This is a revised Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between Angelo State University (ASU), an institution of higher education of the State of Texas and a member of the Texas Tech University system, and the 17th Training Group (17 TRG). When referred to collectively, they are referred to as the "Parties".

1. AUTHORITY AND REFERENCES

1.1. AFI 25-201
1.2. DoDI 4000.19

2. PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND: ASU and the 17 TRG share mutual interest regarding the availability and quality of higher education available to the intelligence community. The purpose of this MOU is to assist graduates from the 17 TRG to plan a course of study that will facilitate and effect transfer into a degree program at ASU.

2.1. Transfer and Transferability of Courses:

2.1.1. Students completing the 17 TRG's Intelligence Officer's Course (14N) shall receive up to 12 semester credit hours towards the Master's of Security Studies (MSS) in Intelligence and Analysis (INA) or the Master's of Science (MS) in Global Security Studies (GSS) or the Master of Science in Homeland Security (HS). The department chair of Security Studies and Criminal Justice determines how these credits may apply to the degree plan to ensure all requirements for graduation from ASU are met for the student's program of study.

2.1.2. Admission into the MSS in INA or MS in GSS or MS in HS program within the Department of Security Studies and Criminal Justice will require the student to meet ASU graduate admission requirements in order to begin the program.

2.1.3. Students meeting the above qualifications must submit a transcript of their coursework from the 17 TRG 14N course to the Department of Security Studies and Criminal Justice and will be awarded the following credits upon completion of their first successful semester (fall or spring) at ASU:

2.2. Scholarships

2.2.1. ASU offers a tuition assistance scholarship to active-duty military who are degree seeking and submit a valid and current Tuition Assistance (TA) form to cover courses at ASU. The scholarship will cover the cost difference between TA and any other gift aid and the actual cost of tuition and fees for those courses authorized on the TA approval form. This will allow ASU to offer courses at zero cost to students using TA. Gift aid includes grants and scholarships other than the tuition assistance scholarship. All gift aid shall be used to reduce the cost of tuition and fees for approved courses after TA funds have been applied. If a balance is due after the application of TA funds and all other gift aid, ASU will cover the remaining balance with tuition assistance scholarship funds to reduce the balance to zero. If a student has sufficient gift aid to cover all amounts due after the application of TA, tuition assistance scholarship funds will not be applied. As long as funds are available, ASU degree-seeking students have the opportunity to be considered for ASU General scholarships and the ASU Distinguished Graduate Scholarship. Eligibility requirements and award amounts vary depending on the scholarship and the year of enrollment. Updated ASU scholarship information is available on the ASU Scholarships webpage.
