests of a University official acting in the performance of his or her duties.
i. Temporary Suspensions
   During the involuntary withdrawal process, if the for Student Affairs or designee determines that an immediate direct threat exists or an overt disruption of the campus community has occurred, the student may be temporarily suspended pending a final decision on the involuntary withdrawal as long as the student has received notice of the concern, had an opportunity to address the concern, and the student was afforded a Hearing and right to appeal the final decision. During a temporary suspension, the student may not attend classes, use University services and/or resources (except those expressly permitted by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee), and may not be on campus until the proceedings have been resolved. If the student needs to return to campus, the visit must be coordinated through the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee and the University Police Department.
j. Involuntary Withdrawal Assessment
An individualized, objective assessment will be completed to determine whether a direct threat exists, and if so, whether the student should be permitted to remain enrolled at the University. The assessment will be based on reasonable medical judgment, using current medical knowledge, or the best available objective information, to assess the student’s ability to safely participate in the University’s programs. The assessment will be in the form of a written report containing the findings and recommendations of the medical and other professionals performing the assessment.

Within five (5) University business days from the initial meeting with the student or five (5) University business days from the date of notice regarding the meeting, the student will be scheduled for an assessment with a medical doctor, a licensed counseling or clinical psychologist, and other professionals as appropriate. If applicable, this assessment would include a licensed professional counselor from University Counseling Services. The student may provide information from other medical professionals as part of the assessment.

If a student elects not to participate in this assessment, the process will continue with the information that is otherwise available to consider. The assessment will determine:

- The nature, duration, and severity of the risk.
- The probability that the potentially threatening injury will actually occur.
- Whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures will sufficiently mitigate the risk.

k. Involuntary Withdrawal Committee

The assessment report will be forwarded to the Involuntary Withdrawal Committee for review. The Involuntary Withdrawal Committee is comprised of the following voting members: the student’s Academic Dean, Director of the Student Counseling Services, Assistant Director of Student Conduct, Senior Executive Assistant to the President and General Counsel, and the Executive Director of Student Affairs. If the student resides in campus housing, the Director of Housing and Residential Programs will also serve as a voting member of the committee. If the student is receiving disability accommodations the Director of Disability Services will also serve as voting member of the committee. The Executive Director of Student Affairs will chair the committee. A non-voting resource person may be assigned by the Executive Director of Student Affairs to present information and assist the committee. The Involuntary Withdrawal Committee will meet with the student in an informal, non-adversarial Hearing to review the information collected throughout the process, and discuss the assessment with the student. The student will be permitted an opportunity to attend the Hearing, address the evidence being considered by the Involuntary Withdrawal Committee, and present information on his or her behalf. The student may be accompanied by one or more advisors. The Hearing will be scheduled by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee within five (5) University business days of the completion of the individualized assessment. The student will be provided the information to be considered at the Hearing by the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee in advance of the Hearing. When deliberating a decision, the Involuntary Withdrawal Committee will meet in closed session with only voting members and the resource person present. Following the Hearing, the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will determine one of the following:

- The student may remain enrolled at the University with no restrictions.
- The student may remain enrolled at the University subject to specific conditions and/or restrictions as defined by the Involuntary Withdrawal Committee.
- The student should be involuntarily withdrawn from the University upon a specific date.

l. Review of Committee Recommendation
The Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee will notify the student in writing of the decision within five (5) University business days.

m. Appeals Process
The student may appeal the decision of the Executive Director of Student Affairs by submitting a written appeal to the Vice President for Student Affairs within five (5) University business days. The student will be notified in writing of the final decision within five (5) University business days of receipt of the appeal.

n. Final Decision
Upon completion of the appeal process or with no receipt of an appeal, the student who is involuntarily withdrawn may not attend class or use University facilities, must vacate University housing within 24 hours and may not return to campus unless approved by the Executive Director of Student Affairs. Referrals will be made for the student upon request to appropriate community resources, i.e. medical care and housing. The student may be entitled to refunds or prorated tuition, fees, and room and board charges as a result of involuntary withdrawal. A registration hold will be placed on the student's record at the direction of the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee, limiting any subsequent registration until approval is given by the Executive Director of Student Affairs.

o. Eligibility for Readmission
Students are eligible for consideration of readmission following an involuntary withdrawal after one calendar year from the withdrawal date. At that time, the student should present documentation to the Executive Director of Student Affairs or designee for review. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, current psychological evaluation, demonstration of ongoing medical care, and a plan for care upon re-enrollment. Readmission requests and documentation must be presented at least 30 University business days prior to the beginning of the semester that the student wishes to attend. Readmission will be contingent upon demonstration or documentation that the student is no longer a direct threat, and upon meeting admission deadlines and requirements.

- Revocation of Consent: One partner can revoke their consent at any time, so long as it’s clearly communicated to the other partner. Revocation of consent may be communicated verbally and/or non-verbally. Once a partner has revoked his or her consent, the sexual activity must stop. If one partner continues the sexual activity after the other partner has revoked his or her consent, a sexual assault has occurred.
- A prior existing sexual relationship between consenting adults does not imply future consent to engage in sexual activities. At any time in a relationship, one partner may revoke his or her consent to sexual activities with the other partner. This is true even in marriage or other long-term sexual relationships. Consent for one sexual activity does not equal consent for other sexual activities.
- Consent cannot be compelled. Compelled sexual activity is by definition non-consensual. Compelling someone into engaging in sexual activities by the use of physical force, threats, intimidation, or coercion invalidates consent, even if it’s eventually given, and thus constitutes a violation of the ASU Sexual Misconduct policies.

- A person cannot consent to sexual activity when they are incapacitated. Engaging in sexual activity with someone you know or reasonably should know is incapacitated is a violation of the Code of Conduct. Incapacitation occurs when a person lacks the ability to make informed, rational decisions due to impairment, which may be temporary or permanent.

- The question of whether the Respondent should have known that the Complainant was incapacitated is objectively based on what a reasonable person, sober and exercising good judgment, would have known about the condition of the Complainant.

- There are three types of incapacitation:
  - Age: A minor, in Texas is defined as under the age of 17 cannot consent to sexual activity.
  - Mental Disability: A person with a mental disorder or other cognitive issue which prohibits them from making an informed decision lacks capacity to engage in sexual activity.
  - Physical Incapacitation: A person who is asleep, unconscious, and/or intoxicated to the point of no longer understanding or controlling their actions cannot consent to engage in sexual activity.

The term includes sexual harassment, nonconsensual sexual contact, nonconsensual sexual intercourse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, public indecency, interpersonal violence, sexual violence, and any other misconduct based on sex.

Interpersonal Violence

An offense that meets the definition of domestic violence or dating violence:

Domestic Violence or Family Violence

Physical, sexual, or verbal abuse, or threat of abuse or violence, committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the Complainant, by a person with whom the Complainant shares a child in common, by a person with whom the Complainant is cohabitating (or has cohabitated) with a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Texas, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Texas. Verbal abuse must be sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it adversely affects the victim’s education or creates an intimidating, hostile, abusive or offensive educational environment which interferes with the student’s ability to realize the intended benefits of the University’s resources and opportunities.

Dating Violence
